THE LORNE BROGUE

TO WEAR WITH

THE KILT OR KNICKERBOCKERS.

Since the introduction of the Lorne Brogue it has been universally admired. The following is one of a host of testimonials as to its ease, comfort, and style of finish, which we have received, the originals of which can be seen at 64, HAYMARKET, 64.

"IDSTONE" writes of the Lorne Shooting Brogue:

"I am very much pleased with the Lorne Brogues, which are perfect in design, workmanship, and material, and leave nothing to be desired."—March 29, 1871.

"If the opinion I have expressed of the Lorne Brogues is of any service to you, you are at liberty to publish it."—April 5.

JAMES CHAMBERLIN'S NORWICH
GRANULATED DOG FOOD.

Is found invaluable for Pointers, Setters, Greyhounds, House and Yard Dogs. It keeps the Dogs in perfect health, and free from unpleasant smells—particularly useful in the hunting field.

THE most wonderful discovery of the day. Dogs fed on this Food never ail; all smells of an unpleasant character prevented; universal health prevails.

Hunting and Coursing Dogs fed with this Food stand any amount of work.

The convenient mode in which it is packed renders it very easy of conveyance. (One pint of cold water with each packet.) Cold water will do to mix with on an emergency, but hot water is preferred.

Mr. James Mousey, of this city, the celebrated judge of dogs, has given me permission to use his name as a reference to the good qualities of this Food; he says it is the best and cheapest Food in the world. A trial is respectfully solicited.

SPRATT'S PATENT MEAT FIBRINE DOG CAKES.

From the reputation these Meat Fibrine Cakes have now gained, they require scarcely any explanation to recommend them to the use of every one who keeps a dog; suffice it to say they are free from salt, and contain "dates," the exclusive use of which, in combination with meat and meal, to compose a biscuit is secured to us by Letters Patent, and without which no biscuit so composed can possibly be a successful food for dogs.

Price 22s. per cwt., carriage paid; larger quantities 20s. per cwt., carriage paid.

See Editorial Notice in the Field, 3rd June, 1871, page 458.

"Royal Kennels, Sandringham, Dec. 20, 1873.

"To the Manager of Spratt's Patent

"Dear Sir,—In reply to your inquiry I beg to say I have used your biscuits for the last two years, and never had the dogs in better health. I consider them invaluable for feeding dogs, as they insure the food being perfectly cooked, which is of great importance.

"Yours faithfully,

"C. H. JACKSON."

From HENRY GIBSON, Esq., Brokenhurst, Lymington, 22nd May, 1873.

"Spratt's Patent Cakes I have used now for more than three years. I can with much pleasure strongly recommend them as a first-class food for all description of dogs."

"Holmbush House, Watford, Herts, April 7, 1870.

"Gentlemen,—For the last five or six years I have used Spratt's Patent Cakes, and have found them a very convenient and excellent food for dogs. I have great pleasure in giving you this testimonial; but the dogs which I have successfully exhibited at the principal shows are the best testimonials I think you can have.

"Yours obediently,

"FRANK ADCOCK."

"36, North Great George-street, Dublin, June 9th, 1874.

"Gentlemen,—Please to forward to my private residence, as above, 4cwt. of Dog Biscuits as before; let them be precisely the same as those supplied on all former occasions. I have much pleasure in bearing personal testimony to their suitability and general efficiency for Greyhounds, and in adding that my Greyhound, 'Royal Mary,' winner at Altcar of last year's Waterloo Plate, was almost entirely trained for all her last year's engagements upon them.

"Your obedient servant,

"WILLIAM J. DUNBAR, M.A."

SPRATT'S PATENT POULTRY and GAME MEAL

Is the greatest egg-producing food and fattener of Ducks and Poultry known; unequalled for raising young Pheasants, Chickens, and Ducklings; and also of great value in feeding during the voyage small birds exported for acclimatisation. 22s. per cwt., carriage paid; 5 cwt. and over, 20s. per cwt., carriage paid.

"Hazlewell Hall, King's Heath, Birmingham, June 9, 1872.

"Sirs,—Please forward me another cwt., I have never used anything that suits chicken so well.

"Yours truly,

"JAMES WATTS."

"Bay View Villa, Swansea, March 25, 1873.

"Gentlemen,—Will you be good enough to send me another 10 cwt. of Poultry Meal, and also 2 cwt. of Crissel, as I find it suits my fowls so admirably? I have not lost a chick as yet, and as I have several broods now hatching, I hope you will be able to forward it at once, as I do not wish to feed them on other food, my others having done so well.

"Yours faithfully,

"H. FRATT."

PREFACE.

THIS work, prepared by me for the Kennel Club, has been produced at a great and necessary expense, and is intended to fill up a blank in the history of the canine world. The lapse of many years since the first show has made it difficult to obtain reliable information, and has caused much delay, more attributable to the owners of the dogs than to the compiler. As the work is of so novel a nature, I have found no precedent to guide me in its preparation; but I commenced it only after discussing the subject with the best authorities of the day. By rigidly excluding or pointing out all doubtful pedigrees, I have endeavoured to make it as much a record of fact and truth as possible; and if it be incomplete, I can only say that it must be borne in mind that a dog, unlike a horse, may have several lots of offspring in the year, and brings in some instances as many as fifteen or twenty puppies into the world at a time; and that though I have applied for pedigrees to at least 3500 persons, many letters and circulars have been returned through the post endorsed "gone away, left no address."

On the other hand, I have met with much courtesy and kind consideration from hundreds of exhibitors, amongst whom I include H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, the Dukes of Buccleuch and Beaufort, Viscount Downe, The late Lord Rossmore, Lord Waterpark, Lord Lichfield, Lord Onslow, Lord Fitzhardinge, Lord Alexander Paget, Lord Henry Paget, Sir T. Davies Lloyd, Sir A. B. C. Dixie, Sir J. Gardiner Baird, Sir J. Ogilvy, Sir Vincent Corbet, Sir R. C. Musgrave, Sir Watkin Wynne, Mr. R. S. Holford, M.P., Mr. Beresford Hope, M.P., Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., Mr. Lloyd Price, Mr. Purcell Llewellyn, Rev. J. C. Macdona, Rev. T. Pearce (Idstone), Mr. J. H. Walsh (Stonehenge), Mr. S. Taylor Mendel, Mr. J. H. Dawes, Mr. J. H. Salter, Mr. R. Garth, Q.C., Mr. W. Lort, Mr. J. Walker, Mr. Lonsdale, Mr. E. Laverack, Mr. H. Lacy, Dr. Stone,

PREFACE.

Miss Hales, Miss Aglionby, Mr. De Fivas, Mr. M. B. Wynne, Mr. C. H. Musters, Mr. T. Wootton, Mr. Gibson, Mr. J. Fletcher, Rev. S. Tenison Mosse, Dr. Grant, Mr. Murchison, F.R.G.S., Mr. Boyce, Mr. Lukey, Rev. J. W. Mellor, Mr. Teasdale Buckell, Mr. J. Lowe, Major Cowen, Captain Cooper, and many others whose names do not at present occur to me.

I may add that the Bulldog classes were revised by Mr. F. Adcock, the Pointers by Mr. Whitehouse, and the Dandies, Mastiffs, and St. Bernards by other competent men, whilst the Bull-terriers and Fox-terriers underwent a careful supervision at the hands of Mr. Shirley, who, indeed, saw all the proofs and had almost as much trouble throughout as I had.

If any excellent and well-bred dogs are excluded it is because the line must be drawn somewhere, and we have taken public performance as our guide. The value of blood and pedigree is demonstrated on every page as nine-tenths of the later prize winners trace back to prize blood.

All suggestions and corrections should be addressed to me at the "FIELD" Office, and I see no reason—if the Kennel Club continue the Calendar and Stud Book—why The Ranger and Don of twenty years hence should not have their pedigrees as easily traced as George Frederick or Apology.

ADDRESSES OF MEMBERS

OF

THE KENNEL CLUB,

SEPTEMBER, 1874.

CLUB RULES.

1. The Club shall be called the Kennel Club, it shall endeavour in every way to promote the general improvement of dogs, dog shows, and dog trials.

2. The Club shall consist of not more than one hundred members—exclusive of all honorary members—to be increased from time to time as the members of the Club shall in general meeting decide.

3. It shall be under the management and direction of the committee appointed as hereinafter provided.

4. The election of members is vested solely in the committee, and shall be made by ballot, three members of the committee to be a quorum at such ballot, and one black ball to exclude..

5. Candidates must be proposed by one member of the Club and seconded by another; the candidate's name, rank, residence, and profession or occupation—if any—must be duly inserted in the book kept for that purpose by the secretary.

6. The entrance money on admission to the Club shall be five guineas, and the annual subscription shall be five guineas, payable in advance on the 1st January in each year.

7. The committee shall consist of fifteen members.

8. There shall be an annual general meeting of the Club, held in Birmingham, if possible, during the week of the annual exhibition; and at the said meetings to be held in the year 1874 and 1875, one-third of the committee shall retire, the retiring members to be decided by lot. In every subsequent year the one-third who have been longest in office shall retire. All retiring members of the committee shall be eligible for re-election.

9. The committee shall have power to elect honorary members, selected solely from non-exhibitors—without admission fee or subscription—at their discretion.

10. Any member violating the rules and regulations of the Club for the time being in force, shall be liable to be expelled by the committee; and any members of the Club who shall be proved to the satisfaction of the committee to have in any way misconducted himself in connection with dogs or dog shows, or to have in any way acted in opposition to the fundamental rules and principles upon which the club has been established, or in any other manner which would make it undesirable that he should continue to be a member, shall be requested to retire from the Club; and if a resolution to that effect shall be carried by three-fourths of the committee present at the meeting, duly summoned to consider the case, the member so requested to retire shall thenceforth cease to be a member of the Club as if he had resigned in the usual course, and his subscription for the current year shall be returned to him.

11. No member of the Club shall, under any circumstances, knowingly, either enter or exhibit a dog, or dogs, at any competition under a false name, age, pedigree, breeder, or description.

12. The committee, at their first meeting that shall be held after the annual general meeting in each year, shall elect a chairman from their own body, who shall, if present, take the chair at all meetings of the committee during the ensuing year; and at all meetings of the committee, in case of the numbers being equal, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to his own vote.

13. The committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees for any special object, and to delegate to such sub-committee the functions and powers of the committee relating thereto.

14. If the name of any member shall be officially published as a bankrupt, or insolvent debtor, or an outlaw, he shall ipso facto, cease to be a member of the Club, and shall forfeit all right and claim upon the Club and its property; such person may, however, be re-admitted to the Club by the committee at their discretion.

15. No member shall take away from the Club House, upon any pretence whatsoever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book, or other article, the property of the Club.

16. These rules shall be printed, and a copy of them, together with a list of the committee and members, shall be sent to every member.

CODE OF RULES

For the Guidance of Dog Shows: adopted by the Kennel Club, 1874.

1. Every person who wishes to exhibit at any show held under the Kennel Club Rules, must at the time of entry clearly identify by name and age (if known) the dog he intends to exhibit, and the name of the sire and dam (if known) must be given, unless the dog has been entered with his name and pedigree in the Kennel Club Calendar, in which case it will be sufficient to mention him by his name only.

2. If the name of a dog which has won a prize has been changed, it is necessary in entering the said dog to give his old as well as his new name every time he is exhibited, until the change has been duly registered in the annual number of the Kennel Calendar; and if his name be changed again, all his names must be repeated for a like period.

3. If a dog shall be entered without being clearly identified as before directed, by Rules 1 and 2, he shall forfeit any prize that may have been awarded him, and if the omission be detected in time, he shall not be allowed to compete, and shall forfeit all entrance fees and subscriptions.

4. The Committee or authorities of any show may reserve to themselves the right of refusing any entries that they may think fit to exclude; and no person who has been proved to the satisfaction of the committee of the Kennel Club to have misconducted himself in any way in connection with dogs, dog shows, or dog trials, will be allowed to compete at any show that is held under the Kennel Club Rules.

5. The committee or authorities of every show where the entry of dogs amounts to 200, shall take care that a duly appointed veterinary inspector be in daily attendance.

6. No dog shall be qualified to compete or entitled to receive a prize, if awarded, who is suffering from mange, or any other form of contagious disease.

7. No person, except the duly qualified and appointed veterinary inspector, shall decide whether a dog is or is not suffering from mange. The veterinary inspector shall give his opinion to the secretary or committee of the show in writing, and shall do so before the close of the show.

8. A dog that has been exhibited, or has won a prize in a class exclusively for puppies under twelve months old, is not thereby excluded from being exhibited in a class where previous prize winners are not allowed to compete.

9. In estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, with reference to whether it should compete in a champion class or not, the number of prizes won shall be calculated up to the morning of the Show, and not merely up to the date of entry for the same.

10. An objection to a dog must be made to the committee or secretary of the show at any time within seven days from the first day of the show; it must be in writing, and the objector must at the same time lodge a sum of £1 in the hands of the committee or secretary, which deposit, shall, if the objection is proved to be frivolous, be forfeited.

CODE OF RULES

FOR THE GUIDANCE OF FIELD TRIALS OF SPORTING DOGS,

FRAMED BY THE KENNEL CLUB, 1874.

1. Election of Judges.—The judge or judges shall be elected by the committee of the meeting, and their names shall be announced simultaneously with the meeting. When a judge, from ill-health or any other unexpected cause, is prevented attending a meeting, or during a meeting, finishing it, the committee of the meeting shall have the power of deciding what is to be done.

2. Description of Entry.—Every subscriber to a stake must name his dog at or before the draw, and must give (if known) the name of the sire and dam of the dog entered. The secretary shall publish on the card the names of those who are subscribers, but do not comply with these conditions. These nominations shall not be drawn, but must be paid for. Any dog whose pedigree, marks, or colour, shall be proved not to correspond with the entry given, shall be disqualified, and the whole of his stakes or winnings forfeited.

3. Alteration of Name.—If any subscriber shall enter a dog by a different name from that in which it shall last have run or been exhibited, without giving notice to the secretary of the alteration at the time of entry, such dog shall be disqualified. The secretary shall, if the conditions of the rule be complied with, enter on the card the late and present name of such dog.

4. Nominations.—Any subscriber taking an entry in a stake, and not prefixing the word "names" to a dog which is not his own property, shall forfeit that dog's chance of a stake. He shall likewise be compelled to deliver in writing to the secretary of the meeting, the name of the bond fide owner of the dog named by him; and this communication shall be produced should any dispute arise in the matter.

5. Defaulters.—No person shall be allowed to enter or run a dog in his own or any other person's name who is a defaulter for either entries or stakes, in field trials, dog shows, racing, or coursing meetings.

6. Power to Refuse Entries.—The committee or stewards of any meeting may reserve to themselves the right of refusing any entries that they may think fit to exclude; and no person who has been proved to the satisfaction of the committee to have misconducted himself in any way in connection with dogs, dog shows, or dog trials, will be allowed to compete in any trials that may be held under the Kennel Club Rules.

7. The stakes shall be run in the order they are given in the programme, unless the whole of the competitors, or their representatives, in the various stakes may agree otherwise—in which case the order may be changed, with the consent of the stewards or committee.

8. If two dogs are of the same colour, a red or white collar must be placed on one of them, to correspond with the colour on the card.

9. An owner, his keeper, or deputy, may hunt a dog, but it must be one or the other ; and, when once the dogs are down, an owner must not interfere with his dog if he has deputed another person to hunt him.

10. The person hunting a dog may speak, whistle, and work him by hand as he thinks proper ; but he can be called to order by the judges for making any unnecessary noise, and if he persists in doing so they can order the dog to be taken up, and he will be out of the stake. An opponent's dog may not be purposely interfered with or excited, or an appeal can be made to the judges ; and if the opponent's dog points game, the other dog is not to be drawn across him to take the point, but if not backing of his own accord, he must be brought round behind the other dog.

11. Objections.—An objection to a dog must be made to the stewards or committee of the meeting at any time before the stakes are paid over, upon the objector lodging a sum of £5 in the hands of the stewards, committee, or the secretary, which shall be forfeited if the objection prove frivolous. The owner of the dog objected to shall be compelled to deposit equally the sum of £5, and to prove the correctness of his entry. All expenses in consequence of the objection to fall upon the party against whom the decision may ultimately be given. Should an objection be made which cannot at the time be substantiated or disproved, the dog may be allowed to run under protest ; but should the objection be afterwards substantiated and the winnings have been paid over, the owner or nominator of the dog which may thus be disqualified, shall return the money or prize, or shall be declared a defaulter.

The following Scale of Points for judging Field Trials of Pointers and Setters, have been suggested by several Gentlemen.

1. The number of points to decide a trial shall not be less than twenty-five, it may, however, be more than this number, but in this case the number must be specified in the conditions of the stake. As soon as the twenty-five [or more] points have been made, including the good and bad points made by BOTH dogs, the dogs shall be taken up, and the dog which has the most good points, or the fewest bad ones, after deducting his bad or good points as the case may be, wins.

2. Every point at game to count four, a natural back two, and if drawn to the other dog or dropped, one only.

3. If a dog rushes right into his game, he loses four ; but if he finds it first, points, and then rushes in, he gains nothing for the find, and loses two for the flush.

4. A dog seeing the point and refusing to back loses two, and if he rushes into his opponent's point he loses four if he points and the birds do not rise, and six if he flushes them.

5. A dog not dropping to game loses one, but it does not otherwise detract from the merit of a find; and in the same way he can lose one for not dropping to shot, but he does not lose one for each fault, providing it is simply not dropping to wing or shot. If, however, he runs in the moment the birds are on the wing or the gun is fired, he loses all the merit of the find, one for not dropping, four for chasing, and is out of the stake if he chases feather out of the field. Hares or rabbits to count the same as feather, both as regards merits and faults, except in cases of flushing, which are not noticed in case of fur.

6. A gun-shy dog, running clean off at the discharge of the gun, to be put out of the stake directly; and if a dog blinks, to lose six for the first fault, and is out of the stake if it is repeated.

7. Every false point, which the dog does not discover to be false, and move on without direction from his master shall count two demerit.

8. Except in the case of false pointing and running up birds, every number allotted as penalty shall be doubled on repetition of the fault, and the last number given FOR THAT FAULT shall, on EVERY repetition of it be still further doubled.

9. Whatever the dogs may do after the settled number of points are obtained shall not count.

10. In case both dogs are found equal, the judges shall [unless the owners come to some agreement to draw one of the dogs] select a further number of points to be obtained by the two; the number selected to be not less than ten.

11. The result of the points only to affect each separate brace; and when the stake has been gone through, the respective winners to run off the ties according to their order on the card, and the winners of these ties to be tried on until two winners only remain in, when they must be tried, to decide the actual stake, the beaten dog in the final to be considered second. Or owners have the option of dividing prior to a final, when the first and second money must be added together and equally divided.

FIELD TRIALS.

1865.—SOUTHILL.

THE first trial of dogs in the field ever held took place on Tuesday, the 18th of April, 1865, on the Manor of Mr. S. Whitbread, M.P., Southill, Bedfordshire.

Judges.—Rev. T. Pearce, of Morden Vicarage, near Blandford, and Mr. Walker, of Halifax. Manager of the ground, Mr. Bailey, steward to Mr. S. Whitbread.

According to the Field report hares and partridges were very plentiful, the fields being large, and a great portion of the ground under wheat. The day not a good scenting one, being hot and close, with scarcely a breath of air. The pointers were down first. The dogs which ran were afterwards, with one or two exceptions, shown at the Islington Dog Show, in the ensuing June. Major Elwon's black tan setters Reuben and Rowland were not present, but were tried on another occasion in the presence of one of the judges, namely, Mr. Walker. The trial was pronounced by the Field's leading article to have been a success, though it occasioned a good deal of correspondence.

The following is the list of points gained by the dogs as copied from the catalogue of the Islington Dog Show :

POINTERS—LARGE SIZE.

	40 Nose.	30 Pace and range.	10 Tem- pera- ment.	Staunchness.		Style.	Total.	Remarks.

1866.—STAFFORD.

THE second field trials ever held, and the first held at Stafford, on Tuesday, May 1st, at Cannock Chase, for dogs on partridges, and on Wednesday, May 2nd, on the Manors of the Earls of Shrewsbury and Lichfield, for dogs on grouse.

Stewards.—Lord Alexander Paget, President; Messrs. W. Woodroffe, T. Statter, J. Walker, J. H. Walsh, and R. Garth.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere, Mr. J. H. Hodgson, and Mr. T. Taylor.
Secretary.—Mr. W. Brailsford.

THE GROUSE TRIALS—May 1.

(The points as recorded on the judges' book are not given in the Field report.)

ANGLESEA STAKES FOR POINTERS, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 15*l.*, second 7*l.* 10*s.*, third 4*l.*

Mr. T. Statter's Belle	against	Mr. R. Garth's Romp .
Mr. V. Darbshire's Don ...	„	Major Stapylton's Pero .
Mr. Garland's Bang	„	Lord Lichfield's Don .
Lord A. Paget's Lucan	„	Lord Lichfield's Magic .
Mr. V. Darbshire's Machoe ..	„	Mr. R. Garth's Jill .

1st, Lord Lichfield's Magic.

2nd, Mr. Garland's Bang.

3rd, Lord A. Paget's Lucan.

The Field report said Romp was a grand bitch, but had rather a slinking style of hunting, but never had an opportunity of showing her backing powers. Pero did nothing but gallop behind his competitor. Don, who was at the Southill trial, worked in good form, but was slow and a little inclined to potter—faults excusable at his age (5 years), but Pero was too fat to move. Bang had much the better of Lord Lichfield's Don, pleasing the judges in style, pace, and nose. Lucan and Magic were both useful dogs, the former being five years old, rather over careful and wanting range. Magic did not range in straight lines, and was not quite steady on his point. After putting down Machoe and Jill together, neither of which got a certificate of merit and both formed a wretched exhibition, the prizes were awarded as previously mentioned.

THE BEAUDESERT STAKES FOR SETTERS, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 10*l.*, second 4*l.*

Mr. J. Spode's Flash	against	Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Poll .
Mr. V. Darbshire's Bang ..	„	Mr. Grimshaw's Bang .
Mr. F. Bayley's Judy ...	„	(Absent.)

1st, Mr. J. Spode's Flash.

2nd, Mr. Darbshire's Bang.

Flash was closely pressed by Poll during an hour's work, but at the end of that time she satisfied the judges that she had slightly the best of her antagonist at all points. She had a slashing style of going, but unfortunately this brace was not lucky in getting on game, and the decision was mainly founded on the working qualities of the competitors. Flash was bred and broken by Mr. Martin, head keeper to the Marquis of Anglesea, by whom she was sold to Mr. Spode. Poll (winner of first prize at Islington) was a little amiss with a cold, and off her nose. Mr. Darbishire's Bang, and Mr. Grimshaw's dog of the same name, took the judges some time to arrive at a conclusion, but the former was preferred on account of his wide range. Mr. Grimshaw's dog was too fat. The points gained by Flash were:—Pace and range, 18 out of 20; obedience, 20 (full points); style of hunting, 15 (full points); game-finding abilities, 20 (full points); style in pointing, 15 (full points); merit in backing, 0.—Total, 88 points out of 100. Four good points on game. General remarks: A slashing bitch, of good size, substance, and quality.

CANNOCK CHASE STAKES FOR POINTERS (puppies of 1865), 2s. 2s. each; first 3l. 3s.

Mr. T. Statter's Moll against Lord Lichfield's Noble.
Prize, Mr. Statter's Moll.

The brace hunted a full hour without finding game, but the judges decided in favour of Moll for range and appearance.

PAGET STAKES FOR SETTERS (puppies of 1865), 2l. 2s. each; first 3l. 3s.

Mr. V. Darbishire's Sam against Mr. H. Walsh's Rex.
Prize, Mr. J. H. Walsh's Rex.

Rex went down wind, and working back found a brace of grouse in good style. Sam dropping upon a hare on foot, and chasing her the while. Rex getting his point out of sight was kept a long time on it, and at last when the birds got up he was a little wild. On his next beat he soon made another point on a recent scent of birds, Sam being more inclined for play than work. For these reasons the judges decided in favour of Rex. Mr. Taylor characterising him as the best puppy he had seen for a long time.

THE PARTRIDGE TRIALS—May 2.

The manors of the Earls of Shrewsbury and Lichfield, near the town of Stafford, afforded plenty of good ground, seeds, and wheat to try the dogs, the judges being able to complete their task soon after two o'clock.

THE LICHFIELD STAKES FOR POINTERS, at 3l. 3s. each; first 15l., second 7l. 10s., third 4l.

Mr. R. Garth's Jill	against Lord Lichfield's Magic .
Mr. R. Garth's Romp	„ Lord Lichfield's Brag .
Mr. J. C. de Ville's Bang (absent)	„ Mr. Whitehouse's Mona (absent).
Major Stapylton's Pero (absent)	„ Mr. Armstrong's Sambo .
Mr. R. Brailsford's Ponto	„ Mr. T. Statter's Di .

1st, Mr. R. Brailsford's Ponto.

2nd, Lord Lichfield's Magic.

3rd, Mr. R. Garth's Romp.

Mr. Garth's two bitches not being on the ground, and Bang, Mona, and Pero being absentees, Ponto and Diled off, but the bitch being slack in her work Ponto had it all his own way. He was a long, low, and strong dog, very useful and steady, but showing a houndlike style in this work, going with head and stern low and making houndlike casts in circles for his game instead of going in straight beats. Jill when put down with Magic was unlike her last year's form and made no fight with Lord Lichfield's dog, who was steady before and behind, and better than when on grouse. Brag's trial with Romp was a good deal out of sight, but the dog had the superiority, but Sambo was put down with Romp who was not in a fit state to work. (This was contradicted later by Romp's owner in the Field).

THE SHREWSBURY STAKES FOR SETTERS, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 10*l.*, second 4*l.*

Mr. J. A. Handy's Don against Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Poll.

Mr. H. Saunder's Grouse (absent) ,, Mr. Armstrong's Duke.

Mr. H. Saunder's Grog, (absent).

1st, Mr. Armstrong's Duke.

2nd, Mr. Grimshaw's Poll.

Don made a good fight with Poll, but was unfortunate in running into birds down wind. The trial was over ground rather short of birds and was mainly in favour of the bitch on account of her superior range. She was not tried with Duke, which gave some dissatisfaction, but after an hour's interval Don and Duke were put down together. Duke, in a field of new wheat, pegged his birds in brilliant style, and showed every good point in the highest perfection, except backing, which Don gave him no opportunity for.

THE ANSON STAKES FOR POINTERS (puppies of 1865), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; first 6*l.* 6*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. T. Statter's Major against { Mr. E. Marjoribank's nomination (absent).

Mrs. Arkwright's Dog ,, Mr. R. Garth's Carl.

Lord Lichfield's Noble ,, Mr. Jones's Daff.

1st, Mr. Garth's Carl.

2nd, Mr. Statter's Major.

Carl beat his antagonist cleverly, being awarded 82 points. Noble and Daff had a long spin without a point, after which Noble and Major were worked together, getting plenty of points.

THE TALBOT STAKES FOR SETTERS (puppies of 1865), 2*l.* 2*s.* each; first 7*l.* 7*s.*, second 3*l.* 10*s.*

Mr. J. H. Walsh's Rex against Mr. E. Marjoribank's nomination.

Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Bob ,, Lord Shrewsbury's Scotchman absent.

Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Fan ,, Mr. V. Darbishire's Sam.

Mr. J. Walker's Duchess ,,

1st, Mr. J. H. Walsh's Rex.

2nd, Mr. J. Walker's Duchess.

Rex repeated his performance of the previous day by pegging a brace of birds on his first beat, pointing with head and flag well up, and doing his work in good style, while Bob was evidently raw. The judges decided in favour of Rex after getting another point or two. Fan and Sam then met, but were soon sent back to their respective trainers, the struggle for first and second prize being left to Rex and Duchess. Duchess was very clever and steady, but had been hurried in her breaking, and was evidently over cautious, while Rex kept steadily at his work and received the award in his favour after a fair trial.

1867.—STAFFORD.

THE SECOND NATIONAL POINTER AND SETTER TRIALS, held at Stafford, April 24th and 25th, 1867.

Patron.—The Duke of Sutherland, K.G.

President.—The Earl of Lichfield, Lord Lieutenant of the County.

Judges.—Mr. J. S. Hodgson, Rev. F. W. Adey, and Mr. T. Taylor.

The weather on the first day was wet, and there was no scent, the ground run over being Gnosall, seven miles from Stafford.

The principle on which the judges decided was: Pace and range 20 points, obedience 20, style in hunting 15, game-finding abilities 20, style in pointing 15, merit in backing 10; total maximum of marks 100. Good points on game and general remarks being taken into consideration.

Wednesday, April 24.

THE LICHFIELD STAKES, for dogs, at 3l. 3s. each; first 10l. and silver cup, second 8l., third 5l.

Lord Lichfield's Magic beat Mr. Ll. Price's Don.

Lord Lichfield's Ponto „ Mr. T. Harrison's Forester.

Mr. Whitehouse's Rap „ Mr. Garth's Carl.

Mr. J. Parker's Sport „ Mr. Ll. Price's Swab.

Mr. Garth's Mars ... „ Mr. T. Statter's Major.

II.

Mr. Garth's Mars beat Lord Lichfield's Ponto.

1st, Mr. Garth's Mars.

2nd, Lord Lichfield's Ponto.

3rd, Mr. J. Parker's Sport.

Abridged extract from the Field report: "In the first round Magic only won by superior work, having flushed three brace of birds, but Mr. Price's dog evidently being a raw puppy there was no difficulty in coming to a decision. Ponto easily disposed of Forester. The scent being bad neither Rap nor Carl showed to advantage, but Rap at last finding a brace of birds in good form, the flag went up for him. Sport had also only a raw puppy against him, but his style of going pleased every one, and getting a good point on some grass he was awarded the fiat. Next came a brace of grand dogs in Major and Mars, but well broken as they were, the scent was so bad that they flushed three brace of birds. Both hunted in fine style, Mr. Statter's dog especially so, but Mars getting the wind of two brace of birds made a good find, and poor Major succumbed more to his bad luck than to superior merit, a longer trial would have been more desirable. Afterwards Sport and Mars ran together, when the former, flushing a brace of birds and chasing them rather wildly, he was put out. Ponto and Rap each flushed birds, but unfortunately in drawing upon scent Mr. Whitehouse rated his dog and caused him to blink his birds, which decided the judges against him. Ponto and Mars then went in for the final award, when Mars finding beautifully, Ponto, after backing him for a few seconds, drew up and took the point away from him, which settled the matter, and Mars, a very perfect pointer, was made the winner without dispute."

COUNTY STAKES, for bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 8*l.* and silver cup, second 6*l.*

Lord Lichfield's Daisy... beat Mrs. Arkwright's Mink.

Mr. Garth's Romp ,, Mr. Garland's Rose.

Mr. S. Hargreave's Bell . ,, Mr. J. Dulley's Blanche.

II.

Mr. Garth's Romp beat Mr. Hargreave's Bell.

1st, Mr. Garth's Romp; 2nd, Mr. Hargreave's Bell.

Daisy going very prettily in her work, and showing also a good nose, easily defeated Mink, who had no pretensions to public form. Romp also showed beautifully, but had not so good a style of going as Daisy. Daisy and Bell were put down for second prize, when Bell, making a good point, was awarded it.

STAFFORD STAKES, for dogs and bitches (braces) at 5*l.* 5*s.* each brace; first 13*l.* and silver cup, second 9*l.*, third 5*l.* 5*s.*

Rev. Noel Hill's Monk and Port.

Mr. E. Ashworth's Frank and Dash.

Lord Lichfield's Ponto and Noble.

Mr. R. Garth's Mars and Carl.

Mr. T. Harrison's Forester and Sherry.

Mr. G. T. Weightman's Maw and Rake.

Mr. A. M. Smith's Bang and Crack.

In these stakes, the judges, of course, could not put down the braces together, but went entirely by points. Monk and Port were beautifully broken, and worked in the most independent style, whilst most of the others might just as well have been coupled together. Frank and Dash were not half-broken, Noble merely galloped behind Ponto, though both were steady, the same remark applying to Mars and Carl. Of the three last braces the less said the better as broken dogs, though some of them fine pointers in shape the result was—

1st, Monk and Port (broken by Armstrong).

2nd, Mars and Carl (broken by Towers).

3rd, Ponto and Noble (broken by Brailsford).

The Puppy Stakes were adjourned in consequence of the weather.

Thursday, April 25.

The meet was on Lord Shrewsbury's land, about a mile from the town, at nine o'clock, on some good lying, the puppies being superior in style and making to the old dogs.

RANTON ABBEY STAKES, for dogs or bitches (puppies of 1866) at £2 2*s.* each; first 13*l.* 13*s.*, and 5*l.* added; second, 9*l.*, third 5*l.*

Mr. Garth's Duke beat Lord Lichfield's Pluto (absent).

Mr. W. Fox's Major ,, Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Major (absent).

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Dainty beat Mr. W. Fox's Flash.
 Mr. R. Garth's Brag..... " Mr. W. Fox's Floss.
 Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Duke ... " Mrs. Arkwright's Bell.
 Mr. P. Jones's Bounce " Mr. G. Andrews's Jilt.
 Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Bounce . " Mr. J. Heath's Juno.
 Mr. R. Garth's Rake " Mr. W. Fox's Minor.
 Mr. G. Andrews's Jet (a bye).

1st, Mr. Garth's Brag.

2nd, Mr. Lonsdale's Duke.

3rd, Mr. Lonsdale's Dainty.

Pluto and Mr. Antrobus's Major being absent, Duke and Mr. Fox's Major were put down together. Both worked well, but Major, showing a fine style of beating, a good nose and capital breaking, was made the winner. Flash was wild as a hawk. Brag, a nice little dog in every respect, soon showed himself the top dog of the stake. Duke easily beat Bell, and Bounce easily beat Jilt. Jet had the better of Jones's Bounce, and was put down with Mr. Antrobus's Bounce. Major and Dainty competed for third prize, Dainty winning it.

THE SHREWSBURY STAKES, for dogs at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 9*l.* and silver cup, second 6*l.*, third 4*l.*

Mr. Jones's Don..... beat Mr. Garth's Grouse.
 Mr. Robinson's Dorset ... " Mr. Handy's Mungo (absent).
 Mr. E. Armstrong's Duke " Mr. C. Smith's Dash.
 Mr. Tait's Sweep " Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Bang.

The setters were a moderate lot, with the exception of Duke, Mr. Garth's Grouse going with head and flag down, though well broken. Don, a useful pot dog, had no style, but easily beat him and also Dorset. Duke went magnificently, but flushed a brace of birds. Bang was too old for public work, and Sweep, though a potterer, soon beat him. Duke was at once awarded first prize, Don and Dash fighting it out for second, which was ultimately awarded to the latter.

BOROUGH STAKES, for bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 8*l.* and silver cup, second 6*l.*

Mr. H. H. Nicholson's Gipsy beat Mr. Garth's May.
 Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Romp... " Mr. J. Walker's Duchess.
 Mr. G. Bird's Sal..... " Mr. W. Allen's Hilda.

1st, Mr. Lonsdale's Romp.

2nd, Mr. Nicholson's Gipsy.

After a sufficient trial they were placed as mentioned, nothing else being worthy of notice.

SOMERFORD STAKES (braces), for dogs or bitches, 5*l.* 5*s.* each brace; first 12*l.* and silver cup, second 8*l.*

Mr. R. Garth's Grouse and May.
 Mr. J. Walker's Duchess and Spot.
 Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Rake and Romp.
 Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Bang and Rap.
 Mr. J. Tait's Bob and Sweep.
 1st, Mr. J. Walker's brace.
 2nd, Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's brace,

Grouse and May were undoubtedly the only perfectly broken brace, but the judges would not have them, and gave their award to Mr. J. Walker's brace, which were not well broken, but possessed good noses and worked well. Rake and Romp were a capital match, but somewhat unsteady.

INGESTRE STAKES, for dogs and bitches (puppies of 1866), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each ; first 4*l.* 4*s.* and 5*l.* 5*s.* added, second 2*l.* 2*s.*

Mr. E. Armstrong's Don beat Mr. J. Statter's Rebe.

Mr. R. Garth's Rock, Mr. Statter's Rob.

1st, Mr. Garth's Rock.

Mr. Statter's dogs were absent, and after a near thing Rock beat Don, and consequently won.

1867.—BALA.

ON PARTRIDGES.

THE FIRST FIELD TRIALS, held at Bala, North Wales, which took place on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 10 and 11, 1867, on the ground of Mr. R. Ll. Price, of Rhiwlas ; Rev. F. W. Adey being judge. The harvest being late a good deal of barley remained uncut, but sufficient birds were found to test the merits of the dogs. On the first day there was a good deal of cold wind and storms of rain.

Tuesday, September 10.

THE RHIWLAS BALA STAKES of £25 each, 5 ft. for pointers and setters.

Mr. Whitehouse's Hamlet beat Mr. Grimshaw's Poll.

Marquis of Huntley's Young Kent .., Mr. Statter's Major

The weather interfered with the scent, but Hamlet and Poll worked very nicely together, both going in useful style, but neither being very highly broken. Hamlet's pace and range were wonderful considering his age (6½ years), and the service he had done at the stud. His keeper brought him out in splendid condition. Poll at one time ran him very hard, but towards the end of the trial she began to work a bit short, and the dog finding two lots of birds beautifully in the last field, the judge had no hesitation in awarding the fiat in his favour. Mr. Grimshaw's bitch had evidently been used to retrieve her game, which had made her inclined to stoop and dwell on a foot scent in a way different from her Stafford performances. After luncheon, Young Kent and Major were set to work, and, the rain keeping off, there was a much better scent. Young Kent, who was a very elegant, but tall and lathy dog, at first showed to great advantage, making some beautiful points, and, in spite of Major's wildness, behaving as steadily as could be expected. Mr. Statter's dog having been on grouse all the season did not seem to own the partridge scent for a long time, putting up covey after covey, and in addition chasing them like a puppy. At the end of an hour's work the judge, under Rule VII., asked the owner of Major if he wished the trial to continue, and the reply being in the affirmative, the work went on for the stipulated time, after the expiration of which the Young Kent was allowed to be the victor. Mr. Statter's dog was naturally a splendid pointer in shape and style of going, but he would that day do nothing else well and there could have been no two opinions about the decision. The day's work closed at five o'clock. Mr. Price himself handled the gun.

Second Day, Thursday.

Mr. Whitehouse's Hamlet beat Mr. Armstrong's Duke, and was placed first.

Marquis of Huntly's Young Kent and Mr. Armstrong's Duke divided second prize.

Duke, the winner at Stafford, in two consecutive years, was the favourite at even. When first put down he went a slashing pace, but not in his old style, his head being too low; indeed he went so fast that he put up his birds again and again, neither he nor Hamlet doing well for the first hour. After that time, however, Mr. Whitehouse's dog made several good points in succession, which Duke would not back, and on one occasion took away the point from Hamlet, flushing the birds. This of course told against him, being ten points off, and as Hamlet backed well it put ten points on the latter, which virtually decided the trial, as the pointer was on the whole only five points behind in pace and range. The result was that after the expiration of the three hours Hamlet was at once declared the winner, the judge fancying that from his style on the previous day, Young Kent could not stand any chance with him. After luncheon Duke and Young Kent set to work, the black and tan to the astonishment of every one going quite a different dog from his previous performance, holding Duke so hard that at last the judge could not select a winner, and divided the second honours. Young Kent's nose was superior to Duke's, and he was nearly as fast, while his style of hunting was considerably better, carrying his head high and in a good form.

The Marquis of Huntly's Young Kent was hunted by "Idstone," who bred him. The decision of the judge caused a considerable amount of correspondence in the Field, the Marquis claiming the stakes, as, from the numerical value of the points published by Mr. Adey, it was evident that the setter had the best of it, according to the judge's own statistics, viz., Young Kent 535 points, Duke 520, Hamlet 515.

The following is the scale as published by Mr. Adey in his letter in the Field of the 21st of September, 1867—

1868.—STAFFORD.

THE NATIONAL POINTER AND SETTER TRIALS, held at Stafford, Thursday and Friday, April 30th and May 1st, 1868.

President.—The Earl of Lichfield.

Judges.—Lord Combermere, Sir Vincent Corbet, and Mr. T. Taylor.

The "lying" was very deficient, but the weather was all that could be desired. A great deal of the ground beaten was quite bare of cover on which the birds would lie.

Thursday, April 30.

LICHFIELD STAKES, for all-aged dogs at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 12*l.* and silver cup, second 9*l.*, third 6*l.*

Lord Lichfield's Brag, 2 yrs.... beat Mr. Statter's Major, 3 yrs.

Mr. J. Taylor's Bang, 2 yrs.... „ Mr W. Hill's Rake.

Lord Lichfield's Ponto, 4 yrs.... „ Hon. R. N. Hill's Monk.

Mr. Antrobus's Grouse, 3 yrs.... „ Mr. G. W. Cooper's Smack.

Mr. Garth's Mars, 4 yrs. „ Mr. E. Ashworth's Dash.

Mr. R. Garth's Drake „ Mr. S. D. Hine's Shot.

1st, Mr. Garth's Drake.

2nd, Lord Lichfield's Ponto.

3rd, Mr. Garth's Mars.

Ponto had a wonderfully improved style of going whilst Mars had gone off. Mr. Garth's Drake, a twelvemonths old puppy, won without being challenged, being as fast as the wind, with a most delicate nose and perfectly broken. Monk had a near thing with Ponto, and Smack with Grouse.

COUNTY STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 8*l.* and silver cup, second 6*l.*

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Dowager beat Capt. Reed's Nell.

Mr. G. Andrew's Jet, 2 yrs. „ Mr. Garth's Romp, 4 yrs.

Mr. Scudamore's Nell, 3 yrs. „ Mr. Statter's Sal, 2 yrs.

II.

1st, Mr. Andrew's Jet.

2nd, Mr. R. Garth's Romp.

Jet showed so superior a style of range to the others that, although she was not quite so steady, she gained the award.

STAFFORD STAKES for dogs or bitches (braces), at 5*l.* 5*s.* each brace; first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 8*l.*

Mr. Garth's Mars, 4 yrs. and Drake, 1 yr. 1st.

Mr. S. Hargreaves's Rap, 4 yrs. and Chubb, 4 yrs. 2nd.

Mr. A. M. Smith's Crack, 4 yrs. and Bang, 4 yrs. 0

Mr. Garland's Bang, 4 yrs. and Cragg, 2 yrs. 0

Lord Lichfield's Ponto and Brag, 2 yrs. 0

Drake was so much better than all the others, that although Mars brought down the average a good deal, the brace proved superior to Mr. Hargreave's dogs (a splendidly broken brace, but slightly deficient in style and pace). Ponto made a bad mistake in his run with Brag, or they would have done well.

POINTER PUPPY STAKES, for dogs or bitches (puppies of 1867), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; first 7*l.* and silver cup, second 5*l.*, third 3*l.*

Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Dido, 11 mos. beat Mr. J. P. Gardner's Tan.

Mr. Garth's Drake, 12 mos. „ Hon. R. N. Hill's Hamlet, 10 mos.

Mr. Garth's Shot, 10 mos. „ Mr. H. Manning's Don.

Mr. W. Peace's Nell, 9 mos. „ Mr. H. Martin's Jasper.

Mr. W. Morgan's Vauban, 15 mos. „ Mr. J. A. Mottram's Belle, 14 mos.

Drake first, Dido second, and Nell third.

The puppies were of inferior merit to those of the last year, with the exception of Drake, who won without being approached. The ground being bare the competitors were tried under every disadvantage.

THE SETTER TRIALS.—Friday, May 1.

The meet was on Lord Shrewsbury's ground, close to the town. The continuance of fine weather made the day enjoyable to the spectators, but it was proportionally bad in point of scent, and for every brace of birds found by the dogs half a dozen were run into. Partridges were not plentiful, and the ground was very bare and destitute of cover.

THE SHREWSBURY STAKES, for all ages, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each: first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 7*l.*, third 4*l.*

I.

Mr. J. H. Walsh's black and tan } setter, Rex, 3 yrs. } beat Mr. N. C. Curzon's Rob.

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Rake against { Mr. T. Armstrong's Rap (undecided).

Mr. H. Martin's Rake, 4 yrs. beat Mr. C. F. Clark's Don.

Mr. B. Field's Duke, 3 yrs. 7 mos. „ Mr. J. Walker's Duke.

Mr. C. Smith's Dash, 3 yrs. 5 mos.

(a bye.)

II.

Rex beat Martin's Rake | Field's Duke beat Dash.

III.

Mr. Walsh's Rex beat Mr. Field's Duke.

1st, Mr. J. H. Walsh's Rex.

2nd, Mr. Field's Duke.

3rd, Mr. C. Smith's Dash.

Rex first disposed of his own brother Rob, showing a superior style of going and a better nose. Rake and Rap were so near together that the judges did not decide between them. Martin's Rake beat Don without any great merit, after which the two Dukes came together. Mr. Walker's dog was only a puppy, and his celebrated competitor finding a brace of birds in good style, the young one was disposed of; Dash then ran his bye with Rap, and easily beat him. In the first ties, Rex in a nice piece of wheat soon got a couple of good points, while Martin's Rake could not make out the scent—by this time getting rather faint—so the flag went up for Rex. Field's Duke then disposed of Dash, and the final trial came on between Rex and Duke. They were cast off on a piece of grass preparatory to beating a field of wheat, and almost immediately Duke stood, but not being steady, Rex drew up to him just as Duke had made up his mind that the birds had gone, and left the scent for a fresh beat. Rex immediately winded his game, drew up a few yards, and made a grand point, which Duke refused to back, probably thinking from his previous taste of the scent that it was a false one. On this the judges at once decided in favour of Rex, his superior nose and cleverness being apparent, while both were equally unsteady behind.

BOROUGH STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each ; first 8*l.* and silver cup, second 6*l.*

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Romp, 3 yrs. beat Mr. Grimshaw's Poll, 5 years.

Mr. R. Garth's Bess..... „ Mr. J. Wyley's Topsy, 13 mos.

Mr. J. Handy's Ruby, 2 yrs. „ Mr. Walker's Spot (absent).

1st, Mr. J. Handy's Ruby.

2nd, Mr. R. Garth's Bess.

Poll kept so close in her range to her master that Romp soon gained the award. Bess then easily beat Topsy. Ruby and Romp were worked together for nearly an hour, after which Bess was put down with them.

SOMERFORD STAKES (braces), for dogs or bitches, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each brace ; first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. H. Martin's Rake, 4 yrs., and Chance, 3 yrs. ... 1st.

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Rake 3 yrs., and Romp, 3 yrs., 2nd.

Mr. Garland's Don and Sambo, 2 yrs..... 0

Mr. W. Spooner's Frank and Sandy 0

Mr. Garland's and Mr. Spooner's dogs were found inferior to the others after a short trial. Mr. Lonsdale's dogs were beautifully matched, but did not perform so well as those of Mr. Martin.

SETTER POINTER STAKES, for dogs or bitches (puppies of 1867), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each ; first 6*l.* and silver cup, second 4*l.* 10*s.*, third 2*l.* 10*s.*

Mr. Garth's Bess, 11 mos..... against Mr. J. Wyley's Topsy.

Mr. J. S. Robinson's Moll, 9 mos. „ Mr. J. Tait's Spot, 15 mos.

Mr. C. E. Newton's Carlo..... „ Mr. G. H. Grimshaw's Ben.

Mr. G. S. Robinson's Drop, 11 mos. „ Mr. H. Martin's Doxey.

II.

1st, Mr. Garth's Bess ; 2nd, divided between Spot, Topsy, Carlo, and Doxey.

Bess won without dispute, the others being but partially broken.

1869.—SHREWSBURY.

THE National Pointer and Setter Trials, held at Shrewsbury, on the estate of Sir Vincent Corbet, Wednesday and Thursday, April 28th and 29th, 1869.

President.—Right Hon. Viscount Hill.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere, Sir Vincent R. Corbet, Bart., and Capt. Denman.

Mr. Brailsford had at last obtained permission to hold his trials over land fully suited to the wants of his subscribers, as over 3500 brace of birds had been killed on Sir Vincent Corbet's estate, leaving an immense breeding stock. The fields were of the proper size, neither too large nor too small, but the scent was bad on both days, owing to the wind; and the entries had fallen off somewhat owing to the disappointment at Stafford from want of sufficient birds. The decisions gave the fullest satisfaction.

THE POINTER TRIALS.—Wednesday.

POINTER PUPPY STAKES, for dogs and bitches (puppies of 1868) 2*l.* 2*s.* each; first 8*l.* and silver cup, second 7*l.*, third 4*l.*

Mr. T. Statter's Rex	beat	Mr. T. Smith's Ben .
Mr. W. Dunn's Slap , 14 mos.	„	Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Cap , 14 mos.
Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Bess , 13 mos.	„	Mr. H. Ashton's Don , 14 mos.
Lord Lichfield's Jewel , 13 mos. ...	„	Mr. Garth's Carl , 15 mos.
Mr. P. Jones's Ranger , 15 mos. ...	„	Lord Lichfield's Sal , 15 mos.
Mr. T. Armstrong's Bang , 15 mos. „	„	Mr. F. R. Bevan's Bell , 14 mos.

II.

Rex beat Slap. | Bess beat Jewel. | Ranger beat Bang.

III.

Rex beat Bang.

IV.

1st, Mr. Jones's Ranger.

2nd, Mr. Statter's Rex.

3rd, Mr. Armstrong's Bang.

In the first round Rex took every point from Ben. Cap began well, Slap being at first a little unsteady, but the latter improving in her work won easily. Bess, though lame from an injury in the train, showed a good nose and superior breaking. Jewel and Carl then had a trial, about which there was great difference of opinion, but Carl being too much inclined to potter, the judges gave their decision against him. Ranger, going in fine style, easily beat Sal. Bang and Bell worked remarkably well together, but the bitch was not so completely broken as the dog, and went down before him after a good trial.—First ties: Rex soon found, and was backed by Slap, but not steadily. Slap then ran up a brace, and the flag went up for the dog. Bess threw off her lameness and made some pretty points, Jewel not showing to advantage. Ranger and Bang worked for some time without either getting a good point, but the fine style of the former told in his favour.

ACTON REYNALD STAKES for all-aged dogs, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 8*l.*, third 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Noel Hill's Blunder , 2 yrs. } 6 mos.	} beat {	Mrs. Arkwright's Sam , 1 yr. 7 mos.
---	----------	---

Mr. Field's Beau , 8 yrs.	against {	Mr. Hardy's Shot , 2 yrs. 9 mos. (undecided).
---------------------------------------	-----------	---

Mr. Parr's Carlo , 2 yrs. 10 mos.	against {	Mr. Hargreave's Chubb (un- decided).
--	-----------	--

Mr. Campbell's Jerry , 3 yrs.	beat	Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Pluto , 3 yrs.
---	------	--

Mr. Field's Ranger, 5 yrs. 6 mos., ran a bye with Jerry.

1st, Mr. Noel Hill's Blunder.

2nd, Mr. Campbell's Jerry.

3rd, Mr. Lonsdale's Pluto.

In the first round Blunder won his first trial cleverly. Bean and Shot, Carlo and Chubb, were then passed over as without merit. Jerry, though a little too full of point and over cautious, defeated Pluto; and Ranger being put down with Jerry for his bye had no chance with him, running into his birds several times.

COUNTY STAKES for all-aged bitches at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 7*l.* and silver cup, second 5*l.*

Mr. T. Statter's Minx, 3 yrs. 4 mos. beat Mr. H. Ashton's Fan, 3 yrs.

Lord Lichfield's Frenzy, 3 yrs. ,, Mr. Field's Sal, 3 yrs.

Lord Lichfield's Peg a bye with Minx.

1st, Lord Lichfield's Peg.

2nd, Lord Lichfield's Frenzy.

Fan and Sal were easily disposed of, but the fight for second honours between Minx and Frenzy was close.

HAWKSTONE STAKES (braces), dogs and bitches, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each brace; first 9*l.* and silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. Garth's Drake, 2 yrs., and Carl, 1 yr. 3 mos.

Mr. N. Hill's Blunder, 2 yrs. 6 mos., and Hamlet, 3 yrs.

Lord Lichfield's Peg, 3 yrs., and Frenzy, 1 yr. 9 mos.

Mr. Field's Ranger, 5 yrs. 6 mos., and Sal, 3 yrs.

1st, Mr. N. Hill's Blunder and Hamlet.

2nd, Lord Lichfield's Peg and Frenzy.

Drake showed in grand style, but his match dog Carl potted in a way to make both look foolish and to disgust the judges. Blunder and Hamlet worked pretty well together, but neither at all like Drake. Lord Lichfield's brace followed one another, and were only one dog in reality. Ranger and Sal were drawn.

THE SETTER TRIALS.—Thursday.

SETTER PUPPY STAKES, for dogs or bitches (puppies of 1868), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; prize, a silver cup, value 10*l.*

Mr. F. W. Adey's Kate, 12 mos., against Mr. G. R. Rogerson's Slap, 12 mos.

Mr. Garth's Flash, 13 mos. (a bye).

II.

Prize, Mr. Adey's Kate.

Kate, going like the wind and in splendid form, soon got the fiat in her favour, finding a brace of birds well, while her opponent flushed two brace. Kate was then put down with Flash, and again found Mr. Garth's bitch crossing in front of her without owning the scent. Flash then found, and Kate backed her well. In a few strides Kate found beautifully, and won the stake. Kate was broken by Mr. Bishop, of Brackley.

SHREWSBURY STAKES, for all-aged dogs, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 8*l.*, third 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. T. Groom's Shot, 2 yrs. 4 mos., beat Mr. T. S. W.'s Don, 2 yrs. 11 mos.

Mr. F. R. Bevan's Roy, 1 yr. 6 } against { Mr. J. Walker's Sweep, 1 yr.
mos. } 5 mos. (undecided).

Lord Waterpark's Ben, 4 yrs. ,, Mr. Garth's Sam (undecided).

Mr. B. Field's Rock, 2 yrs. beat Mr. C. Adams's Bang, 2 yrs. 10 mos.

Mr. C. Smith's Dash (a bye with Shot).

II.

1st, Mr. Groom's Shot.2nd, Mr. Field's Rock.3rd, Lord Waterpark's Ben.

Don and Shot not being ready, Roy and Sweep were put down, and after a fair trial, not showing any merit, were taken up without any decision. Don and Shot then came together and alternately got points. Shot took the point away from Don. Shot, though a fine worker, was so unsteady as to be virtually only half broken. Ben and Sam were down some time without getting a point. Lord Waterpark's dog did not back Sam very steadily, but won by his fine style of range. Rock immediately found well, Bang backing him, but not very steadily. He soon, however, found again, but then made a mistake after owning the scent, which was, however, bad. He repeated this almost immediately. Dash had no chance with Shot for the bye. In the ties Ben refused to back Rock, and ran up the birds, and repeated this soon after, but Rock also flushed a brace. After a long beat Ben made a good point. Rock, as before, not backing till he had got up as close as possible to get the scent. After another trial, Rock won, Shot having been previously allotted first prize.

BOROUGH STAKES, for all aged bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 9*l.* and silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. R. Garth's Daisy, 1 yr. 6 mos. beat Mr. J. A. Handy's Meg, 3 yrs.

Mr. Noel Hill's Staffa, 2 yrs..... „ Mr. W. Brailsford's Doxey, 2 yrs.

Mr. R. Garth's Bess, 2 yrs. „ Mr. T. Statter's Rhebe, 3 yrs. 6 mos.

II.

1st, Mr. Garth's Bess.2nd, his Daisy.

Daisy and Meg both soon found in a piece of wheat full of game. Meg next flushed two brace one after the other, Daisy pointing false, but afterwards getting a good point or two, while Meg flushed her game repeatedly, Daisy, of course, won well. Staffa, after a longish beat, began badly by flushing her game up wind, Doxey at the same moment getting a point. Staffa then made a good point, which won her the trial, and being lame she had the credit of winning under difficulties. Bess, after flushing birds down wind, found brilliantly in some seeds; Rhebe retaliating almost immediately, and Bess backing her steadily; then Bess made two points, one of which Rhebe did not back till dropped to hand; Bess again finding, won cleverly.

Mr. Garth's Daisy, 1 yr. 6 mos., and Bess, 2 yrs. 1st.

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Rake, 4 yrs. and Romp, 4 yrs. ... 2nd.

Mr. R. Field's Duke, 4 yrs., and Rock, 2 yrs..... 0

Mr. S. R. Johnson's Potter and Wedgwood, 1 yr. 7 mos. 0

Daisy and Bess both going remarkably well, were soon taken up, obtaining the applause of the whole field. Rock took away Duke's point and flushed his birds; this told against them as a brace, and, Duke coming back to the stain of his former birds and dwelling on it, the brace were soon taken up. Potter and Wedgwood were soon disposed of, the judges not fancying their style. Rake and Romp went off merrily, but flushed some birds up wind.

CHAMPION SWEEPSTAKES, and silver cup first prize.
 Mr. Field's Duke beat Mr. T. Groom's Shot.
 Mr. Garth's Drake „ Lord Lichfield's Peg.
 Lord Lichfield's Ponto ... „ Mr. Garth's Bess.

1st, Drake; 2nd, Peg.

Shot began by flushing his birds, after which Duke made a false point. Shot refused to back; this gave the decision to Duke. Drake, going like the wind, caught the scent and stood magnificently. Peg got two points by luck, Drake backing her, and their steadiness and noses being evidently equal, Drake's superior pace gained him the award. Ponto and Bess performed best in some beans, but neither did anything extraordinary. Peg was put down once more with Duke and beat him fairly.

1870.—SOUTHAMPTON.

NATIONAL DOG CLUB.

THE first trial of pointers and setters in the field on the manor of Mr. R. F. Bevan, of Weston Grove, near Southampton, on the 27th and 28th of April, 1870.

President.—Lord Combermere.

Judges.—Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., and Rev. T. Pearce, of Morden Vicarage, near Blandford.

Both owners and judges had to contend against poor dry ground and little scent. The very best dogs entered could hardly touch a bird, and many went in absolute fear and quite at a loss, merely working to hand and whistle in a confused way. The Weston Grove Manor was a very charming one in situation, commanding extensive views, and being within sight of the Needles and the Isle of Wight, whilst a considerable portion of heath and furze formed an admirable breeding ground for the partridges; but the absence in a great measure of hedges and field covert during the late season had kept many birds from the seeds and grass lands, and, poor land as it was, being much of it sand and shingle, the scent was worse than the average, and a rich loamy soil would certainly have been most desirable during such a drought.

THE POINTER TRIALS—Wednesday, April 27.

PUPPY STAKES, for dogs and bitches (puppies of 1869), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Brailsford's Noble beat Mr. Garth's Mite.

Mr. R. Garth's Mars (a bye).

II.

Mr. Brailsford's Noble beat Mr. Garth's Mars.

Prize, Mr. Brailsford's Noble.

At half-past eleven Mite and Noble were put down. Mite went wonderfully for a puppy, and had to contend against a very good-looking and merry-working pointer in Noble, whose hunting and steadiness would not have disgraced a second or third season dog. Want of birds made the trial a very long one. Mite got no point, whilst Noble made one point in rare style, and dropped as though struck by lightning, thus winning the heat. An interval during another stake being allowed to rest Noble, he was put down with Mars at two o'clock. Noble had it all his own way, and after a five-and-twenty minutes gallop, the flag went up for Noble as absolute winner.

SOUTHAMPTON STAKES, for all-aged dogs, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Thompson's Bob beat Mr. Whitehouse's Priam, 3 yrs.
Mr. Garth's Drake (a bye).

II.

Drake beat Bob.

1st, Drake; 2nd, Bob.

Bob was put down with Mr. Whitehouse's Priam. The former, though generally a free galloper and full of dash, had not the pace or liberty of action possessed by Priam. Whilst Priam excelled in gallop and range, being a most capital worker, the day suited Bob, who found birds, and stood them as long as the spectators liked to look at him, on ground where with anything like a scent, Priam would never have missed his game. On a rough fallow, Bob made two or three good points on birds; whilst Priam, full of "go," was working ahead. After a long exercise of patience, the judges decided to put Priam out of court, who had been previously much disconcerted and unsettled in his work by the presence of a pointer bitch in an unfit state for work. At two o'clock the flag went up for Bob. At three o'clock Bob was put down on a fallow with Drake. Armstrong uncoupled the quiet-looking pointer, and sent him along the fallows like a bolt from a crossbow, or an express train, or what you will—perhaps like the Derby leading favourite inside the cords, or a falcon going down a ride. On he went, lying down to his work, when all at once there is a tremendous whirlwind of dust, and there lies poor Drake, motionless. Armstrong goes up to him, whilst Bob backs beautifully and the birds are put up. The flag went up for Drake.

WESTON GROVE MANOR STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Whitehouse's Nina, 3 yrs. beat Mr. Bevan's Belle, 2 yrs. 2 mos.
Mr. Brailsford's Frenzy, 3 yrs. „ Mr. Hambro's Lady.

II.

Mr. Brailsford's Frenzy beat Nina.

Belle was very fast, well-broken, and with a keen nose; Nina was somewhat amiss, but won after a long and gallant fight. Frenzy beat Mr. P. Hambro's Lady, with little to spare, and then Mr. Whitehouse and Mr. Brailsford ran it off. Owing to the want of birds—for the manor was exhausted, and this was the last field—there was some doubt as to the correctness of the judges, who gave their opinion in favour of Frenzy, but Mr. Whitehouse acquiesced in the decision.

Thursday, April 28.

The Borough Stakes for pointers were run on this day at Chilworth and Stoneham, the large highly preserved manors which Mr. Fleming placed at the disposal of the club for this and future trials. Mr. Pullinger, the head keeper, organised everything.

BOROUGH STAKES, for all-aged dogs and bitches (pointers), each entry to compose a brace belonging to the same owner, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each brace; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Whitehouse's Priam and Nina and Mr. Garth's Drake and Mars divided.

THE SETTER TRIALS.

PUPPY STAKES, for dogs and bitches (puppies of 1869), at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Garth's Blanche, 13 mos., beat Mr. Field's Bolt.

Mr. Garth's Beau, 13 mos. (drawn).

Blanche and Beau divided.

Blanche had a stroke of luck, stood grandly, dropped to wing and gun, and won the stake.

SOUTH STONEHAM STAKES, for all-aged dogs, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Field's Duke beat Mr. Bevan's Robin, 2 yrs. 2 mos.

Mr. Lang's Argyle II. „ Mr. Garth's Sam, 2 yrs. 5 mos.

II.

Mr. Field's Duke beat Argyle II.

1st, Duke; 2nd, Argyle II.

Duke, handled by Bishop, showed vastly improved form, and had left off "creeping on;" he stood firmly whilst Robin first got lost in a gravel pit and then blundered up Duke's birds. Argyle II. (not Mr. Pearce's Argyle II.) was a good goer, and stood in beautiful form, being quite cataleptic at the back, and easily beat Sam, who crawled off his points and put up his game. Argyle, though wonderfully handled by Mr. Lang's keeper, was beaten by Duke.

CHILWORTH STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Thompson's Belle... beat Mr. Field's Kate.

Mr. Bevan's Ruby „ Mr. Lang's Ruby.

Mr. Garth's Daisy „ Mr. Bevan's Rose.

Mr. Garth's Bess „ Mr. Key's Vic.

II.

1st, Mr. Garth's Bess.

2nd, Mr. Garth's Daisy.

3rd, Mr. Bevan's Ruby.

Belle beat Kate, who was too fat and went in bad form, and ran up her birds over and over again. An interesting match took place in a deep clover field between Rose and Daisy; the latter, a decided creeper, won. Bess disposed of Vic, but Vic did good work, and was put out at last for running a hare.

HAMPSHIRE STAKES, for all-aged dogs and bitches. Each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; winner 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Field's Duke and Kate.

Mr. Bevan's Rose, 5 yrs., and Ruby, 4 yrs.

Mr. Garth's Daisy and Bess, 3 yrs.

II.

Daisy and Bess won, the second prize being divided between Mr. Field and Mr. Bevan.

Bess certainly won the stakes for Mr. Garth, and Rose and Ruby quartered their ground better than any setters exhibited as a brace.

1870.—SHREWSBURY.

THE NATIONAL POINTER AND SETTER TRIALS, held at Shrewsbury, on May the 3rd and 4th, 1870.

President.—The Earl of Shrewsbury.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere, Sir Vincent Corbet, Bart., and Capt. Denman.

POINTER TRIALS.—Tuesday, May 3.

Owing most probably to the dry season, the entries for the first day had fallen short of those made in the last two years.

POINTER PUPPY STAKES, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 10*l.* and silver cup, second 8*l.*, third 5*l.*

Lord Lichfield's Ponto , 15 mos.	beat	Mr. R. Garth's Mite , 10 mos.
Mr. P. Jones's Rap , 12 mos.	...	„ Mr. B. Field's Queen , 13 mos.
Mr. J. A. Mottram's Juno	„	Mr. R. Parr's Victor , 11 mos.
Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Doll ...	against	Mr. T. Statter's Di (undecided).
Lord Lichfield's Noble , 13 mos.	beat	Mr. R. Garth's Mars , 10 mos.
Mr. W. Dunn's Sall , 14 mos.	}	„ Doll .
(a bye)

II.

Ponto beat Rap		Juno beat Noble		Victor beat Mars .
------------------------------	--	-------------------------------	--	----------------------------------

III.

1st, Mr. Mottram's Juno.
 2nd, Noble.
 3rd, Victor.

Ponto's superior style gained him the award, the points made being equal; but Mite—a daughter of Drake—went with a wheel back, and almost as if she was foundered. Rap's nose was much better than that of Queen, and justly won him his trial, but he was a complete cripple from rheumatism. Juno, a very beautiful bitch, and possessing all the attributes of a good pointer, won her trial easily, and was almost at once picked out as the ultimate winner. Doll and Di pleased the judges so little that they sent them away without a decision. Noble then beat Mars with more to spare than when Ponto defeated his sister Mite; Sall ran her bye with Mr. Antrobus's Doll, but neither of them caught the judge's eye. Second ties: Ponto was too fast for Rap. Victor ran his trial well with Mars, who refused to back him. Juno just beat Noble, the two showing a little jealousy of one another; and after a good trial the ultimate award was in favour of the bitch first, Noble second, and Victor third; but there was little to spare between the first and second.

ACTON REYNALD STAKES, for all-aged dogs, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first prize 7*l.* and a silver cup, second 5*l.*

Mr. R. Garth's Carl , 2 yrs.....	against	{ Mr. P. Jones's Ranger , 2 yrs. 3 mos. (undecided.)
Mr. T. Statter's Rex , 2 yrs.	beat	{ Mr. J. A. Mottram's Bang , 2 yrs. 2 mos.

Mr. G. Dowdeswell's Scamp (a bye with Rex).

II.

1st, Mr. Statter's Rex.

2nd, Mr. Dowdeswell's Scamp.

Carl and Ranger both flushed their birds, and were at once hors de combat. Rex easily beat Bang, who was unsteady and wild. Scamp ran his bye with Rex, who won well, and was at once placed first and Scamp second.

COUNTY STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 8*l.* and a silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. Dowdeswell's Bess , 3 yrs.	}	beat	{ Mr. G. R. Rogerson's Nell , 2 yrs. 6 mos.
1 mo.
Mr. W. Grass's Nell , 3 yrs.	}	"	{ Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Sall , 2 yrs.
11 mos.
Mr. J. C. Antrobus's Bess , 2 yrs.	..		Lord Lichfield's Frenzy , 3 yrs.

II.

Mr. Dowdeswell's Bess beat Mr. Grass's Nell.

Mr. Antrobus's Bess... .. Frenzy.

III.

1st, Mr. Antrobus's Bess.

2nd, Mr. Dowdeswell's Bess.

Bess very soon disposed of her antagonist, who was quite raw and unbroken. Mr. Grass's Nell won, and showed to more advantage than in her subsequent trial. Mr. Antrobus's Bess went fast, and in good style, soon putting out Frenzy's chance. After ringing the changes on these winners, Mr. Antrobus's Bess was selected for first honours; she was a very fast and clever bitch, but not quite steady on her point.

HAWKSTONE STAKES (braces), for dogs and bitches, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each entry; first 9*l.* and a silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. R. Garth's Drake, 3 yrs., and Carl, 2 yrs.

Mr. J. A. Mottram's Bang, 2 yrs. 2 mos., and Juno, 1 yr. 1 mo.

Lord Lichfield's Noble, 13 mos., and Peg, 4 yrs.

Mr. G. Dowdeswell's Scamp, 2 yrs, and Bess, 3 yrs. 1 mo.

1st, Lord Lichfield's Noble and Peg.

2nd, Mr. J. A. Mottram's Bang and Juno.

The judges had some difficulty in selecting the best brace in this stake, as, with the exception of Mr. Dowdeswell's, the dogs were badly matched. Drake's companion was somewhat wild and unsteady, but not so much so as in his previous trial with Ranger, and this performance told against him, in the opinion of the judges, when put down with Drake. Bang again seconded Juno very inefficiently, and Peg could scarcely move with Noble, though she did manage to get one point. On the other hand, Scamp and Bess were fairly matched, but both hunted with their heads on the ground, and in bad style altogether.

CHAMPION STAKES; prize a piece of plate, value 20*l*.

Mr. R. Garth's Drake..... beat Mr. Mottram's Juno.

Mr. Mottram's Bess „ Mr. Statter's Rex.

Lord Lichfield's Peg (drawn)

II.

Mr. R. Garth's Drake won the prize.

Drake was here facile princeps, nothing but Juno making any fight with him.

SETTER TRIALS.—Wednesday, May 4.

The meet was Moreton Corbet, at nine o'clock, but the sun shining strongly, with a north-east wind, there was little or no scent till the afternoon. Although the setters were supposed to be of a superior class to the pointers, they did not show such good form; but this might possibly have been due, not only to the absence of scent, but to the greater backwardness of the crops on this side of the estate, the wheat being scarcely out of the ground. Sir Vincent Corbett spared no pains to find good covert, but there really was so very little to find, and the judges were sometimes obliged to guess at the merits of the competitors. Three prize winners at Birmingham made their appearance, namely, Shot, Wick, and Daisy, but neither of the dogs showed to advantage, being slow and heavy in their style of gallop, though each displayed good noses, and the bitch had become over cautious, more frequently drawing on her imagination than on real game. She was, moreover, lucky in being down when this fault did not do her much harm, her draw generally ending in reality, and won the bitch stake easily. Mr. Statter's Bruce and Mr. Macdona's Plunket were very near together in the Shrewsbury Stake, and it appeared to be a matter of chance as to the award, which finally fell to Mr. Statter, owing to Plunket flushing his birds under a hedge in a bare piece of spring wheat. The winner hunted in good style, and with fine pace, besides which his nose was undeniably good. Bishop had greatly improved Duke, who went far better than usual, in spite of his age (6 years); but, per contra, Kate was not within 20 per cent. of her last year's form, having recently had an attack of rheumatism, from which she was, however, recovering, as she made an excellent second to Duke in the braces.

Duchess beat Blanche .		Rake beat Field's Bolt .		Rake beat Shot .

III.

1st, Mr. Lonsdale's Duchess.

2nd, Lord Waterpark's Rake.

3rd, Mr. Field's Bolt.

Drake and Shot were down for some little time without showing any merit, so the judges ordered them to be taken up, without making any decision. Blanche then beat Bruce, but without going in a way to please the spectators. Duchess, the moment she was slipped, had the luck of getting on game, and soon beat her antagonist at all points. Rake, a very nice goer, and with a good nose, won easily. Shot won his trial without much merit. Field's Bolt displayed great pace, but was too fast for the bad scent. Garth's Bolt was soon sent home from flushing his birds. In the ties, Duchess, finding cleverly, while Blanche flushed her birds twice, was at once placed first. Rake then beat Shot, who refused to back, and Bolt in succession, and was placed second, Bolt being third.

SHREWSBURY STAKES, for all-aged dogs, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first 9*l.* and a silver cup, second 7*l.*

II.

Bruce beat Plunket. | Plunket beat Sam.

III.

1st, Mr. Statter's Bruce.

2nd, Mr. Macdonald's Plunket.

Wick and Plunket being uncoupled in a nice piece of wheat, the latter at once found, and going in fine style was, with a very short trial, awarded the winner. Shot and Trojan were both too slow for the taste of the judges, and their merits were not settled by them. Bruce easily beat Charlie, and Sam won his bye with Wick. In the ties Bruce and Plunket had a bare piece of ground for their trial, but the former, showing superior nose was made the winner of this event, and of the final one. Plunket then finding well, disposed of Sam's chance for second prize.

BOROUGH STAKES, for all-aged bitches, at 3*l.* 3*s.*; prize, silver cup value 10*l.*

Mr. R. Garth's Daisy, 3 yrs.... beat Mr. R. L. Purcell's Belle, 5 yrs.
Mr. B. Field's Kate, 2 yrs.

II.

Mr. Garth's Daisy beat Mr. Field's Kate.

Daisy, though going very cautiously and losing a good deal of time thereby, showed too much nose for Belle, and afterwards in the same way disposed of Kate.

SOMERFORD STAKES (braces), for dogs and bitches, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each entry; first prize 11*l.* and a silver cup, second 9*l.*

Mr. R. L. Purcell's Trojan, 1 yr. 8 mos., and Wick, 3 yrs. 3 mos.
Mr. B. Field's Duke, 6 yrs., and Kate, 2 yrs.
Mr. R. Garth's Daisy, 3 yrs., and Bess, 3 yrs.
Mr. T. Statter's Bruce, 1 yr. 9 mos., and Rhebe, 3 yrs. 6 mos.

II.¹

Mr. Garth's Daisy and Bess first; Mr. Field's Duke and Kate second.

Trojan and Wick did some pretty work in a field of grass, each setting and backing several times in their turns, but they were too slow for the taste of the day. Duke, going fast, and with his head higher than of old, was well aided by Kate, the scent improving just in time for her, and the brace showing to great advantage in a fine piece of clover. Mr. Garth's brace were too slow, and Daisy too cautious, while Bess was not steady behind; indeed, in spite of their high reputation, they did not please so much as Mr. Purcell's brace, which were as fast without committing a single fault. Mr. Statter's Bruce went as well as before, but his mother Rhebe, as might be expected, was not able to assist him effectually, and it looked like Lombard-street to a China orange in favour of Mr. Field; but the judges, who had previously been all against slow work, unaccountably hung to Daisy and Bess, and although made aware of the general opinion being in favour of Mr. Field's dogs, and after a second trial of each, they awarded the prize to Mr. Garth's brace.

CHAMPION STAKE; prize a piece of plate value 20l.

Mr. Field's Duke, 4 yrs. beat Mr. R. Garth's Daisy.

Mr. Statter Bruce „ Mr. Garth's Bess.

Mr. Statter's Bruce won the prize.

Mr. Statter's magnificent dog won this stake very cleverly.

1870.—VAYNOL.

THESE trials were held on the 3rd and 4th of November, 1870, on the Vaynol estate, near Bangor, the property of Mr. Duff-Assheton Smith. The notice being short and unexpected, all the entries were not taken up.

Judges.—Capt. Jones, of Ruthin, and Mr. R. J. Purcell-Lewellin for the pointers; and Capt. Jones and Mr. J. H. Whitehouse for the setters.

Referee.—Capt. Denman.

THE POINTER TRIALS.—Thursday, November 3.

CLASS I.

Mr. H. Whitehouse's Priam ... beat Mr. J. S. Hine's Rex.

Mr. Andrew's liv. and w Belle ... „ Mr. Whitehouse's Nina.

1st, Mr. Andrew's Belle; 2nd, Nina.

At ten o'clock on Thursday, Mr. Whitehouse's Priam was put down with Rex, Edwards, the head keeper, carrying the gun. Priam was too fat to work for field work; this might have accounted for his running a little slow, though he worked in good form and showed a good nose, but a little deficient in breaking. Rex simply romped about, showing no breaking at all, and, though faster than Priam, went in form greatly inferior, but both dogs were incorrigibly keen in breaking after fur. After two hours pottering about, the palm went to Priam. It was seen at a glance that Mr. Andrew's dog and Nina were a much superior brace to the other in everything except style and pace, in which Priam beat them both. They each showed good nose, were very careful, and well under command, and procured many shots, making very many points and backs to each other. Their case was a very difficult one to decide, the judges having to watch them very narrowly to pick out the best. At the end of the trial, however, the total of points was in favour of Mr. Andrew's liver and white, the second going to Nina.

CLASS II.

Major Platt's Hector (a bye).

Hector did not show sufficient form and style for a first prize, the judges, however, allowed him to save his stake.

THE SETTER TRIALS.—Friday, November 4.

CLASS IV.—SETTER PUPPIES.

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Duchess against Mr. Buckell's Shot.

The first brace fell to Shot's point, but Duchess went on in fine style, and all through had nearly all the finding. Shot's luck seemed to be pointing hares. At the finish he had another point, when Duchess refused to back, but running in gained another point. With his usual luck, a hare ran up under Shot's nose; a brace of birds rose to Duchess.

CLASS III.

Mr. R. Llewellyn-Purcell's Plunket beat Wick.

Mr. Hayward's Ruth beat Mr. R. Ll. Purcell's Belle.

1st, Plunket; 2nd, Ruth.

Plunket had greatly improved in appearance, had lost none of his grand dash and style, but had gained in steadiness and staunchness. Wick ran in far better than when he met Plunket at Shrewsbury. Both went off like rockets, and having hunted two large grass fields, they turned into a field of swedes, where the birds had been rising a good deal. Wick pointed a hare, which almost ran into Plunket's mouth. It was grand character and discipline in so high-couraged a dog to resist so tempting a morsel; he, however, stood staunch, and next found a brace on a water-course in very pretty style. The great point of the day was when in the next field Plunket from the bottom of a stubble end got wind of some birds, and at a racing pace followed up the scent, and settled down suddenly to within fifty yards of his birds, Wick backing very handsomely. Wick and Plunket were only down one hour, Wick being thus placed at a disadvantage, having only half the chance against Ruth, his real, though unfortunately not run-off, competitor. Ruth ran full two hours with another bitch. Ruth, however, had it all her own way; she was a slow pottering worker, and would have stood no chance against Wick if they had been tried together, but time would not admit of it, and so many birds fell to her pointing, and she worked so steadily that the judges gave her the second prize.

CLASS V.—RETRIEVERS.

Mr. Assheton-Smith's Bess beat Capt. Pearson's dog.

The only two points of interest attaching to the working of the retrievers were the general good style of Mr. Assheton-Smith's Bess in running straight up to her bird, in one case wiping the eye of her competitor, when he lost his bird, after half an hour's trial of patience; and the endurance of Plunket and Wick, who pointed backward all the time. Bess ran in and found, the dog came up, and Bess, with extremest courtesy, doubtless knowing she was infringing upon the dog's honours, dropped the bird to him, and returned to her master.

1871.—SOUTHAMPTON.

NATIONAL DOG CLUB.

Judges.—Rev. Thomas Pearce, of Morden Vicarage, Blandford, Dorset; Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., of Ettington Park, Stratford-on-Avon; and Mr. George Errington.

THE POINTER TRIALS.—Wednesday, April 19.

SOUTHAMPTON STAKES, for all-aged dogs only, 2*l.* 2*s.* each; first 5*l.* 5*s.*, second 2*l.* 2*s.*

Mr. John's Romney against Mr. Whitehouse's Nina.

Mr. Whitehouse Blanche " Mr. Mottram's Juno.

Romney beat Nina. | Juno beat Blanche. | Juno beat Romney.
1st, Juno; 2nd, Romney.

BOROUGH STAKES, for all-aged dogs and bitches (each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner), 3*l.* 3*s.* each brace; prize 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. John's Romney and Mite.

Mr. Whitehouse's Priam and Nina.

Mr. Whitehouse's brace first.

A heavy rain and a strong easterly wind had prevailed the whole of the previous day and during the chief part of the night. At 11.30, or thereabouts, Mr. Whitehouse's Joke was put down on some good grass cover, with as rough a time to contend against as ever fell to the lot of a pointer. His competitor was the celebrated liver and white Rex bred by Mr. Statter, and as good a dog as was seen all day, though he was doomed to be unfortunate throughout the proceedings. Joke, who ran wild and seemed determined to have a fling, put up his birds to begin with, broke by Rex, and did everything except standing on his head. Except his free gallop he had no qualification. Mr. Whitehouse at once drew him, and depended upon Priam as his second string. Rex meanwhile was pointing well in spite of the antics of a tame turkey, and dropped when the birds were sprung by young Bishop, who handled him exceedingly well. The white flag was put up for Rex within ten minutes of the start, and then commenced a long trial (as it proved) between Bob and Priam. Bob, handled by Jem Shave, Mr. Pearce's breaker, started at a moderate pace, quartering his ground with great precision, and in some lean wheat got the birds and pointed firmly, but Priam ran up stubbornly, and got the wind. On the next piece of wheat there were no birds, but Bob got a point in the plough where the birds were sheltering from the weather. Bob's sensitive nose was serving him, but Priam wiped out his error by two points in succession, to which Bob gave his assent by a sudden voluntary thoroughly cataleptic back in as good form as his point. Again, Priam got a point as Shaw and Mr. Whitehouse were going for the wind, but he got this advantage by either not hearing or ignoring Mr. Whitehouse's whistle. Having commenced a fresh beat in deep wheat, Priam drew up stiffly, his hackles all "a-ridge" and his stern well up, but at the last moment he gave a jump at nothing, though the judges and his owner expected to find a seat. Bob got a clever point at a single bird, and Priam refused to back him until he got to Mr. Whitehouse's feet, and shortly after he crept many yards (not the first time) after running birds in bad covert which Bob had previously stood, and Bob came to a firm point in the furrow where recent droppings of birds were visible. After an interval they were again put down in some middling clover, when Priam won by a point, well backed by Bob, who, though beaten, was not disgraced, and proved himself sure, though slow, steady and well broken before and behind, but he was outpaced and outflanked.

Rex and Priam.—These dogs ran up birds in all directions, beginning in clover, but on cold hills, large fields with no scent. Priam repeated his creeping manœuvres; Rex appeared to blunder over or upon some birds in grass, then Priam pointed at the instant the birds got up, and stood excusably confused as they bore away. Presently in some green peas Rex pointed grandly, and Priam backed him with no assistance or signal from his master, and immediately after made a famous point, standing firmly and rooted to the ground, his stern well up, every hair on his body on end, champing his lips and trembling with excitement. This about made them level, and they dropped down the hill. Priam got a point at once, and Rex backed, but a sudden freak seized Mr. Field's dog, and he left his back as the birds rose, jumped all four feet off the ground, and lost the first prize.

Romney and Nina.—At a quarter-past one Romney was put down with Nina. They commenced in a very heavy ridge and furrow, where Nina got a brilliant point and was promptly backed by the Irish belle. Nina, who seemed a bit jealous, ran up a brace wilfully in some clover, with a sort of haughty air, but Romney dropped like a stone at the sound of the wing. In some rough stuff Nina crept and pointed falsely, but Romney backed her, and directly after Romney made a stylish point, well backed by Nina, who went all the better the longer she went, but had unfortunately missed her opportunity.

Blanche and Juno ran a short trial in some rye, each beginning with a point and back where birds had evidently been. Blanche's backing was particularly keen and sharp. Presently each got a point and back in rapid succession on some plough. The scent was improving, and soon Juno pointed in incomparable style, and won a smart trial with plenty in hand at about 4.30.

Romney and Juno.—This brace of bitches began in a rare bit of wheat, when Juno pointed a lark (for a second) but pulling herself together she made a rare point close to a quickset hedge, and Romney backed her. The birds got up on the other side. Juno, missing the wind, ran over some birds in grass, but dropped, and directly got a very effective point with her opponent backing, but walking on, though with much hesitation. In this trial Romney seemed to have lost form, whilst Juno appeared delighted with her work, and, though over fresh, and inclined to sit instead of dropping, she was quite a sensational performer.

Romney and Mite.—Mite appeared to have the best nose, or she was favoured with luck, and Romney at once regained the form she showed in the morning. The trial was short, but satisfactory.

Nina and Priam.—Nina at once found in very grand style, and made one of the best points of the day, Priam backing simultaneously, and in less than two minutes she found a hare in some long wheat and dropped; Priam did the same, and a brace of hares got up between the dogs before they were held up. Nina got another point, and Priam backed her, and their admirable style and steadiness carried the day.

THE SETTER TRIALS.—Thursday, April 20.

These trials took place on another part of Mr. Fleming's extensive estate, about three miles from Southampton, the meet being at South Stoneham, at 9.30, virtually 10.45.

Mr. Handy's Kate and Snake 0

Silk and Mab.—Silk and Mab, the only entries in the puppy stakes, began amidst torrents of rain and half a gale of wind. Mab was a very merry worker with good style and plenty of speed; she was impatient and keen, and evidently short of work, and ran up, chased, and looked heartily ashamed of herself whilst Silk got a point in the deep oats, pointed even when there were no birds, and though she went with her stern down and the end of it hooped, was good enough to win. The trial lasted ten minutes.

Shot and Ranger.—Mr. Pearce retired from the judging, Mr. Bevan taking his place, as Ranger had come from the "Idstone" kennels. Shot was hunted judgmentally by Mr. Buckell, Ranger by Mr. Pearce's breaker, Shave. They both galloped well, Ranger perhaps had best stern action, both hunting well to hand, and quartering admirably. The fields were very wet, and Shot made a false point by the river. This performance he repeated, and Ranger refused to back. A little to the left Shot drew up and found, but Ranger went in, showing a bit of temper, and lost.

Bruce and Bang.—This brace began in some good clover, when Bruce went a racing pace for the wind and got a point. Bang crept about twenty yards and backed; a pair of birds got up under his feet, and he dropped, Bruce merely giving them a glance over his shoulder. Immediately after Bruce got another point, Bang ran in when the gun was fired and seemed all abroad, and Bruce won with plenty to spare at 12.10.

Dandy and Plunket.—This was thought a foregone conclusion for Plunket, but it was not so, and Dandy was admirably handled by his owner. Plunket went at a great pace, but no faster than Dandy, nor in such good form. Plunket made a false point in some fallows, Dandy promptly backing him. Plunket pointed again, but there were no birds; he supplemented this performance by two false points, and meanwhile Dandy stood and dropped well, and the crack was beaten at 12.30.

Drake and Wick.—This trial began in fallows by a farmhouse. Drake was a good goer, Wick slow and rolling, Drake got a good point, his stern vibrating a little, Wick backed, and both dropped to wing. The next cover was grass. Wick made a point, and crept on slowly instead of holding it. Drake backed well and won by style, staunchness, and steadiness. Then came torrents of rain and a cold scent. Time, 1.5.

Shot and Bruce.—This was the first tie. Bruce made a point at a warm form in a grass field from which Mr. Errington had just viewed a hare, Shot backing well. Soon after Shot blundered up some birds, but evidently by accident. Bruce got a point afterwards, winning the tie at 1.30.

Drake and Dandy.—This was won in a few minutes, Dandy making one of the best points of the day, falling as though he was struck by lightning.

Bruce and Dandy.—This was the final heat. The last run exciting the liveliest interest. First both got a separate point, birds to each, and each dropped. Then Dandy got a point and was well backed. Next Bruce pointed and Dandy backed instantly. Not an inch of ground was missed, the quartering and pace were admirable. A grander or more exciting sight was never witnessed. The eight guineas, embracing first and second prizes were divided.

Rose and Belle.—Rose found a hare well; Belle hesitated to back, but at last consented. Belle then got a point; birds not to be found. Shaw, who hunted her, moved her, and she stood again. Birds sprang, and she dropped, Rose backing well. Rose got a point, Belle backed well. This was on fallow and oats. Rose a point again, Belle slow to back. Rose won, Belle being unlucky, but out-paced and inferior in gallop.

Bloom and Mr. Field's Kate.—Kate got a point, and Bloom ran by: Bloom unsteady to the back. Both fine goers and fast, but Kate won at 3.12, being in fine form.

Blanche and Duchess.—Duchess stood a lark in fallow, when each got a point. Duchess then made a false point, and crept. Blanche dropped as if she were shot, and was not to be had by the creeping tactics; she made a false point in ploughed ground, then a good point, but fretted a bit and shook her stern before she decided it was genuine. Blanche the winner at 3.35.

Beauty and Mr. Handy's Kate.—This was on plough. Beauty, far inferior in gallop and stride to Mr. Handy's bitch, ran at her birds; Kate backed in the stubble. Kate got a point in some peas, Beauty refusing to certify. They were put out by the judges at four o'clock.

Rose and Kate.—First ties: A brace got up before Kate, who seemed not to relish Rose, for she hesitated to drop. Rose got a point directly afterwards, and Kate, going a tremendous pace, stopped when she saw the point with such suddenness that she slid along the ground a foot or more, making the mud fly again. Kate pointed, but seemed inclined to cut it through jealousy. Rose found twice, Kate backing. They then alternately got points. Kate made an equivocal run in, Rose being steady. She then routed some birds, and galloped on; Rose dropped to their rise, and won.

Plunket and Shot ran a short trial, Plunket backing Shot's first find well, after which he pointed and both dropped well.

Kate and Mr. Handy's Snake.—Kate in deep wheat ran at some birds. Snake found and Kate backed. They quartered and turned well, and were skilfully worked.

Kate and Bruce.—This was a short but effective trial, Kate making the longest back of the day.

Blanche and Bloom.—Bloom got a point in some beans; Blanche backed her. After several alternate points they were taken up at 6 p.m.

Duke and Duchess.—Duke put up birds in wheat; after this they hardly made any mistakes, Duchess going in better form than her kennel companion.

NATIONAL POINTER AND SETTER FIELD TRIALS.

President.—The Earl of Bradford.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere, Sir V. R. Corbet, Bart., S. W. Clowes, Esq., M.P.

POINTER TRIALS.—Wednesday, April 26.

It was no surprise to find the splendid manor of Sir Vincent Corbett entirely bare of "lying." With the exception of a few pieces of seeds and rape, there was literally no covert at all for birds on the Acton Reynald side, and at one time it looked almost a certainty that the Pointer Stakes would not all be decided on the first day. The judges however, persevered most unflinchingly, and by seven o'clock the last of the braces had been disposed of, leaving the Champion Stakes only for decision. About 9.30 they began at Shawbury Whitegate with the.

No merit being shown by Blinkhorn's Dinah and Merry, they were taken up. Peg then had the flag hoisted against Lassie, but neither got a point, and Pax disposed of Blanche—none of these puppies showing any form.

Next came Pride, with high reputation, which she supported by winning the stake; but she was not quite up to the level of her sire Rex, who had won last year as Mr. Statter's, but had changed hands, going into his second owner's kennel at a high figure. She was a fast and merry worker, but did not show a nose sensitive enough for her speed. Knowles, who succumbed to her, was a useful and killing dog, but slow by comparison and deficient in style. Mr. Price's two dogs had no difficulty with their competitors, Beppo especially. First ties: Dinah and Peg, on being put down together, each flushed birds and lost their chance at once. Knowles did some nice work with Pax, and had the best of him. Pride, after some difficulty, at last managed to get a point of Beppo, being more thoroughly broken, but not nearly his equal in style, and apparently not in delicacy of nose. Pax and Bang then contested the third prize, the former flushing a brace of birds, while Bang made a good point. Pride was then adjudged the first prize, Beppo and Bang the second and third. The winner was broken by George Thomas, and the second and third by their owner, who worked them himself.

Mr. T. Bright's Bess, 1 yr. 7 mos.

II.

1st, Mr. T. Armstrong's Dinah.

2nd, Mr. Field's Queen.

3rd, Mr. Stewart's Jill.

These bitches were a much better lot than the animals in the two stakes first decided. Jill displayed a capital nose, but was not perfectly broken, requiring constant correction from her owner, who showed great judgment in concealing her weak points. Dinah, the winner, made the cleverest and longest point of the day in her trial with Queen. Doll, when put down with Jill, was by many considered to have the best of it; but it was so near a thing that no one ought to have complained. Juno behaved badly throughout, being wild, and altogether unlike her old self. Queen also was a little off, but was able to reach the second place.

HAWKSTONE STAKES, for braces (dogs and bitches); first prize 9*l.* and a silver cup, second 7*l.*

Mr. Field's Rex , 3 yrs., and Queen , 2 yrs.....	1
Mr. T. Statter's Pride , 11 mos., and Manton , 2 yrs. 3 mos....	2
Mr. R. Parr's Pax , 9 mos., and Rap , 9 mos.	com.
Mr. T. Bright's Bess , 1 yr. 7 mos., and Ruby , 1 yr. 7 mos....	0

In the braces, Rex and Queen each soon found both backing well. Bess and Ruby hunted in couples so completely that the judges soon decided against them. Pride was too fast to make a match for Manton, but they each performed well. Pax and Rap, considering their age (9 months) did remarkably well, but they could only obtain a recommendation.

The Champion Stake was not run off, as above remarked. Throughout the day the weather was all that could be desired.

Thursday.

The fixture this day was Moreton Corbet, at nine sharp, and the judges, being there to the minute, proceeded to try the remanet from yesterday. Mr. Clowes was not able to attend, and it was left to the subscribers to decide whether they would be satisfied with two judges, which question they answered in the affirmative. Lord Combermere and Sir Vincent Corbet, therefore, at once proceeded with their task, and their decisions throughout the day were not only endorsable, but they were absolutely endorsed by all the spectators.

The weather was exactly what could be wished, and the "lying" much better than that of the previous day. The setters were also of a far superior class to the pointers.

Mr. B. Field's liv. w d Ree, by } beat { Mr. T. Armstrong's lem. w b
Major—Pet, 3 yrs. } { Dinah, by Bang—Slap.

Neither dog made a mistake in beating a beautiful piece of seeds, but the superior pace and style of the dog at once gained him the award.

SETTER TRIALS.

SETTER PUPPY STAKES ; 1st prize, 5*l*. and a silver cup ; 2nd prize, 4*l*.

Mr. J. Bishop's Duke, 12 mos., against { Mr. B. Field's Burton, 12 mos.
(undecided).

Mr. T. Armstrong's Dolphin, } beat { Mr. T. C. Townsend's bk t
14 mos. } { Derby, 11 mos.

II.

1st, Mr. T. Armstrong's Dolphin ; 2nd, Mr. J. Bishop's Duke.

The first brace were down some little time on a nice piece of seeds, but without showing much merit, and no decision was given. Dolphin and Derby had a much shorter trial, Dolphin doing some good work, while Derby was raw and unbroken. The judges at once decided as above.

BRADFORD STAKES, for all-aged dogs ; first prize 9*l*. and a silver cup, second 7*l*., third 4*l*.

Mr. T. Statter's bk w tan Dan, } beat { Lord Waterpark's bk w Rake,

Mr. R. L. Purcell's bk tan Shot, 2 yrs., ran his bye with Rake, the latter winning.

II.

Dan beat March. | Dan beat Drake. | March beat Bolt.

III.

1st, Mr. Statter's Dan.

2nd, Mr. Lonsdale's Drake

3rd, Mr. T. Armstrong's March.

Out of the nine dogs in this stake, three were by Mr. Field's Duke, viz., Dan, Drake, and Rake, while March was a grandson of that dog. These four were decidedly the best of the lot, so that no little credit accrued to him as a stud dog. Dan, the ultimate winner, had a near shave with Lord Waterpark's Rake ; the latter, after making an excellent fight on a beautiful piece of wheat, finding in grand style just after the flag went up for his rival, who did not back him very staunchly, and was not satisfied till he smelt the scent. March, though completely outpaced by Plunket, had the better nose, and, behaving very steadily at his points—which were, luckily for him, three to the Irish dog's one—he gained the award. Drake found beautifully two or three times, and, working in fine style, gave no chance to Dick, who, though said to be fast, did not show pace there. Rubens ran so wild that in less than five minutes the flag went up against him ; Bolt making a splendid point which the young dog refused to back. Shot ran his bye with Rake, who had the best of him at all points. Dan then successively beat March and Drake, winning his trial by his magnificent pace and style of going. Finally, March beat Bolt for third pace, when the respective prizes were allotted as above.

SHREWSBURY STAKES, for all-aged bitches; first prize 5*l.* and a silver cup, second 4*l.*

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's bk w } Duchess, 1 yr. 10 mos. }	beat	{ Viscount Downe's b w tan Duchess, 1 yr. 4 mos.
Mr. B. Field's bk tan Kate, 3 } yrs. }	"	{ Mr. G. Brewis's bk tan Juno, 2 yrs.

II.

1st, Mr. Field's Kate, by Cowan's Don—Venus.

2nd, Mr. Lonsdale's Duchess, by Duke—Bet.

Kate, going in her puppy form, won this stake easily, Duchess being weak, owing to her having just weaned a litter of pups, but working in beautiful style. The others did not show to advantage.

SOMERFORD STAKES, for braces (dogs or bitches); first prize 11*l.* and a silver cup, second 9*l.*

Mr. T. Statter's Dick , 1 yr. 10 mos., and Dan , 1 yr. 10 mos.	1
Mr. B. Field's Kate , 3 yrs., and Bruce , 3 yrs.	2
Mr. R. L. Purcell's Plunket , 3 yrs., and Shot , 2 yrs.	0
Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Duke , 1 yr. 10 mos., and Duchess , 1 yr. 10 mos.	0
Mr. J. Armstrong's March , 2 yrs., and Dolphin , 1 yr. 2 mos.	0

Plunket went far better than in the morning, but Shot was of no use to him, the black and tan flushing a brace of birds and not making a point. Dick and Dan behaved gloriously, going about the same racing pace, and setting and backing each other in a way to gladden the heart of the most fastidious. Next came Bruce and Kate, fresh from their Southampton victory, but the dog did not go in his best form, and the bitch was a little unsteady on fur; nevertheless they made a good second to Mr. Statter's dogs. Duke behaved badly with Duchess, and was a very bad substitution for Mr. Lonsdale's Drake, who, with the bitch, would have made an excellent brace. March and Dolphin being too slow to compete with the above flyers, there could be no doubt that Mr. Statter had full claim to first honours (for which his breaker, George Thomas, deserved great credit), and Mr. Field to the second place.

Mr. B. Field's b w Bruce , 3 yrs. beat Mr. T. Groom's bk w Shot , 5 yrs.
Mr. Statter's Dan " Mr. Field's Kate , 1 yr.

II.

1st, Mr. Statter's Dan.

Shot was soon disposed of by Bruce, and Dan outpaced Kate so much as to astonish all, the bitch usually leading all her competitors. This stake was regarded with great interest, as being, to some extent, a trial between the comparative merits of Mr. Laverack's breed, and that of Sir Bellingham Graham, as exhibited in Mr. Field's Duke. Bruce, described erroneously as by Duke, was really by Mr. Laverack's Dash out of Mr. Statter's Rhebe, while Dan was out of the same bitch by Duke. The latter was out of a litter of nineteen, ten of which were reared by the Dam herself. The result would go to show the great superiority of Duke as a stock dog over Dash.

Mr. Macdona's silver whistle for the breaker who worked his dogs best at their trials was then awarded to George Thomas, who was private breaker to Mr. Statter, and was undoubtedly ^{the} 1 in his line, his dogs never once making a mistake.

1871.—VAYNOL.

September 19, 20, and 21.

(By the kind permission of G. H. D. Assheton Smith, Esq.)

Hon. Sec.—Major Platt, Gorddinog, near Bangor.

Judges.—Messrs. S. E. Shirley, M.P., Lower Ettington Park, Stratford-on-Avon; J. H. Walsh, Little Comberton, Pershore; and W. Lort, The Cotteridge, King's Norton.

The meet was fixed for 9.30, Mr. Lloyd Price, of Rhiwlas, Bala, being selected to shoot by general consent. It was also arranged that in each stake the first dog should take two-thirds, and the second one-third of the prize money, including the value of the cup, and after deducting 10 per cent. for expenses.

POINTERS.—Tuesday.

By the mistake of the printer, the place of meeting on the card was incorrectly given, owing to which several of the keepers (including Mr. Price's with his gun) were taken a mile away. This caused an hour's delay, and consequently they did not begin until 10.30. The scent in the morning was exceedingly bad, to the great disadvantage of Mr. Brailsford's dogs, but one of them was afterward's put down with Nina, with the view of further trying her nose. Unfortunately, however, the wind failed again, and she was unable to retrieve her credit. Edward Armstrong showed a brace of remarkably well-broken pointers, which, having also good noses, won the brace stakes easily; but separately they each succumbed to Mr. Statter's Manton, a worthy successor of his Rex, and of the same strain of blood, though not perhaps quite equal to that dog in the field. The bitches were not quite so good as the dogs, and the puppies very moderate, Mr. Statter's Minx being drawn after a few minutes' trial.

BANGOR STAKES, of 5l. 5s. each, for dogs or bitches of all ages; first prize, silver cup, value 10 guineas, given by Mr. Ll. Purcell Llewellyn.

Mr. Brailsford's Nell and } against { Mr. Whitehouse's Rap and Lassie }

Lord Downe's Mars and Bang beat Mr. Swinburne's Rob and Drop.

Mr. Statter's Manton and Poll (a bye).

II.

1st, Lord Downe's Mars and Bang.

Rob and Drop and Rap and Nina divided second prize.

Nell and Lassie, as well as Rap and Nina, had their full half-hour's work, but, either from a bad scent or from a paucity of game, they could not show much nose, and they were, therefore, all taken up, with the intention of putting one of these respective braces to a further trial later in the day. After the others in the stake, therefore, had been judged, Nell was put down with Nina; but they were again unfortunate, as the wind dropped, and each failed to improve their position. Mars and Bang almost immediately made a point, soon followed by a second, each dog in turn backing in good style, and the brace quartering their ground beautifully. They had not Drake's pace, but still they were considerably faster than the average, and had been beautifully broken by Edward Armstrong without being overdone. Bob and Drop were killing dogs, but not fast enough for the fashion of the day; they were also slightly unsteady behind, but in nose they seemed quite equal to Mars and Bang. The scent, however, was so bad that it was extremely difficult to judge this point, and, no doubt, in some cases the competitors approached perfection more nearly than the judges gave them credit for. Manton's fellow was a bitch, which was suffering rheumatism, and, therefore, quite useless, so that, as a brace, they were at once hors de combat. Mars and Bang scored 77½. Bob and Drop and Mr. Whitehouse's brace, each making 62½, were coupled as dividing the second prize.

VAYNOL STAKES, of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, for single aged dogs; first prize silver cup, value 10 guineas, given by Mr. S. Long.

Mr. Statter's Manton	beat	Lord Downe's Bang
Mr. G. W. D. Assheton Smith's {
Dash	,,	Mr. R. L. Price's Jim .
Lord Downe's Mars	{	Mr. Whitehouse's Rap , 6 yrs.
	}	7 mos. (dr.).
Mr. Whitehouse's Priam	,,	Dash .

II.

1st, Mr. Statter's Manton.

2nd, Lord Downe's Bang.

Manton, a grandson of Major, went faster than Bang, and also had slightly the better of him in nose on a second trial, finishing with a brilliant find in some seeds. For a long time the brace were unable to come on birds, and had a second go before they could show their noses. Dash, a neat and clever dog, was much faster than Jim, and also seemed to have slightly a better nose; but there was not a great deal between them in other points. Mars, though evidently quite as good as his kennel companion Bang, had not so stylish a carriage; but he was steadier behind, and, no doubt, a more killing dog. He had no great trial, as Mr. Whitehouse drew Rap after a time, seeing that he was amiss. Priam, on being put down with Dash, was defeated in pace, but had the better of the other points. The following are the totals of the points scored:—Manton, 92½; Bang, 85; Mars, 82½; Priam, 80; Dash, 75; Jim, 55.

COUNTY STAKES, of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, for single aged bitches; 1st prize, silver cup, value 5 guineas, given by the proprietors of Spratt's Patent Meat Fibrine Dog Cakes.

Mr. Brailsford's Nell	beat	Mr. Statter's Poll (dr.)
Mr. Whitehouse's Nina	,,	Mr. R. L. Price's Ellen (dr.).
Mr. Whitehouse's Blanche (a bye),

II.

Mr. Brailsford's Nell beat Mr. Whitehouse's Nina.

Poll and Ellen being drawn, left only three bitches in. Nina was only beaten for steadiness, and on the other hand, Nell showed superior style in pointing, but both were fairly broken. Blanche when put down with Nina showed jealousy, and rushed in front of her, taking the point from her.

The respective totals were: Nell, 67½; Nina, 65; Blanche, 50.

PENTIR STAKES, of 3l. 3s. each, for puppies; 1st prize, silver cup, value 5 guineas, given by the proprietors of the Field.

Mr. Brailsford's Lassie beat Mr. Statter's Minx.

Mr. Brailsford's Lassie, going very well, easily beat Minx, who was drawn after a short trial.

SETTERS.—Wednesday.

A much better scent served to display the setters to advantage. With the exception of Mr. Ellis's Devil, none of the retrievers showed much nose, their birds being found by them through industrious seeking, and not by working out the trail. The setters were a very good lot, Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's brace, worked by Mr. Buckell, being about the best the Field reporter had ever seen, and even superior to Mr. Statter's Dan and Dick, purchased of Mr. Llewellyn at Shrewsbury at a long price. He was so determined to have the best team possible, that he gave Mr. Statter 150l. for a half sister, Ruby, though not quite broken. Plunket was purchased at Shrewsbury of Mr. Macdona, in 1869, at the same price, and Countess was sold to Mr. Lang, along with Nell and several others, but this beautiful bitch alone was worth going any distance to see. Mr. Assheton Smith's Dick was also bought of Mr. Macdona, who had thus the honour and pleasure of looking on at the successes of his quondam favourites. Plunket had quite recovered his 1869 form, and, barring his dropping at the point, was absolutely perfect.

Mr. Statter's Queen came out with a great reputation, being a flyer, and considered quite as fast as the celebrated Drake, but she ran wild, and as if she had never been broken, though steady as a rock on the moors, and cautious almost to a fault. Owing to accidental circumstances, Mr. Price's team were out of form, of course greatly to their owner's annoyance. The new code of points was universally approved of, and Mr. Brailsford, Mr. Douglas, and one or two others, after jotting down their estimated points, and comparing them with the judges' books, were seldom more than five points out in their totals.

BODFEL STAKES, of 5l. 5s. each, for braces, dogs or bitches of all ages; prize, silver cup value 10 guineas, given by Mr. J. H. Whitehouse.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Plunket and Countess	1
Mr. R. L. Price's Tom and Don	} Divided ... 2
Lord Downe's Duke and Kate
Mr. Statter's Ruby and Rose	0

Plunket and Countess, as above remarked, went beautifully, the bitch making some mistake on birds, and Plunket chopping a leveret in some gorse, which he came upon suddenly when going at a great pace. With these exceptions their performance was faultless, and, in spite of the slight penalties accorded to them, they made the large score of 90.

Duke and Kate were a fairly good brace, but the bitch was scarcely independent enough, and also too much given to draw, as was often the fault of E. Armstrong's dogs. Ruby and Rose were only eleven months old, and had not seen hares, so that they were somewhat unsteady on fur; but they promise remarkably well. Mr. Price's brace were also good, but the old dog hung too much to the fences, and had lost his pace. Few people had seen such a fine lot of setters as were brought out for this stake.

BOROUGH STAKES, single aged dogs, at 3l. 3s. each, first, silver cup, given by Mr. J. H. Murchison.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Shot beat Mr. Statter's Rap.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Plunket... „ Mr. R. L. Price's Jepp.

Mr. G. W. D. Assheton-Smith's Dick (a bye).

II.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Plunket... beat Mr. G. W. Assheton-Smith's Dick.

Plunket went even better than before, not making a single mistake. Mr. Statter's Rap was unsteady on hare, and, though showing good form, did not please greatly. Jepp worked well, and with a slower dog he would have shown better no doubt. Shot had a good nose, but was comparatively slow, and withal much style in her going.

CARNARVON STAKES, single aged bitches, at 3l. 3s. each, first, silver cup, value 10 guineas, given by Mr. Thomas Statter.

Mr. R. Ll. Price's Bess beat Mr. Statter's Queen.

Lord Downe's Kate „ Mr. W. Hayward's Ruth.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Countess (a bye).

Queen was so unsteady, and especially in turnips, that Bess had no difficulty with her, but could not beat Countess or Kate, both of which bitches went even better than in the braces. Countess wound up by drawing up to some birds to a bank on which she stood them, while Kate, who was a little jealous, topped it, and took the point from her. This, independently of the superior pace and style of Countess, settled the question between them. Ruth, a slow useful animal, but not up to the form of her competitors.

Thursday.

DINORWIG STAKES, puppies at 2l. 10s. each; first prize silver cup, value 5 guineas, given by the proprietors of Spratt's Patent Meat Fibrine Dog Cakes.

Mr. R. L. Price's Don beat Lord Downe's Duke.

Rev. J. Macdonald's Mac „ Mr. R. L. Price's Bee.

Mr. Statter's Ruby „ Mr. J. A. Jones's Bess.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Royal.

II.

Mr. Price's Don and Mr. Statter's Ruby divided.

The ground was inferior to that beaten on Wednesday, and there was some difficulty in making the awards, two or three of which required a second trial. Mr. Statter's Ruby came out well. Duke and Don were a long time before they could find, having unfortunately flushed some birds before they had settled to their work. Mac and Bee were put down also on bad ground, and Bess and Ruby not much better. Royal, having the bye, was put down with Ruby, and finally Bee and Mac had a trial together, after which Don and Ruby had a short trial. All this indicated the badness of the ground, as on the previous days the decisions were easily arrived at. The result was that the prizes were divided between Don and Ruby.

RETRIEVER STAKES, of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, for old dogs or bitches : prize, silver cup, given by Rev. J. C. Macdona.

Mr. J. Hotchkiss's Jet	beat	Lord Downe's Bob .
Mr. T. Ellis's Devil	„	Mr. T. Ellis's Carlo .
Mr. S. Bright's Bob	„	Mr. R. L. Price's Sailor .
Mr. R. L. Price's Drake .

II.

1st, Mr. T. Ellis's Devil ; Lord Downe's Bob and Mr. Bright's Bob divided the second prize.

RETRIEVER STAKES of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, for puppies : prize, silver cup, value 3 guineas, given by the Committee.

Mr. G. W. D. Asheton Smith's	}	beat	Lord Downe's Pilot .

Mr. R. B. Moore's Monarch ...	„		Mr. C. Pearson's Belle .

II

Mr. G. W. D. Assheton Smith's Ben beat Mr. R. B. Moore's Monarch.

The following table is a transcript of the judges' books, omitting those dogs which were drawn. In all cases where a dog had no means of showing his powers in any particular point, as frequently happened in backing, he was allowed half.

1872.—DEVON AND CORNWALL.

THE first setter and pointer trials ever held in these western counties were inaugurated on Wednesday, the 10th of April, near the Menheniot station. The weather was most suitable, and about 100 gentlemen appeared to take very great interest in the proceedings. The lands of the Earl St. Germans, Mr. C. Trelawney, Mr. A. Coryton, Mr. F. Glanville, Miss Glanville, and the Rev. J. Roberts were kindly placed at the disposal of the committee, which was composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. W. B. Coham, M. Collier, L. C. Foster, S. Hawkins, C. Hodge, D. H. W. Horlock, L. C. Marshall, A. Mudge, R. S. Raby, E. C. Roberts, D. R. Scratten, and Capt. Woodley, R. N. President, the Right Hon. Lord Vivian; Mr. L. C. Foster, treasurer; Mr. R. Clogg, hon. sec.; and Mr. J. Douglas, of Clumber, Notts., acting director. The judges were Col. Hutchinson, Westward Ho, Bideford; Col. B. Russell, South Molton, Devon; and Mr. R. F. Bevan, Weston-grove, Southampton. At 11.55 a.m., the first brace of dogs were loosed on the farm of Bonialva (Mr. Coad's) for the REDGATE STAKES, for the best brace of setters belonging to the same owner in Devon or Cornwall, for a silver cup, or money value of 10*l*. added to the entry fees of 2 guineas each entry, limited to six.

Mr. Webber's (Falmouth) Dan and Claret, black and tan, 19 mos., beat Mr. Bulteel's (Plymouth) Don and Bob, liver colour, 3 yrs. Mr. Webber's dogs won rather easily.

DEVON AND CORNWALL STAKES, for the best brace of setters, open to all comers, entry fee 3 guineas, to which was added a silver cup or money value 10*l*.; entry limited to six.

Mr. Llewellyn's (North Wales) Countess and Nelly, black and white, 3 yrs. After seeing the very superior performance of this clever brace, the owner of a nice brace of young dogs declined to compete, so it proved a walk-over for Countess and Nelly.

COUNTY STAKES, for the best setter or pointer, open to all comers, entry fee 2 guineas, to which was added a silver cup, or money value 5*l*.; entry limited to six.

Mr. Llewellyn's Countess. No competition.

TREWORGEY STAKES, for the best setter or pointer, confined to Devon or Cornwall, entry 1 guinea, to which was added a silver cup or money value 5*l*.; entry limited to six.

Mr. Bulteel's (Plymouth) Don, liver colour, 3 yrs., beat Capt. Woodley's (Ivybridge) Rock, liver colour, 4 yrs. old.

Mr. Palmer's (Landrake) Nell, red tan, 18 mos., and Mr. Mudge's (Plympton) Rake, lemon and white, 4 yrs., disqualified.

Mr. Webber's (Falmouth) Dan, black and tan, 19 mos. beat Mr. Hamilton's (Plymouth) Sandie, liver and white, 5 yrs.

All were setters, Nell and Rake were disqualified for running into birds and chasing. In the second ties Mr. Webber's Dan beat Mr. Bulteel's Don, and won.

It should be stated that nearly all the above-named dogs were in too high condition for working, that most of the birds were found in wheat and plough ground, and that only a few head of ground game were found for the day.

On the 11th the Devon and Cornwall setter and pointer field trials were more numerous attended than on the previous day. The arrangements of Mr. J. Douglas were equally good. The ground selected was close to the Menheniot station, and the property of Mr. Charles Trelawney. At 11.30 a.m., the first brace of dogs were put into a field of wheat on Coldrenick for COLDRENICK STAKES, for pointers.

Capt. De Burgh's (Hodge, Devonport) liver and white dog Tory, 2½ yrs., and liver ticked bitch Bell, 2½ yrs., beat Mr. Coryton's (Pontelle, Cornwall) liver and white dog Tree, aged, and lemon and white dog Spanker, aged.

Tree and Spanker found four brace of birds in fair style, but were rather slow. Tory and Bell were then put in some wheat, and Tory found fast and clever; but Bell was not a match for the dog either in style or pace, and as the judges were undecided, Tree and Spanker were run a second time on a piece of plough. After this the stakes were awarded to Tory and Bell. There was considerable difference of opinion on this decision; but the award was quite correct, the beaten dogs being slow and only fit for turnips.

TREWORGEY STAKES, for pointers.

Mr. Body's (Callington, Cornwall) lemon and white dog Ranger, 3 yrs., proved too good for and beat Mr. Brackenbury's (Exeter) liver ticked bitch, very neat, Romp, 1 yr. 10 mos.

Mr. Price's (Bow, Devon) liver and white dog Bang, 2 yrs. 2 mos., beat Mr. Coryton's Spanker in a long trial.

Capt. Stewart's (Torquay) lemon and white dog Rock, 2½ yrs., beat Capt. De Burgh's (Hodge) Tory.

After some very wild work the judges were very much disappointed in Tory's performance, compared with his work in his previous trial, and only to be accounted for by his not being accustomed to hunt with a strange dog.

Second Ties:—Bang in good work and style, beat Ranger and Rock, and won the stakes. After which Rock beat Ranger for second place, and for which the committee, at the suggestion of the judges, offered a second prize.

The GLYN STAKES had no entry, and the DOUBLEBOIS STAKES were not run for, but altered in second day's programme as the SECOND TREWORGEY STAKES, the first being for setters, and the second for pointers.

1872.—SOUTHAMPTON.

NATIONAL DOG CLUB FIELD TRIALS.—April 17 and 18.

Judges.—Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., Lower Ettington Park, Stratford-on-Avon; and Mr. W. Lort, the Cotteridge, King's Norton.

The trials of this club took place on Wednesday and Thursday on Mr. Fleming's manor at Chilworth, near Southampton, the former day being devoted to pointers and the latter to setters. It was nearly twelve o'clock before the proceedings commenced. Owing to unforeseen circumstances, there was a very small entry for the different pointer trials, and the Borough Stakes, for all-aged dogs and bitches, each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner, and the Puppy Stakes, for dog and bitch puppies of 1871, did not fill, so there was consequently only two stakes to be competed for. The weather was fine, the sun shining brightly the greater part of the day, but there was a stiff breeze, varying from north-east to north-west, which made the scent very bad, and though two or three showers fell during the afternoon they did not mend matters a bit. The birds were very scarce indeed, and extremely wild.

POINTERS.

SOUTHAMPTON STAKES of 2*l.* 2*s.* each, for aged dogs only; prize 10 guineas.

Mr. Whitehouse's lem. w Priam beat Mr. H. Clarke's liv. w Rock.

Mr. Browne's lem. w Count (a bye).

II.

Mr. Whitehouse's lem. w Priam beat Mr. Brown's lem. w Count, and won.

Priam and Rock were put down shortly before twelve o'clock, and after trying some ploughed land and wheat, in which several of the birds got up wild, owing no doubt to the badness of the scent, which appeared most indifferent on this part of the manor, the former made a point, and Rock backed him, but the birds ran, and rose at the end of the wheat furrows. Again Priam pointed, and roaded some birds, Rock, who was too often at his master's heels, again backing, and after some further unsatisfactory business, both drew on game up wind among some thickish wheat, and Priam, being slightly in advance of Rock at the time, made a point. This was immediately followed by one on the part of Rock, who from his attitude seemed to be standing on his own account rather than backing. Priam then crept close on his birds and flushed them, and at the same moment a brace, which Priam must have passed, rose in front of Rock. The merit of this performance seemed to rest with Rock rather than Priam. After a short time Priam found some birds in another piece of wheat, and was drawing on them, when Rock came up and backed him. Priam then stood again, when Rock ran in in front of him, and took his point away, and the flag went up for Priam. In justice to Rock, it must be mentioned that he was used to being hunted with his brother Don, and had never before been tried with a strange dog; and this being the case, his owner had only entered him with his brother for the braces, but made an impromptu entry for the single. His backing was excellent, and, though he carried his head a trifle too low, there were many who thought him quite as good as, if not superior to, Priam, who had an unlucky knack of putting up his birds. In pace there was nothing to choose between them. Mr. Whitehouse hunted Priam himself, and Mr. Clarke Rock. This trial occupied until nearly half-past one o'clock, and an adjournment was made for lunch, at the termination of which Priam and Count were put down for the final tussle. After preliminary work in some grass, in which the younger dog, Count, showed considerable aptitude for dropping to feather, and both stood and backed one another several times at larks, Count pointed some birds in a fallow, and Priam (whose owner seemed to think the younger dog was standing at nothing, and therefore took little trouble with his own dog) backed, the merit of this being clearly Count's. Shortly after they rose the two dogs pointed again almost simultaneously, but Priam had perhaps slightly the best of it. So far their merits seemed to be tolerably even, and, there not seeming any chance of any more birds, the dogs were taken up; but Priam, pulling at his leash, scented something, and a wounded bird rose close by. Presently Count made a very good point in some wheat, showing better form than he had done before, for, as a general rule, he dropped at every point, but in this one he stood properly. There being no more covert in the neighbourhood, a long march of three-quarters of a mile along the road had to be made, and the two were again put down in some clover, which was drawn blank. In a wheat field next to it Count made a point, but it was in bad style, and in some long rye close by he put up a brace, the old dog, Priam, standing as firm as a Rock. In another piece of wheat adjacent Priam made a grand point, and Count would not back, and so the flag, after what had proved a most wearisome trial, went up for Priam at ten minutes to four o'clock.

COUNTY STAKES, of 2*l.* 2*s.* each, for aged bitches only; prize
10 guineas.

Mr. Macdona's liv. w Doll beat Mr. Bevan's liv. w Silk

Silk and Doll, two small but neat bitches, who were both hunted by their owners, were put down in some wheat, and after drawing it blank a move was made to another field of wheat, where Silk pointed and dropped and Doll raced away, but ultimately backed in obedience to the hand of her owner. Silk did not move, and it was only after her owner had passed her by about ten or fifteen yards and whistled that she showed any disposition to stir; but at last she did, and then it was apparent she was pointing false. After some tedious work, in which first one dog and then the other put up birds without pointing, a move was made across Mr. Fleming's park, and some excellent covert, thick clover, was reached; here Doll pointed, and was backed by Silk, and Silk pointed and was backed by Doll, and their merits were nearly evenly balanced. Ultimately Doll pointed, and her owner going ahead of her a brace of birds rose, and Silk not backing, the flag went up for Doll. Both these animals commenced work at a good pace, but towards the end they were very slow and showed considerable signs of tiring, and all were glad when the proceedings for the day terminated about half-past five o'clock.

SETTERS.

The meet on Thursday, the day for setters, was appointed for South Stoneham, at ten o'clock; but, owing to various circumstances, it was past that hour before Southampton was left, and it was nearly eleven o'clock when the Fleming Arms Inn was reached. The wind was a trifle higher than on Monday, and had a little more north in it; and, as no rain had fallen during the night, the scent was worse than it was on Monday. Birds were almost, but not quite, as scarce as before; and, though it was said there were plenty, they were not to be found, so they must have taken to the hedgerows. The ground for the setters was the same as last year; the pointers also hunted over similar ground. The first event was the

HAMPSHIRE STAKES for all-aged dogs and bitches, each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner, of 3*l.* 3*s.* each brace; first prize 10 guineas, second 5 guineas.

Mr. Llewellyn's bk t w d Dick and bk t w d Ruby..... 1

Mr. Llewellyn's bk w b Countess and bk w b Nelly 2

Mr. T. R. Bevan's bk w b Blanche and bk w b Bloom... 3

Countess and Nelly, hunted by Mr. Buckle, were first put down in some clover in a very large field, which was partly fallow and partly sown. They proved themselves very fast and extraordinarily wild rangers, owing, it was understood, to their being accustomed to small fields. The clover was drawn blank, but Countess got a point in the fallow, Nelly taking it from her. Nelly next got a point in some grass, and at the same time Countess stood, both at birds. It seemed at first that the latter was backing, but it proved otherwise. The pace of these two was great, and they quartered their ground well. The next brace, Bloom and Blanche, hunted by their owner, were put down about half-past eleven, and their performance was not very good, as they were always close together, and seemed to work independently. This is, however, no matter for astonishment, as they had only just weaned a litter of puppies each; and, if the entries had been more numerous and the sport better, they would not have been run.

About twelve o'clock Dick and Ruby, worked by Mr. Llewellyn's keeper, were put down, and the latter commenced by flushing birds in some wheat, and Dick made several false points, in which he was splendidly backed by Ruby. After some time Dick pointed some birds a second before they rose. Again he made false points, and during one of these, in which he was backed by Ruby, a hare ran close by him, and he dropped immediately he caught sight of her. Dick again pointed a single bird, and Ruby backed splendidly; in fact, the way in which she did this part of her work excited universal admiration, and, although she did not get a single point, the way in which she and her companion did their work was so satisfactory that the judges placed them first, Mr. Llewellyn's other brace second, and Mr. Bevan's third. An adjournment was then made at one o'clock for lunch, after which came the PUPPY STAKES, for dog and bitch puppies of 1871, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each; prize 5*l.* 5*s.*

This stake was won by Mr. Bevan's black white dog Belton, a grandson of Mr. Noel Hill's Sam, beating Mr. Llewellyn's red dog Marvel, by Plunket. These two were only half broken, but Belton got a good point, which Marvel ran in and took from him. Both then chased the birds, Belton having, apparently, the advantage in point of speed. Belton was worked by Mr. Bevan, jun., and Marvel by the keeper.

STONEHAM STAKES, of 2*l.* 2*s.* each, for aged dogs only; prize 5 guineas.

Had two entries, Mr. Llewellyn's Dick, and Capt. Venner's black tan dog Robin. Just after these two were put down, about two o'clock, a heavy shower fell, and all took shelter under a straw rick for a short time. On starting again, Dick made many points, all of which turned out to be at nothing, and his opponent did not misconduct himself, and as neither of them were able to find any birds, after being down a very long time, the judges pronounced their decision, which was that the stake should be divided.

CHILWORTH STAKES, of 2*l.* 2*s.* each, for aged bitches only ; 1*st.* 10*l.* 10*s.* ;
2*nd.* 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Bevan's bk w b Blanche ... beat Mr. Quick's r b Rose.

Mr. Llewellyn's bk w b Countess ,, Mr. Bevan's bk w b Bloom.

Mr. Llewellyn's bk w b Ruby (a bye).

II.

Mr. Llewellyn's Countess beat Mr. Bevan's Blanche and his own Ruby.

The first prize was consequently awarded to Countess, and the merits of the others were considered equal ; the second prize was divided between them.

Blanche and Rose were put down at 3.35, in some heavy clover, and Blanche immediately pointed and rushed in at some birds, Rose backing. Though there were no less than five brace of birds put up in this field no proper point was made, and the two seemed inclined to chase birds. Blanche especially, as she did not go half so well as she did in the morning, although she dropped directly at a hare which ran alone by her. Presently, in a piece of wheat, Blanche made an excellent point, Rose, who was close by, backing her well. This decided the question, as the flag went up at once for Blanche.

After a long walk to some clover tried by the puppies, Countess and Bloom were put down at 4.20, and the latter soon after flushed some birds, and did not drop. Countess then being at the far side of the field, fully 200 yards from Mr. Buckle, who was hunting her, pointed, and was immediately backed by Bloom. Mr. Llewellyn's dog stood as staunch as possible until the birds were put up for her. After a long time, in which Countess made several points, but could not find any birds, she finally pointed some birds under a hedge, and Bloom backing, the flag went up for Countess.

Blanche and Ruby were put down at 5.15, and shortly afterwards, Ruby, who would not hunt with Mr. Buckle, but only with Mr. Llewellyn's keeper, made a point under the hedge by a road, and stood birds well, but a carriage going along the road disturbed them. Soon after this Blanche stood once more, and their merits were about evenly balanced ; and thus they remained to the end, as, though field after field was tried, the dogs could not find any birds, though some were put up under the hedges by those who were following. Finally at 6.30 p.m., the judges being convinced of the superiority of Countess, gave her first prize, and divided the second between the other two.

1872.—SHREWSBURY.

President.—Sir Vincent A. Corbet, Bart.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere, Capt. R. Lloyd, and Mr. J. H. Arkwright.

These trials were held near Shrewsbury on Wednesday and Thursday, May 1*st* and 2*nd.*, the former day being set apart for pointers, and the latter for setters. The meet on Wednesday was at the Mile House, near Aston, on Capt. Lloyd's ground. The weather was fine, and in the early part of the morning, notwithstanding the sun, the scent was fair; but, as the day drew on, it got bad, and was worse later on in the afternoon. The wind, too, died out, so that the dogs had many disadvantages to contend against. Birds were plentiful, and there was a good quantity of thick lying.

3rd, Marquis of Westminster's Pluto.

Nell and Bess were put down in a clover field. Nell made three points and Bess two; but then the latter chased a hare, and Nell won. After some work in a very bare field, in which Fang and Tilly had a point each, the latter put up some birds, and Fang won. Pax refused to back Viscount, and then put up a brace of birds, and Viscount won easily. Pluto and Cobb were the next two down; the latter made a false point and chased a hare, and the flag went up for Pluto, who had not committed himself. Mars made a good point, and Bess, who was very fast, and only just over the distemper, did not back; she then chased some birds, and the flag went up for Mars. Nell made a good point, and Fang backed her, and then Fang pointed and Nell backed; and after some more even work, in which both flushed birds, Fang flushed again, and Nell won. Viscount and Pluto then tried conclusions, and the latter, who seemed inclined to potter, flushed some birds, when Viscount, who did his work in good style, making a point, won. Viscount was then put down with Nell, and pointed well, and she backed; he then made two more points, in which she backed very well, and the flag went up for Viscount, who thus won first prize, the second being awarded to Nell, and the third to Pluto.

Mars made a false point, and Joke backed him after awhile, but not well; the latter then flushed a brace, and Mars won. Priam and Rock then came together, and made false points. Priam then flushed a brace, but soon after made a capital point, and the other backed him. Priam next stood a hare, which Rock chased, and after another point to the credit of Mr. Whitehouse's dog, the flag went up for Priam. Rap and Monarch began by making a simultaneous point at a brace of birds; Rap then made a false point, the other backing well, but the former again made a good point and Monarch a false one; the latter then flushed some birds, and Rap, who stood a hare, won. Priam stood and Bang backed, and there seemed nothing, but after the judges had gone on, a leveret was started by Mr. Whitehouse. Priam then stood a bird well, and Bang shortly after pointed where the bird got up. In crossing a field Priam was some distance ahead of his master, and, as a hare started up before him, he made a shot at it, but, on being called, quickly came to heel. Priam then found a hare in some thick clover, and Bang flushed a brace of birds, and, going over a low hedge into the next field, took Priam with him. The flag then went up, to the astonishment of everyone, for Bang. Rap was awarded first prize for the points he gained in his course with Monarch, and Mars and Monarch then tried for second honours, when Monarch made a false point, Mars backing him. Mars then made a most excellent point in a small grass meadow, and won the second prize, Monarch taking third.

3rd, Mr. S. Beckett's Lassie.

Lassie made a point, and Helen rushed in and took it, when the flag went up for Lassie. Juno commenced by chasing, and Jenny then made a good point well under a hedge; some birds were run up in the next field, and the flag went up for Juno. Pride, a very fast bitch, was just steadyding herself in a grass field, when a pheasant rose, and, making a point at a brace of birds directly afterwards, she won from Jill, who had not a chance. Doll and Flame, the latter being a very fast and compactly-formed bitch, by Mr. Leighton's Ben out of Bessie, were then put together, and they flushed some birds. Flame then pointed a hare, and Doll not backing, the flag went up for Flame. Bell and Lilly were the next couple, the latter being a small, mean-looking white bitch, but a very good worker. Bell made a point, and Lilly, who was coming up, turned and backed splendidly. Lilly then made a good point, and the other backed very well, these two doing the prettiest work seen as yet. Both stood a hare, and soon after Lilly pointed birds in some long grass, and won. Lassie pointed twice, and Blanche backed her well, and then both ran up some birds; Blanche then stood some birds quite close, and seemed inclined to chase, but was put down by her owner, and the flag went up for Lassie. Juno and Pride were the next two, and, as Juno made a good point and Pride ran in, Juno won. Lilly and Flame next competed; Lilly made a false point, Flame ran into the birds, and Lilly dropped. Flame then made a very pretty point, and Lilly backed very nicely, but the flag went up for Flame, who took first prize. Juno and Lassie then tried conclusions, and Juno, getting a point, won second prize, and Lassie, getting three points, beat Lilly for third prize.

ACTON REYNALD STAKES, braces, for dogs and bitches, 5*l.* 5*s.* each entry;

Mr. J. H. Whitehouse's Joke and Priam	0
Mr. F. S. Arkwright's Bess and Topsy	0

Bess and Topsy were first put down, but, chasing a hare, were taken up. Mars and Bang found a single bird, and, though they were down some time and worked well together, made no more points. Rex and Queen flushed, and chased some birds. Joke and Priam stood and backed at what seemed to be a false point, but nothing was started, though Mr. Whitehouse looked about; but after the dogs had gone a short distance, a hare stole away. The performances in the braces were by no means good, and the prize was awarded, no doubt, rather for negative than affirmative merit, but the badness of the scent no doubt caused this.

CHAMPION SWEEPSTAKES, 3*l.* 3*s.* each.

Mr. Barclay Field's Rex, 4 yrs., beat Viscount Downe's Mars.

A long trial, which did not finish until nearly half-past seven o'clock, terminated in the award of the stake to Rex, whose style was considered superior to that of Mars, as there was little opportunity of testing their comparative merits in any other way.

SETTERS.

There was almost a larger attendance to see the setters perform than there was on Wednesday, and amongst the spectators was Mr. Laverack, this being the first time he had witnessed any field trials. The weather was fine, and more cloudy than on the preceding day, and there was a nice refreshing breeze, which proved alike useful to the dogs and grateful to the spectators, and the scent was perhaps better than before. Birds were plentiful at first, but were scarce in the afternoon. There was plenty of covert. The proceedings commenced soon after 9.30 with the Peer drew on some birds which Nell put up, and both chased, and, as in the next field both broke fence, they were taken up. Thane and Juno, when put down in a wheat field, flushed a brace of birds and took no notice. Juno in the next field put up a brace, and Thane, dropping well, the flag went up for him. Soon after Marvel and Jessie were put down; Jessie got a point, and, as the birds rose and the gun fired, Marvel jumped, and the flag went up for Jessie. In the next brace Rock, going down wind, turned and made a false point, Judith backing well; the latter then put up a brace, and chased a short distance, Rock running right away. Rock then stood a brace, and, Judith backing well, the flag went up for her. Carl and Fred put up a single bird, and then a hare; the latter then put up a brace, but did not drop, and Carl, backing well, won. Joe put up a brace and chased them, Moll dropping. Joe then flushed another brace, and again stood a brace, Moll backing; he then stood another brace and won. Di made a false point, and Thane stood a lark, Di backing; Di then made a false point, and Thane backed. Thane then stood where a brace had got up, and the flag went up for him. Jessie made a false point, and Judith backed; the latter then drew on some birds and put them up, and Jessie won. Carl drew some birds which had run, and Joe, going very fast up wind, stood a brace in excellent form, and won. Jessie and Joe then fought their battle out, and, as Joe put up birds and would not drop to hand, the flag went up for Jessie, who won first prize, Joe taking second. Judith and Thane then competed for third prize; she started a hare, and behaved well, and then made a steady point at a single bird in excellent form, the other backing, and the flag went up for Judith.

III.

1st, Mr. T. Statter's Rob Roy.
 2nd, Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Dick.
 3rd, Mr. J. Bishop's Duke.

Lang soon pointed a single bird, and Duke backed, but rushed in and put it up. In the next field, which was fallow, Duke having been taken up, Lang made an excellent point, and close to some tall garlic Duke pointed and Lang backed, and both drew into the high clover, where a covey rose; the flag then went up for Lang. Mr. Price's Don, when put down with Drake, made a false point, which the other backed, and this happened again; both dogs then put up birds, but after this Don made a good point and won. The next course, between Dick and Rob Roy, was looked forward to with great interest, and universal disappointment and dissatisfaction were expressed at its result, as nearly every one was of opinion that the trial was not sufficiently long to show the merits of each animal. Dick soon after being put down made a point where some birds had just risen; but the dogs were sent over ground that had just been beaten. In the next field Rob Roy made a point, Dick not being near; the former then ran up a bird up wind, his pace seeming rather too fast for his nose, and, though both dropped beautifully, the flag, to the astonishment of all, went up for Rob Roy. The trial between Lang and Mr. Armstrong's Don seemed also unsatisfactory, as both flushed birds down wind, and Lang, being considered most in fault, was put out. Rob Roy and Mr. Price's Don were then put down and soon taken up, and the first prize was awarded to Rob Roy, but for what we could not see. Mr. Armstrong's Don and Dick were then put down in a fallow, and Dick pointed well, the other backing, and Dick won. Duke and Dick were then put down, and Dick pointed well in some tall grass, Duke backing; the former then ran into birds down wind, and Duke made a point; Dick then got another and won. The first prize was awarded to Rob Roy (for pace perhaps), the second to Dick, and the third to Duke.

Rose beat Bloom. | Countess beat Blanche. | Duchess beat Nellie.

III.

1st, Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's Duchess, 2 yrs. 10 mos.

2nd, Mr. Thos. Statter's Rose.

3rd, Mr. J. Bishop's Una.

Rose and Una were the first brace put down for the Shrewsbury Stakes, and the latter, a small white bitch, showed a marvellous nose; several times she seemed to be pointing false, when she really was scenting birds a long way off, and, no doubt, got discredit for it. As it was, she seemed superior to Rose in nose, pace, and backing, although the flag ultimately went up for the latter when Bishop walked up a brace of birds. Blanche made a point, and Sarah backed her, but not in good form, and Blanche won. Duchess made a point, and Bee backed her; but the birds did not rise till some time after they had resumed beating. Duchess then made a false point, and, after making a good point, chased her birds, and won. Countess went off at a great pace, and found a brace at once at the bottom of a grass field, out of sight of the judges; but their attention was soon called to her. Bess backed and ran in, and took the point, and the flag went up for Countess. Nellie and Ruby were then put down, and Nellie soon made a point, Ruby refusing to back, but the birds did not rise; when they had gone on, a brace got up under the hedge, and as they were what Nellie stood at, and the judges saw them rise, the flag went up for Nellie, Ruby having made a false point. Bloom and Rose were the next brace. Bloom flushed a brace, and dropped well; Rose made two false points, and Bloom then took a point, and Rose put up the birds. Bloom then pointed through the hedge, on the other side Rose drew, and, standing well, won. Countess and Blanche then tried conclusions; the former stood some birds running, and the other, crossing her, backed. But it seemed as if each was standing separately; two birds got up some distance apart, one before each dog, and the flag went up for Countess. Nellie, when down with Duchess, pointed a brace, and Duchess backed well, though a long way off. Nellie then pointed again, and the other, putting up the birds, both chased. Duchess then made a grand point, and Nellie, not backing, was awarded first prize without further trial, which gave rise to much comment; the second prize was given to Rose, also without further trial. Countess and Una were the next brace, and were down for third prize, and the contrast between the style of the two dogs was very great. Countess, going very fast down wind, made the first mistake she committed during the day, but, as usual, dropped to wing beautifully; Una potted towards the hedge, and stood a hare, for which performance the flag went up in token of her victory, and the third prize was awarded to Una.

Bruce and Kate were put down in a thick piece of seed; Bruce pointed, and Kate backed well, the quartering of the two dogs being excellent. Bruce then made two very good points, and Kate backed splendidly, the performances being a treat to witness. Rob Roy and Rose were then put down, and the latter pointed in some wheat; but Rob Roy refused to back, and would not drop, even when called on. Drake and Duchess performed so indifferently that the second prize was given to Rob Roy and Rose, the first, of course, going to Bruce and Kate.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn withdrew his two braces, Countess and Nellie and Dick and Royal, and Mr. R. J. Ll. Price also withdrew his Don and Bee, in consequence of their dissatisfaction at the award of the judges in the Shrewsbury Stakes.

Bruce and Rob Roy were put down in a large field of clover, and both worked in good style; but Rob Roy's pace, being greater than that of Bruce, enabled him to find two brace of birds, and the flag went up for Mr. Statter's dog. Duchess and Rob Roy were then put down in a field of wheat, when the pace of the latter again served him, and he pointed in grand style a brace of birds, the bitch backing him at the distance of a hundred yards. A second point was then made by the dog, the bitch again backing him, and the flag went up for the former.

1872.—VAYNOL.

Judges.—Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., Lower Eatington-park, Stratford-on-Avon; Mr. J. H. Walsh, The Cedars, Putney; and Mr. W. Lort, The Cotteridge, King's Norton.

These trials took place on the 24th and 25th of September, 1872.

For the third year in succession Mr. Assheton Smith had placed his magnificent Vaynol estate at the disposal of the committee; and again his liberality had been rewarded by a capital entry. In all the stakes the first prize consisted of the cup and two-thirds of the entry money, the second of one-third less; a small deduction for expenses in each case.

BANGOR STAKES, of 5*l.* 5*s.* each, with 10*l.* plate added by Mr. Thomas Smith.

Mr. Whitehouse's Priam and Blanche	} beat {	Mr. T. Statter's Viscount and Belle .
Mr. Ll. Price's Belle and Judy ...		Mr. Macdona's Squire and Doll .
Mr. Hemming's Brevet and Appleby (a bye).

II.

1st, Mr. Ll. Price's Belle and Judy.

2nd, Mr. Whitehouse's Priam and Blanche.

The first brace put down were Viscount and Belle, both of whom were unsteady on fur, the dog showing that tendency very early, but, being checked by his keeper, he stopped. After pointing some birds very well in turnips, both got on a hare and chased for a long distance, Viscount then, in some rough grass, found well; but the bitch, not backing him, was penalised for that defect by having ten negative points deducted, reducing their score very considerably. Mr. Price's brace were then put down, and at once behaved very steadily among the hares. Belle's pace was so great that poor Judy had little chance of getting a point from her; but she did once manage to do so, and was beautifully backed by her companion. During the half-hour Belle stood four or five hares, and dropped beautifully to them all, doing credit to her breaker. During this trial each made a false point, but hares were afoot in all directions. It was a long time after Priam and Blanche were thrown off before either could get on game, but at length the dog found on the edge of a piece of swedes, and was steadily backed by the bitch. This was repeated two or three times, with hares crossing occasionally, both behaving very steadily with them, and then they were supplanted by Mr. Macdona's merry little brace, which worked most independently together, and found their game in good style, but neither was steady behind, the bitch being especially defective, and at the very first point made by Squire (a clever one down wind) took it off him, and put the birds up. This jealousy she displayed again and again, the dog being also unsteady behind, but not so much so. But for this defect they would have beaten Mr. Whitehouse's brace, having more pace, and being also more stylish and independent in their hunting. The last of the braces was Mr. Hemming's, which was very unsteady on fur, and, though otherwise pretty well broken, yet this defect condemned them to the ranks, the result being that Mr. Price's brace were placed first, and Mr. Whitehouse's second, Mr. Macdona being close up.

VAYNOL STAKES, of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, with 10*l.* plate added. by Mr. R. Ll. Purcell-Llewellyn.

II.

Mr. Whitehouse's Priam beat Mr. Hemming's Brevet.

The afternoon was boisterous, and the ground also not so good as in the morning. Priam was led off by Viscount after a hare, which seemed to warm up the old dog; and he improved in pace very considerably, so much so as to leave little doubt as to his being placed first, his only remaining competitor being Mr. Hemming's Brevet, who had, like the other two, previously appeared in the braces. The three were, to save time, put down together before the expiration of the first half-hour, soon after which Viscount made a false point in some seeds, which settled his chance, the two lemon and whites being left to fight it out, which they did with varying success, each alternately making a point; but Priam then made two pretty ones together, which decided the first prize in his favour, Brevet being second.

COUNTY STAKES of 3*l.* 3*s.* each, with 10*l.* plate added by the proprietors of Spratt's Patent Meat Fibrine Dog Cakes.

Mr. Ll. Price's liv. w Belle ,, Mr. Macdona's, lem. w Doll.

II.

Mr. Ll. Price's Belle beat Mr. Whitehouse's Blanche.

Mr. Price's Belle distinguished herself greatly in this stake by her superior pace and style, but the country beaten was so wild that few points were got, those taken, however, being mainly by her. Mr. Statter's Belle again chased fur, while Doll was constantly behind, and Blanche outpaced by the crack, which ultimately was placed first, with Blanche second.

Wednesday.

A tremendous thunderstorm, accompanied by heavy rain during the night, was followed by strong winds all day; and, though there was little or no rain, the weather had been and was too boisterous to allow the birds to sit out in the open.

PENTIR STAKES, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each, with 5*l.* plate added by Mr. Ellis Nanney.

Mr. Whitehouse's lem. w Pax ... beat Mr. Price's liv. w Judy.

Mr. Statter's lem. w Musgrave... ,, Mr. Macdona's lem. w Squire.

Mr. Hemming's liv. w Appleby (a bye).

II.

Mr. Statter's Musgrave and Mr. Hemming's Appleby divided.

Pax and Judy began on a nice piece of seeds, which they drew blank, but soon afterwards, in a small batch of potatoes, the dog flushed some birds, Judy dropping well to feather. The dog then repeated this exploit, but hunting in fine style, while Judy merely followed his lead; there could be no doubt as to his being less defective than the bitch, Musgrave and Squire on being put down were a long time without finding, Mr. Macdona's dog being very wild and chasing fur badly, causing his owner wisely to draw him, and thus save valuable time. Pax also was drawn, as Mr. Whitehouse saw that he was not sufficiently broken to have a chance of winning. Appleby and Musgrave were now left to contest the prizes, but neither of them was quite A 1. Musgrave would no doubt have won off-hand if he had not left a point at a single bird, and then soon afterwards repeated the same blinking trick with a hare. This made him so level with Appleby that the judges could not decide, and the two were bracketed together as equal.

BODFEL STAKES, of 5*l.* 5*s.* each, with 10*l.* plate added by Mr. J. H. Whitehouse.

Mr. Llewellyn's Marvel and Plunket beat Mr. Statter's Rob Roy and Belton.

Mr. Llewellyn's Countess and Nellie (a bye).

II.

1st, Mr. Llewellyn's Countess and Nellie.

2nd, Mr. Llewellyn's Marvel and Plunket.

Marvel and Plunket went beautifully together, and each did some pretty work till towards the end of their time, when Plunket, making a point, Marvel drew by him and put the birds up. This of course penalised them ten points. Belton refused to back Rob Roy, and also flushed a covey up wind, which put them hors de combat. Countess and Nellie, going in fine style, made no mistake whatever, and, being credited with their full quota of points, were made the winners without dispute.

BOROUGH STAKES, of 3l. 3s. each, with 10l. plate added by Mr. S. Lang.

Mr. Statter's bk w Rob Roy beat Mr. Macdona's bk tan Lang.

Mr. Llewellyn's r Marvel (dr.).

After half an hour's trial, with all three down, Marvel was drawn, and the two left in were bracketed for future trial, if time permitted. On Thursday, on being put down again, Rob Roy just managed to win by a mere trifle, the only good point being made by him. None went in first-class form.

CARNARVON STAKES, 3l. 3s. each, 10l. plate added, presented by T. Statter, Esq.

Lord Clarence Paget's liv. w Bess beat Mr. Llewellyn's bk tan w Ruby.

Mr. Llewellyn's bk w Nellie „ Mr. Statter's bk w Darling.

Mr. Llewellyn's bk w Countess (a bye).

1st, Mr. Llewellyn's Nellie.

2nd, Mr. Llewellyn's Countess.

Ruby was uneasy and would not hunt off regularly, allowing Bess to make one or two nice points and win easily. Statter's Darling was very unsteady, refusing to back Nellie, and also flushing birds. Countess, Bess, and Nellie were then put down together; but there was not time nor ground to finally decide their merits.

Thursday.

Carnarvon Stakes (continued): The three bitches, Bess, Nellie, and Countess were first put down together, but it was soon evident that the estimate of Bess's pace formed by the judges was not a correct one, as she showed herself considerably slower when fairly tried in some larger fields; she, however, did some pretty work, but Mr. Llewellyn's bitches were too good for her, and she was taken up, leaving these two to fight it out. After a short trial, on casting up their points they were found even, but as Nellie had shown more nose, and had gone unusually fast for her in this trial, she was declared the winner.

DINORWIC STAKES, 3l. 3s. each, with 5l. plate added by the Proprietors of the Field Newspaper.

Mr. Bishop's bk w b Judith beat Mr. Llewellyn's r w b Fairy.

Mr. Macdona's r d Music ... „ Mr. Statter's bk w b Bess.

Mr. Llewellyn's r d Marvel against Mr. Pilkington's (absent).

1st, Macdona's Music.

2nd, Mr. Bishop's Judith.

Fairy began by breaking fence, and increased her offence by failing to find a covey of birds in some clover a few yards beyond. These got up when the dogs were put in, both dogs dropping well, and also at fur soon afterwards. Fairy, however, was outpaced, and, after the usual trial, Judith was declared the winner. Music, going in fine form and very merrily, drew a good field of clover blank, and, indeed, nothing was found by her or Bess; but, nevertheless, the difference in pace and style was so great as to force a decision. Marvel and Music were then put down together, and afterwards Music and Bess; but very poor trials could be obtained. At last Music made two fine points in some turnips, which gave her the first prize, Judith being a good second.

CHAMPION PLATE, value 10*l.*, given by Mr. Hemming, for the best dog (pointer or setter).

For this the judges selected Belle and Priam (pointers), and Countess and Nellie (setters), which were drawn together as follows:—

Belle beat Nellie. | Countess beat Priam.

II.

Countess beat Belle, and won.

For these important trials some fine open fields were obtained, in order to try the question of pace, which had been hotly disputed. In her trial with Belle Nellie did not show to advantage, Mr. Buckell, who worked all Mr. Llewellyn's dogs in beautiful style, appearing to keep her too much back, as if afraid of her showing jealousy with a strange dog. Anyhow, she went so slow as compared with Belle that, though little or nothing was done in the way of nose, there could be no doubt, after more than an hour's trial, that she had little chance, and she was reserved for subsequent events; but, as Countess first beat Priam for pace, and then Belle for nose, this was needless, especially as Countess went faster than she had previously done at these trials. For a long time Belle's sweeping stride seemed to show her slightly superior to Countess in pace, but when they left off there was very little difference between them. Belle also made several false points, while Countess only once made this mistake; and at last Belle, flushing a large covey, while immediately afterwards Countess found a small one beautifully, the decision was given in her favour.

KEEPERS' PRIZES.

A PURSE OF 5*l.*, presented to the keeper (hunting his employer's dogs) who, in the opinion of the judges, hunted his dogs quietest and best during the trials. Divided between Austin and Thurtell.

A GOLD WHISTLE (value 3*l.* 3*s.*), presented by Mr. A. J. Handy to the keeper who, in the opinion of the judges, hunted his dogs (were they his employer's or his own) quietest and best during the trials. Awarded to Bishop.

A SILVER-MOUNTED WHIP (value 2 guineas), presented to the keeper who, in the opinion of the judges, hunted his retriever or retrievers in the quietest and most masterly manner. Awarded to Parr.

The retrievers' performances were very mediocre, with the exception of Cato's. He, however, retrieved several running birds, as well as a brace, in good style. Birds were so scarce that it was difficult to judge of the merits of these dogs, and it took nearly three days to settle the pretensions of the old ones, in whose stake a division at last was compulsory, on that account.

1873.—DEVON AND CORNWALL.

President.—Mr. S. T. Kekewich, M.P.

Judges.—Messrs. E. Shirley, M.P., and J. H. Walsh.

These trials took place on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of April, 1873. On the last year there were plenty of birds in Cornwall, but the venue being changed to Devon, there was a difficulty in getting good ground, and it was only the offer by Mr. Scratton of his fine estate that enabled the committee to carry out their programme. It was no doubt a grand place for pheasants, but it was not partridge land at all, and was by no means calculated for spring trials. Fortunately the weather was fine, though the scent was by no means good. In addition to the paucity of game, the fields were very small, seldom more than five acres in extent, and bounded by banks so high that ladders were provided to surmount them. On Monday the fixture was at Ramsey Marble Quarry, about two miles from Newton Abbott.

Mr. G. Lowe's w bk tan b Rhoda against Mr. R. Ll. P. Llewellyn's r d Kite.

Mr. R. Garth's w bk d Rob....., Mr. J. Bennett's w r b Countess.

Mr. G. Lowe's Rhoda won.

Kite and Rhoda were down for more than an hour before the bitch made a point, the dog never throughout a two hours' trial once getting on game; another point was, however, at last got from him by his lady companion, and, as he did not back her in nice style, and failed to find game in a second opportunity offered him with Countess, he was put out in favour of Rhoda, who was subsequently declared the winner. In the interval Rob and Countess had a tiresome trial, the bitch working merrily, but failing to meet with birds, while Rob was lucky enough to drop on them, although scarcely ever leaving his breaker more than a hundred yards. The trials were all most unsatisfactory, but still Rhoda displayed so much goodness at all points that there could be no doubt as to her superiority.

OGWELL STAKES, with a 10*l.* cup, added, for all-aged dogs or bitches, each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner; open to the world; 3*l.* 3*s.* each.

Mr. Barclay Field's bk tan b } against { Mr. F. R. Bevan's Bruce and Kate and w bk tan b Rose... } w bk t Belton

Mr. R. Ll. P. Llewellyn's w bk d Prince and w bk tan b Ruby.

Mr. Bevan's Bruce and Belton won.

Each of the braces in this stake was down for some time without enabling the judges to decide, as there was a glaring defect prevalent in all cases, consisting in one dog doing all the work while the other was pottering about. Kate was far gone in pup, which made her very slow, but nevertheless she managed to get a couple of points, while Rose, though ranging in good style, never came on game. Belton went fast, and displayed good nose and staunchness, but Bruce, though backing him beautifully, seemed useless in finding game. Prince, said to be as fast as his sister, Countess, worked like a clumber spaniel, neither he nor Ruby getting a point, but the bitch going as fast as ever. The consequence was that, to save time, the decision was put off till Rose was put down again in the Newton Stakes, so as to give her an opportunity of showing her nose. In this second trial she proved herself to be above the average, but not of such a character as to detract from the merit (comparatively) of Mr. Bevan's brace, who were adjudged the winners.

NEWTON STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added, for single dogs or bitches, open to the world, 2*l.* 2*s.* each.

Mr. A. P. Lonsdale's w bk d } Clown	} against Mr. W. Lort's w b Juno .
Mr. R. Ll. P. Llewellyn's r b } May
	{ Mr. F. R. Bevan's w bk d Belton.

Mr. Barclay Field's w bk tan b Rose.

Mr. Lort's Juno, by Roll, won.

Juno and Clown were a very near match, each flushing birds and also finding very well. Their pace was nearly the same, the dog having a trifling advantage, but showing a bad style of going, and not being so steady on his point, or so thoroughly broken in other respects. At last, in a fine piece of seeds, the bitch made a good point, but the dog rushing in and putting up the birds, the decision went against him on that score, It being now nearly seven o'clock, the remainder of the stake was postponed until Tuesday.

Tuesday.

The meet was at East Ogwell, on a vast tract of country of the same character as that of the first day, but with even a smaller stock of birds, if that was possible. There was even a worse scent than the previous day's, and very few good points were made, those by Duke and Scamp being, however, exceedingly fine. The first brace put down was the second pair in the Newton Stakes, May and Belton. Each flushed birds at first, but Belton afterwards found well, and his superior pace and style, after a longish trial, put the bitch hors de combat. Rose also went but moderately, and at last, Juno and Belton being left in with an equal number of points, the two were put down together to fight it out. For some time nothing was done, Juno getting on pheasants and standing them steadily, but not in good style, while the dog flushed a brace of birds under a hedge without much demerit, but he also broke fence several times, which decided the fiat against him, and Juno was declared the winner.

SPRATT'S POINTER PUPPY STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup given by Spratt's Biscuit Company, for single dogs or bitches whelped in 1872; open to the world, at 2*l.* 2*s.* each.

Mr. R. Garth's w liv. b Doll beat Mr. E. Bishop's w lem. d Don.

Mr. S. Price's w liv. d Pat.

Mr. Garth's Doll, by Statter's Major—Garth's Gill, won.

Doll, after a long trial, beat Don, who at first worked merrily, but soon became very slack. She then came against Pat, and, after some time lost on bad ground, found some birds well, which Pat flushed, after refusing to back her, and absolutely rushing in to take the point from her.

WOLBOROUGH STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added, for setters, single dogs or bitches, owners resident in Devon or Cornwall; 1*l.* 1*s.* each entry.

Mr. C. Bulteel's r d Don against { Capt. de Burgho Hodge's w lem. d Duke.

Mr. W. Cubitt's w liv. d Scamp... ,, Mr. V. Calmady's w lem. b Pet.
Mr. Cubitt's Scamp, by Danger, won.

Duke was too fast for Don, and also showed more nose. He then came against Scamp, who, though not so fast, showed an equally good nose, while Duke refused to back him. Pet was put down with Rose, but, being unsteady behind, was put out, Scamp being declared the winner without a second trial.

Wednesday.

The meet this day was at Ingsdon Mill, in order to beat Capt. Munro's estate, which had certainly more birds in proportion to its extent than that of Mr. Scratton. At first the dogs made some good points in some seed and wheat, but the limits of this kind of ground were soon reached, and the judges had some difficulty in making up their minds, for want of sufficient game.

Bishop, Mr. Scratton's keeper, exerted himself to the utmost to beat and to show sport; but, having had a bad season the last year, he could not do impossibilities, and all that could be done was to make the best of what he had.

HACCOMBE STAKES, with a 10*l.* cup added, for pointers (braces), dogs or bitches, open to the world; 3*l.* 3*s.* each.

Mr. Barclay Field's w liv. d } against { Mr. S. Price's w liv. d Bang, Monarch, and w liv. b Lassie } and w liv. d Pat.

Mr. Field's Monarch and Lassie won.

Monarch and Lassie had a short trial, and showed a good average, the dog being too fast for the bitch, and finding his birds in fine style. Bang and Pat were then put down; the old dog showed a good nose, and going a fair pace, but the young one simply played second fiddle, and hence the decision went against them as a brace.

FORD STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added, for pointers, single dogs or bitches, open to the world; at 2*l.* 2*s.* each.

Mr. J. Bennett's w lem. d Hamlet against Mr. A. Lonsdale's w liv. d Cob.

Mr. J. Whitehouse's w lem. d } { Mr. Barclay Field's w liv. d Pax } " { Monarch.

Mr. W. Lort's w b Lill.

Mr. W. Whitehouse's Pax, by Priam, won; Hamlet and Cob were unlucky in being put down on bad ground, which neither liked; and they went to work in so pottering a style that, after a time, they were taken up without a decision, in the hope of seeing something better. On putting down Monarch with Pax, the former made several false points, after which, in feeling for the scent, he flushed a brace of birds, which he ought to have found, in consequence of which he was taken up, and Pax was left to finish his work with Lill. The bitch was, however, out-paced, and, not showing her nose to any great advantage, as she made a false point in seeds, the decision went in favour of Pax. He was a smooth, fast galloper, and went in fine style up to his game.

TORQUAY STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added, for pointers, single dogs or bitches, owners resident in Devon or Cornwall.

Mr. J. Brackenbury's liv. t b	}	against	{	Mr. E. Bishop's w lem. d
Romp				Rock .
Mr. J. Bennett's w. lem. d Ham-	}	"	{	Mr. S. Price's w liv. d
let				Bang .

Mr. Bennett's Romp won.

Romp first of all disposed of Rock, who was short of work, owing to a bad bite through the knee, but who went well, subject to that allowance. Bang was then a trifle better than Hamlet, who showed to greater advantage than in the previous trial, probably owing to the superior nature of the ground, but was unlucky in missing game. Bang and Romp were then put down, when the superior pace of the bitch just served her, and she won by $2\frac{1}{2}$ points only.

On the next page will be found the score made by each dog, as copied from the judge's books by the Field reporter:—

1873.—SHREWSBURY.

President.—Viscount Combermere.

Judges.—The Hon. R. C. Hill, Messrs. J. H. Arkwright, and F. R. Bevan.

These trials took place on the 30th of April and the 1st and 2nd of May. The meet on the first day—which was set apart for the Pointer Trials—was fixed for Wrenbury Station, about twenty-three miles from Shrewsbury, and this necessitated a very early start from the last-named town, as the first event on the card was set for half-past nine o'clock. As it was birds were very scarce indeed, although the quantity of hares was enormous, and the consequent vagaries of the dogs innumerable. There was a fair amount of covert, but not so much as in 1872, and the weather was fine and dry, although the wind being from the eastward made the scent bad, and the rain which had fallen overnight was so slight as to have done but little good.

II.

Macgregor beat Mr. Statter's liv. w d Dick, 13 mos.

III.

Rector beat Pride, and won; 2nd, Pride; and 3rd, Macgregor.

Macgregor and Roman Fall were put down in a clover field, and after several indecisive points on both sides, Roman Fall chased a hare, and Macgregor won. Brighton and Noble were the next brace, and Brighton stood at a spot where a brace of birds had risen a few minutes previously, but the judges were over a hill, and did not see this; each dog then alternately pointed where birds had got up, and after one or two false points, and an exhibition on the part of both of an inclination to chase hares, Brighton flushed a bird under a hedge, and the flag went up for Noble. Rector and Grecian Bend were the next brace, and when some birds got up the former dropped at once, the other running wild. Rector then found a brace in grand style in a hollow, and Grecian Bend backed and rushed in, but as Rector moved slightly the judges awarded a dead heat. Pride and Carch were then put down, and after alternately pointing and backing, Carch stood a brace, which he had nosed a long way off, well, but, being badly handled by his keeper, turned his tail to them, and on the birds rising the flag went up for Pride, who had backed well. Dick, who showed great pace was then matched against Macgregor, who exhibited form far superior to that of his first essay. In some rough stuff over the canal he nosed some birds, but not being quite sure of them left them, and they rose shortly afterwards. As they ran down wind Dick passed a bird, but, Macgregor, just scenting it, flushed it, and dropped at once. After some rather long and indecisive work Macgregor stood a brace well and won. Rector and Grecian Bend then fought their battle out, and, the former pointing very well and the latter taking no notice, the Rector won. Rector then scored a point at a hare against Pride, the latter showing an inclination to chase, and the red flag went up for Rector. Soon after, as the judges considered Pride had flushed a bird though many took it to be a fieldfare, they placed them in the following order: Rector, first; Pride, second; and Macgregor, third.

Mars and Ponto were the first down, and the former flushed some birds in wheat, but there was very little covert. Mars then pointed and Ponto backed, and a brace rose; Mars then pointed false, and Ponto backed and soon after broke fence. A stoppage now took place for lunch, after which the trial was resumed, and Mars again found, and Ponto after a while backed; the latter soon after flushed a brace, and the flag went up for Mars. Viscount and Drake were the next two down, and Drake pointed a hare, but as his action was better than that of Viscount, who appeared stiff, the flag, after an undecided tie, went up for the former. Noble and Cob were then put down in some clover, and Noble pointed several hares in tolerable style. At the top of the field there was a small piece of turnips, and Noble stood a pheasant, the other backing, although it appeared to the spectators that the two pointed almost simultaneously with the rise of the bird. Noble then stood a hare in some thin wheat, and, the other backing in good style, the flag went up for Noble. Castro and Squire were the next brace, and the latter soon flushed three brace of birds, as he appeared quite wild; soon after this he chased a hare, and, running very fast and jealous, flushed a bird in some long wheat; he then, however, pointed a hare in good farm, and Castro backed, and the flag went up for Squire. Duke and Monarch were then put down, and the latter pointed well, and a brace of birds got up behind him; he then stood whence a hare had started up, Duke on neither occasion backing. The latter, however, then stood a hare and chased it, and the flag soon after went up for Monarch. Mars then competed with Monarch, and as the latter chased a hare and flushed a brace of birds, whilst Mars behaved well, the flag went up for the last-named. Drake and Cob were then put down, and the former stood a hare well, whilst the latter was unsteady, and the flag went up for Drake.

Wednesday.

The meet for the second day was at Burley Dam, at the same time as on Tuesday, and necessitated a five-mile drive from Whitechurch Station. There was a trifle more wind than on the preceding day, but there was not much sun. The weather nevertheless continued fine until two o'clock, when rain commenced to fall, and continued without intermission until half-past six o'clock. The sport commenced with Mr. Price's Belle beat Mr. Roberts's June, and won.

The first brace were put down in some short wheat, and Duck pointed a hare, the other not seeing her did not back. Belle, whose pace was good, but hardly equal to that which she exhibited at Vaynol last autumn, then made a false point; after this, in the next field, which was heavy wheat, she pointed a hare, and as Duck chased it the flag went up for Belle. June, who was then put down with Drab, pointed where a hare had been, and soon afterwards, exhibiting great pace, she pointed again, but the keeper took her off her point, and four birds rose, which she had evidently scented. After a journey along the road for half a mile, they were put down again in a large field of long wheat, June pointing a lark and Drab backing; some birds which had risen had been marked down into a hedge, and as the two keepers who were hunting the pair were beckoned towards them, Roberts took his bitch, June, close up to the hedgerow, Drab having previously run up it at the distance of a few yards. June found the birds, the other backing, and the flag went up for June in consequence, which seemed rather hard upon Drab. After a rest Belle and June were again put down, and Belle pointed a man standing on some long grass, June backing; Belle then pointed a hare, and June dropped well. Some birds then rose which neither dog had scented, and the judges considering the style and pace of Belle much superior to that of June—though this was by no means evident from the trial—awarded the stake to Mr. Price's bitch, who was not up to her Vaynol form, though there might have been some excuse for her, as her owner said she would not take her food properly.

Dick and Viscount were first put down, but neither found anything, and, as they did not work well together, were soon taken up. Mars and Bounce were the next brace, and Mars pointed a hare, but did not drop as quietly as he should have done; nevertheless, he and his partner quartered their ground very fairly, perhaps the best of the whole of the braces. Monarch and Lassie were the next, and Monarch stood a brace of birds in perfect form under a hedge at the top of a field, this being the best point made during the whole meeting, and Lassie backed. The dog then found again well in the corner of the field, the bitch backing in good form. Grecian Bend and Belle then showed great pace, although they did not quarter their ground as they should have done. Belle pointed a hare, and the young one backed well. Mars and Bounce then had another essay, and Mars found well, Bounce backing in good form, and then Bounce found and Mars backed.

The judges then awarded first prize to Mr. Price's dogs, considering them superior in pace, nose, and style to the rest.

Nellie and Daisy were first down, when Nellie stood a hare, and Daisy backed her; and then took her point. Nellie then pointed in a large field of scanty wheat, and the other backed, when a hare stole away. Daisy, whose action, pace, and nose were exceptionally good, although she had only just had a litter of puppies, then stood a brace of birds in splendid style, and won. Rock and Ginx's Baby were down for a long time, the latter flushing a brace of birds very soon. After lunch they resumed their trial, and, as Rock chased a hare, Ginx's Baby was declared the winner. Gay and Brag were the next two, and the former, after breaking fence, behaved well, when some birds rose, and, as Brag disgraced himself by turning up a hare and rolling on the ground, Gay won. Daisy and Rock were then sent off; but the latter chased a hare, and was put out. Ginx's Baby then met Gay, when the former pointed a hare well, having shown great pace. Gay then chased a hare, and was put out, and the judges placed Daisy first, Ginx's Baby second, and Gay third.

Mr. S. Hargreave's bk t d } Cato		{ Mr. Armstrong's bk w d Duke , 1 yr. 9 mos.
Mr. B. Field's Rock (a bye).

Rob Roy behaved very well at a hare when first put down, and as Mr. Macdona's dog had a great reputation for pace, this trial was looked forward to with great interest. Ranger, however, started a hare, and after a second's hesitation gave chase, and Rob Roy following suit, a good course ensued, both dogs running through two fields, the superiority of Ranger's pace being very plain. Two other dogs were ordered down, and both the culprits were taken up when they were caught. In the next tie Don chased a hare, which it is doubtful if the judges saw, and then pointed one, Clown backing; the latter then made a false point, but soon after made a good point at some birds. They were then taken up and put down again afterwards. Don found a brace and dropped, Clown backing, and Don then pointed where birds had been; Don's style was the best, and he won. Lang and Rake were down for some time, and did nothing for a long while to distinguish themselves. Rake then pointed some geese, and Lang backed; the latter then pointed some birds under a hedge, and Rake backed, almost appearing to take the other's point. Rake then stood three hares which were sitting up, and Lang backed for a moment, and then gave chase, and consequently was put out. Cato and Duke were then put down, and both chased a hare, but Cato then standing another well, won. Rock and Cato were next: Rock going wide made a point at a hare, and Cato chased, and then pointed a brace of birds, and Cato ran in; so Rock won. Rake and Rock then competed, and Rock got a point at birds, the other backing; Rock then made several points at hares, both dogs quartering their ground beautifully. The judges decided that Rock and Rake were equal in merit, and awarded them the first prize, Don the second, and Clown third. To this Mr. Field naturally objected, claiming first and second prizes, as the dog had beaten both the others. In this, of course, he had every possible argument in his favour, the second being precisely analogous to a dead heat for a horse race, where the animal that is behind the dead heaters is placed third, and gets third money if there be any, the first and second stakes being put together and divided equally. Subsequently, however, the judges reviewed their decision, and awarded the first prize to Rock, leaving the second to Don and the third to Clown, a judgment almost as contradictory as the first one. The rain cleared up just as the last brace finished; but bade fair to improve the scent for the remaining events.

Thursday.

The wind had moderated, the sky cleared, and the sun shone brilliantly; and as the estate, which was kindly given by the Hon. Rowland Hill, one of the judges, abounded in birds, everything bade fair to make an enjoyable day, and the few who remained to see the finish of the sport were amply recompensed for the horrors of Tuesday and Wednesday.

	2nd, Mr. Roberts's Bess .

Judith and Bess were put down in some long wheat, and Judith almost immediately pointed, Bess taking her point away. Bess then pointed in good style, and Judith backed, both behaving exceedingly well, when the birds rose. Bess then pointed false, and Judith backed. Judith then found a brace in capital style, and, as Bess did not back, Judith won. In the next brace Rose pointed a brace, and Rum backed in good form. Rose then stood and drew on a brace of birds, which she flushed. Rum then pointed a brace, and Rose backed well; Rose then made a false point, and Rum backed, the former then pointed again, but Rum seemed doubtful, and would not back at first, but she did at last, and the point proved false. Rum then pointed a brace in fine style, the other backing, and the flag went up for Rum. Judith and Rum were then tried together, and Judith quickly pointed a hare. Judith then pointed another hare, which Rum, who had hitherto been doing well, chased, and Judith won. Bess and Rum were then put down to fight out the battle for second place, and Bess pointed a hare well, Rum backing. Bess then made a false point, and soon after put up a brace, but dropped well at them; she then pointed a single bird in good style, Rum backing. The latter then pointed and feathered up to a hedge, Bess backing; but the point proving false the second prize was given to Bess.

CHAMPION STAKES, a piece of plate value 20*l.*, for the best pointer and setter of all ages.

Marquis of Westminster's pointer Noble	} beat Mr. Bishop's setter Judith .
Mr. Barclay Field's setter Daisy
Mr. Bartlett's pointer Rector ...	" Mr. R. H. Price's pointer Belle .
Marquis of Westminster's pointer Noble	" Mr. Barclay Field's setter Rock .
	" Mr. Barclay Field's setter Rake .

II.

Mr. Field's setter Daisy beat Mr. Bartlett's pointer Rector, and won.

Noble and Judith were the first to compete, and were put down in some thick wheat, when Judith pointed a hare and Noble did the same as the hare crossed him. Judith then started a hare and was inclined to chase, but restrained herself. Noble next pointed and Judith followed suit, both apparently scenting the place from which some birds had just risen. Noble then pointed false, and the other backed. They both then pointed a brace, Judith appearing to have slightly the best of it, but the judges considered that Noble was the better in finding birds, and though no flag was hoisted, the two were taken up and Noble was given the palm.

Belle and Daisy were then put down in a grass field, and the trial of these two was regarded with unusual interest, as Mr. Price's champion bitch, from her performance on Wednesday, had shown that she was hardly up to her Vaynol form, either in nose or pace. She certainly ran fast at times, but her pace varied considerably and occasionally she was much inferior to Daisy. When first put down Daisy pointed a lark and Belle backed. A hare then got up and Belle dropped well; she then made two false points, and Daisy at a long distance backed her in good form. The latter then pointed a hare, and Belle again made a false point, going fast up wind, ran up a brace of birds; and when taken into the next field committed the same fault again. Both dogs then quartered their ground well, and Daisy stood as firm as a rock, scenting birds through an iron fencing, and her keeper going over the fence put up a single bird. Its mate rising soon after, the two were then taken up, the superiority of the setter being very apparent.

Rector and Rock were the next two down, and both going up wind, the pointer, who was in the rear, stood a brace of birds, and directly afterwards Rock winded them also, but running on flushed them; and, as he committed the same fault again, both dogs were taken up.

Noble and Rake then competed, and Rake dropped well at a hare. Noble then made a point at another hare, and the setter backed him. Noble next pointed a brace of birds, and Rake being some distance off did not back. They next tried some rushes, when Rake stood a brace, Noble backing him well. The field having been beaten, and the keepers neglecting to take their dogs up, the last-named then caught sight of a hare and made after it, but was put down by his keeper. A thick field of wheat was—after a half-mile walk along the road—tried next, when Noble offered to chase a hare; but, recollecting himself, dropped. Rake then flushed a bird, and Noble then followed suit shortly after; he then chased one, when his lameness was most apparent, as he was so stiff, he could not get up much of a pace. Both dogs were then taken up.

Rector and Daisy were then put down in another field of wheat, and the pointer made a splendid point, the setter following his example a moment later, both scenting the birds. The setter then running down wind, flushed a brace, but dropped in an instant. Daisy then stood a brace in beautiful form, the other being at the far side of the field. Daisy then made a point and drew slightly, Rector backing, and a lark got up, but inasmuch as a brace rose soon afterwards beyond the lark, but in the same direction, it seemed that she was really standing the birds. After this, whilst running down wind, she flushed another brace, but dropped directly. Both dogs were then put over some iron rails, into another and large field of wheat, which was full of birds, as they had been driven there by some men sent out to beat the adjoining fields. As soon as they were slipped the setter stood a brace, and the pointer followed suit directly afterwards, both pointing the same bird independently. Daisy then drew, and whilst doing so, Rector left his point; a bird then rose in front of Daisy, who directly afterwards pointed its mate, Rector at this time hunting on his account on the far side of the field. Daisy then stood a hare in capital form, and the pointer backed well. The latter then pointed a brace. Daisy next stood again the pointer not backing at all, and the setter left her point, so that for the second time she stood birds at an immense distance. She then stood again, and, as Young Bishop, who hunted her, did not walk on, she seemed to have made a false point, but this was not the case as a hare stole away shortly after. The setter then made a splendid point under a hedge, the pointer being a long distance off. Daisy then made a fine point, in which she was well backed by the pointer, both standing in good form, although that of Daisy was the better of the two. The judges then considered for a few moments, and awarded the prize to Daisy. The pointer showed good pace and nose, but his style on a point was not to be compared to that of the setter.

After luncheon Mr. Field's Rock and Rake were put down in a beautiful piece of clover, but as there were no birds in it they had a poor chance of distinguishing themselves. Rock made one steady point, but unfortunately it was at a brace of larks. In a second field of very good clover one bird was marked, and that they managed to flush. They were then taken up, and Bruce and Rose next put down, who commenced by flushing a brace of birds. A walk of three quarters of a mile reached another capital field of seeds, and immediately after being put down, Rose made a point at a couple of brace of birds, the old dog backing admirably. In working out the field, however, another bird was flushed by Bruce, but not intentionally. Another long walk came to some more clover, and Mr. Macdona's Lang and Ranger were sent off. Both went fast, and in good style; Ranger made a couple of false points, Lang refusing to back both times. Further on in a good piece of ground, Lang put up a brace of birds, taking not the slightest notice of them. Ranger then made a good point, Lang nearly galloping over him, but neither backing nor owning the scent. Beating the bottom of the field, he put up another brace of birds, after which he took poor Ranger's point from him. He then found a brace of birds by the hedgerow at the top of the field, and behaving himself very well for once. The judges then placed Mr. Field's Bruce and Rose first, and Mr. Macdona's Lang and Ranger second. We must not omit to mention that none of Mr. Purcell-Llewellyn's dogs, a few of whom were entered, took part in the trials, as they were all kept at home by illness. In addition to this, several kennels had nearly all their dogs down with kennel lameness.

1873.—BALA.

THESE trials of pointers and setters on grouse took place at Rhiwlas, near Bala, on the 14th, 15th, and 16th of August, 1873. Mr. R. J. Lloyd Price placed his large and well-stocked moors at the disposal of the committee, and not only acted as chairman of the committee, but showed great hospitality to the judges and everyone connected with the trials. There was quite a crowd of spectators on the moors, and Mr. Parmeter and his servants had to mark out the ground by movable flags, in order to allow the dogs room to work in. As it was, occasionally the dogs were pressed rather closely, but everyone seemed very willing, and indeed anxious, to let them have fair play. The scenery round the moors was very picturesque; the hills in the distance were often topped with clouds, and the rugged outline and varied colour would have delighted the heart of a water-colour artist. Of course, the walking part of the business was rather punishing. Ponies were procurable, but the banks were rotten, and bogs and quagmires of frequent occurrence, so that the greater part of the spectators preferred going on foot. Grouse were found in very fair numbers, and hares were sufficient to prove good breaking. Sir W. W. Wynne, Bart., acted as president, Mr. Price being chairman; and amongst the members of the committee were the Marquis of Exeter, Viscount Combermere, Viscount Downe, Hon. R. C. Hill, Mr. Whitehouse, Mr. Murchison, and several other well-known breeders of sporting dogs; Mr. T. Ellis was secretary.

The first dogs down were Mr. G. Moore's Dick and Duke, Duke being distinguished by a red collar. A hare was killed to them, and they soon got on some birds, two packs getting up some way in front. After a little uncertainty, Duke thought he had some birds, and stood in a very passable style, with his head half turned round, Dick backing; but the grouse had run on. They then put up a bird or two, the wind being against them, and their last point was perhaps their best, though Dick had a good mind to take it from Duke. Taking them all in all, they were a fairly-broken brace of dogs; but, though not without style in pointing, they wanted it in "going," and also worked too much together. Whilst they were down a drizzling rain was beating through the valley, but it cleared off before the next brace was uncoupled; this was Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Countess and Nellie. Countess was wild and resolute, though going in very good form; she dashed right away, and found some birds at least two hundred yards away from the guns; in fact Nellie found once or twice before they got up to Countess. They both made one or two good points, backing well, but heeding very little the whistle of Mr. Buckell, who worked them. Nellie made one false point, and chased a bird some considerable distance, and Countess carried her head far better than her stern. After four brace had been knocked down together by Mr. Shirley, the white black and tan setter, Rob Roy, and the liver and white pointer, Viscount, entered the arena. They soon found on the side of a hill, the grouse being wild and escaping scot free. The pointer had the birds; this was a very good point. A hare was killed unseen by them, and immediately afterwards Rob Roy dropped in some grass, but nothing came of it. He then put up a single bird, and dropped instantly, showing his want of nose. Two hares then got up, and were killed right and left by Mr. Webber. Rob Roy had a mind to go, but his keeper stopped him. The pointer then found some wild birds in furze, and Rob Roy made a false point or two, standing in really excellent style, amongst a group of boulders and black cattle, to nothing at all. Farther on he became cataleptic again to a like effect. The pointer found a few birds well, and was evidently in a more truthful humour than his companion. Rob Roy plainly wanted powers of scenting, and varied extremely in pace; now going very fast, and at other times pottering about as if afraid of putting up his game, though there was nothing there. They were down from 11.25 to 12.15, and then Lancy and Drake put in an appearance. They first went away, probably on scent of a hare, regardless of the whistle; then Lancy stood in uncommon good style to a snipe, Leighton, Sir W. Wynn's keeper, working out the corners, and leaving no ground untried, whilst he handled his dogs with judgment and patience. They then had one of the prettiest points of the day, Drake standing in grand form to three birds, the bitch backing not far behind him a little to his right. They ran over a brace of birds which the judges walked up, and got another moderate point further on. This finished their forty minutes' work. They were not showy performers, but good honest working dogs, wanting perhaps some speed and elan. Ranger and Squire were sent to try their luck. The wind was adverse, but they soon became rigid under a dyke, the orange and white show dog having the grouse and the setter backing him. The crowd here rather hemmed in the dogs, and Ranger, dropping to birds in a sort of open drain, he was, by reason of his extreme staunchness, absolutely lost for a few minutes. Squire possibly had the best style of going, Ranger carrying his stern too low; but there was a great deal to be admired about both of them, and they were clearly superior to everything yet shown. They made one false point on the hill, but birds might have run on, and probably had done so, and they showed good nose everywhere, else till time was up at 3.30. Belle and Roman Fall soon cut out the running at a slashing pace, the bitch working keenly and well, and the young dog going fast and strong. Belle soon "pegged" her birds, drew on them for a yard or two, and stiffened; the young 'un backing, and that well. The rain was now coming down rather sharply. They found once more under a dyke, but Roman Fall soon had enough of it, and cut up rather soft. Belle stood once or twice in very charming style, her manners being admirable, and worthy of a better companion. May and Kite, the red Irish setters, were the last dogs to try. They put up a bird and dropped directly, then pottered about a bit, and finally settled down to a good pace, turning quickly to the whistle. No birds were to be found for some time; at last they got a good point on the side of a hill, and, though Kite was a bit uncertain and crawled forward a trifle, his nose hadn't deceived him. The judges had Belle and Roman Fall down again, this time down wind, when the bitch began by flushing a bird, but afterwards roaded several single birds in magnificent style; they didn't behave quite as well as previously, and were soon taken up again.

3rd, Marquis of Westminster's Noble.

The day was a beautiful one, and the hills were picturesque, with various effects of light and shade, the river running clear as crystal, unstained by peat, as on the previous day. At about ten o'clock the judges were on the moor at Caefadog; but, in the absence of the first brace on the card, Rector and Dick were put down on the heather.

Rector soon pegged a single bird in some swampy ground, and was promptly backed by Dick. Dick then got a point on an old cock grouse, but Rector took it from him. They dropped like magic to the shot, and then Dick flushed a bird, and chased it, but immediately afterwards got a good point. The flushed bird was just under his nose, but he dropped almost instantly on its getting up. A double point next claimed the attention of the judges—Dick standing in grand form, and Rector crouching, with his small black head scarcely visible. Rector potted a bit on running birds; his rival made another good point, his stern quivering till he had made up his mind, and then holding it well up. The liver and white one then put up a few birds on the brow of a hill, ten yards in front of him, and soon after found capitally five grouse, and stood the dead one very steadily. The judges then took them down wind, in order to put them on a level with their competitors. Here, of course, they did not do as well. Dick found most of the birds, however, and Rector got the last point; and at 10.40 Thomas and Brailsford were told to take their dogs up.

Dick decidedly had a great superiority in pace, Rector being too small for anything but turnips, and he was pumped out by the bucketing he had received over heavy ground; nevertheless, he was admirably broken, and turned out as fit as good handling could make him. Mr. Statter's dog was now backed at evens to win, and looked very like it.

Roman Fall and Lulu next took up the work at ten minutes to eleven. They gave their keepers plenty of walking, and were wild and self-willed, scampering through a swampy flat a mile to the front, and making bad uncertain points in the next parish. The setter showed a fine turn of speed, but was evidently but half broken and utterly inattentive to the whistle. The men were following the dogs instead of hunting them for the judges to see them work. After half an hour of this performance their owners wisely drew them, saving time and useless trouble.

Noble and Macgregor next essayed to win. Macgregor pointing false, but immediately afterwards finding a single bird, and standing in fine form. He spoilt it, however, by rushing in when the gun was fired. Noble went in rocking-horse style, with a stern carried low, but he was very steady and under good command, though he flushed one bird. Bishop, Mr. Scratton's keeper, who had come up to work Pax (unfortunately lame in three feet) for Mr. Whitehouse, and had only had Macgregor for a week, did all he could to win, and showed great patience and knowledge of his art, but Mac was soon pumped out, and refused his work. The flag went up for Noble.

Kite and Ginx's Baby made a good point in the valley, the red Irishman having the birds, but he ran in like Macgregor, and even chased a bird. They found few birds for some time, though the Baby got one point, and worked well under the keeper's orders. They hunted a trifle in one another's company, and seemed scarcely enough independent, the setter won after all deservedly, and then it was time for lunch. On resuming the work, Dick and Ginx's Baby were tried together. Dick immediately got wind of an old cock, and the setter behaved well; he did not, however, work out of the scent sufficiently, in fact the scent puzzled him. Then there was a double point, but the setter was merely backing a sheep, the pointer being right enough. The ground was good, and there was but very little difference between them. The pointer had the pace and the setter the nose. They got a grouse alternately, and with similar form and style, Ginx's Baby being somewhat laboured perhaps in gallop. It was such a near thing that the judges pronounced it a tie. Thomas put Dick down once or twice instead of letting him back properly, through fear of his putting up his game; but on his being cautioned by the judges the dog was left to himself and backed well. The setter's roading on a cunning old cock was very clever, and he was a very brilliant performer. The pointer was a fine ranger, but he seemed not quite sure about backing, and inclined to take his opponent's point.

Rector and Noble ran once more for the third prize, and, after some indifferent work, Noble was placed.

Messrs. Shirley and Lort shot over the candidates, both straight and with judgment.

The weather was unusually propitious during the morning, and, in spite of a Welsh mist beating down the valley in the afternoon, the meeting was graced by Mrs. Price, Mrs. Pender, Miss Lloyd, and others of the fair sex, who, well acquainted, like all the ladies of Wales, with the amusements of moor and mountain, thoroughly appreciated the pleasure of seeing some good dogs obey the force of instinct and breaking. The first dogs which encountered the critical eye of the judges were Squire and Pompey. Squire had behaved well on the previous Wednesday in the braces, and it was supposed to be merely a matter of form as far as his beating Pompey went. He had, however, more to do than was anticipated. The first performance was a double point, where both stood well to a lark. Squire then made a false point, and, finally, after a little hesitation, they settled down in earnest to their work, and both did the tableau vivant business with a large pack of grouse in the foreground. The birds were wild, and the black and white dog flushed a brace soon after, dropping at once to hand. Squire had the pace, and the other pottered, working in mild form, with his head lower than his stern and that between his legs. Pompey's breaker used the whistle too much, and it was not wanted. His dog made one very fair point, and did not notice the winged bird. The birds were all on the top of the hill, and not at the bottom, where the dogs were working. Squire, however, got another good point, and so did Pompey, but he tried to get too close to his game. After the judges had had an opportunity of testing the scent, they decided in favour of Pompey, but no flag went up for the winner.

Viscount, who had worked well on Wednesday, next competed with Flax (née Belton). The setter went in spaniel-like form, jumping the heather as if he was going over a flight of hurdles, but he was the first to find, and Viscount backed him but moderately well, as, in fact, Thomas put him down to hand. The pointer then made an uncertain false point, and passed a bird when the guns put up. There was but little scent and Flax put up several birds, or perhaps they wouldn't lie to him; he once ran in a bit. Viscount was a bit jealous when the other dog had the point, and this culminated in his refusing to back at all properly, and at last they were taken up and Flax had won.

Ranger and Don showed the spectator better how the thing ought to be done. Mr. Macdona's cheap purchase of eighty guineas went over the ground at a slashing pace, working in a fast, smooth, and taking style, never made a mistake, but pulling up to his game when in full swing in charming postures, as if suddenly petrified or turned into marble. During the early part of the time he did all the work, quartering the ground regularly and well, and, though some birds got up, it was not his fault, but the absence of scent which caused it. Both dogs stood at the same time after Ranger had made one good point, and Don found the dead bird well; but he refused all through the performance to recognise his adversary's points, and was wild and inattentive to whistle. When taken down wind Don was inclined to take away the credit of finding game from his rival, who was full of the dash and staunchness he had first displayed. There was no use in offering odds on Ranger, who had won in a canter, and looked like pulling off the 25*l*.

Pompey was put down again with Rob Roy whose competitor was absent. The latter was suspected of possessing no nose; but he came up to the scratch far better than in the braces, and soon had scent of feathers in some high fern. The pointer not seeing him, was dropped to hand by Griffiths; and some pretty shooting was exhibited by Messrs. Shirley and Lort. Rob Roy flushed a bird or two where the heather had been burnt, and the "lying" was bad, and then stumbled on a good-sized pack amongst the boulders. The grouse got up in all directions, the dogs behaving well. On beating back towards the tent and luncheon the pointer pottered a bit, the setter going with a long and even stride, roading some running birds as well as could be desired, and finally beating his black and white friend into a cocked hat.

Belle and Grouse were expected to do a great thing, but their attention was first riveted to some snipe on boggy, wet ground. The bitch made a false point or two, which the judges did not lay too much stress on, as the birds had probably been there; and then she cleverly puzzled out the scent, and roaded up to a brace of close-lying young grouse in high heather. The dog was never in it, and let the other do all the work. He possessed some style in pointing, but was slow and clumsy in ranging, wanting more go and finish.

Dick and Macgregor were shouted for, and soon did all they knew to win. Mac found and Dick backed him naturally. Mr. Whitehouse's representative soon got wind of them again on the hill; but Dick did not approve of his antagonist always taking the shine out of him, and took the point away. Down wind Dick drew up to some grouse in very nice form, and, when he had pegged them, stiffened and stopped to them, looking a model of staunchness; but Dick was not to be done, and backed him complacently. For nearly fifty minutes they fought it out, Macgregor having improved in pace, and occasionally standing grandly, but not seeming good enough to beat Belle. He beat Dick without much to spare when the time was pronounced to be expired.

There was more excitement when Countess and Romp were announced. Countess's even method of going over the heather was perfection itself, and she quartered her ground and drew up to her birds in a style at once original and unapproachable. On the day of the Penlyn Stakes she had been wild and resolute in her behaviour, and to counteract this the whip had been used on Thursday, and she was so stiff and tired that she could not go at half her usual pace.

The first thing done was a double point, both dogs uncertain, and both points false; then the liver and white bitch had the birds. Countess, being exceedingly cautious, got a point or two, but flushed some birds rather badly, and did not back Romp as she ought to have done. (The fact of her flushing birds and not backing was disputed by Mr. Llewellyn in the Field, but the latter fact was corroborated by one of the judges.) Altogether, her manners were very different from those of Wednesday, although, towards the end of the time, she began to move in faster form. She was reckoned the best of the two, and then Ranger and Belle were put down, to let the judges pick out the winner. The mist was drifting up the valleys at times, rendering the dogs invisible, and making the binoculars cloudy, if not useless. Ranger soon showed his pristine excellence of dash and nose, catching up the scent and going straight away to his game with his accustomed intelligence and precision. At times he was jealous, and objected to backing, but it was nearly a dead heat between the two, the dog beginning with a trifling superiority of pace, but the bitch beating him in this point towards the last.

Belle dropped to shot when a driven bird was knocked down, and then got two consecutive points. They didn't put any birds up, though it was thought probable that they would. For one hour and a quarter chance held the scales, and it required great discrimination and knowledge of sport to pick the winner, which knowledge the judges fortunately possessed. The flag was run up in honour of Belle; and to avoid disputes and settle bets, Countess and Rob Roy fought it out for the third place, and the bitch having improved a little, won it. The prizes for condition, offered by Major Platt, were added to the keeper's prizes, for working dogs, given by Messrs. Holland and Hemming and the committee; and the money was divided between Thomas, Leighton, Gray, Ansty, Bishop, and Ashcroft, each of them receiving 2*l.*, and Mr. Brailsford received the prize for working dogs, given by Mr. Price. Mr. Purcell-Llewellyn sent in two objections, but the decisions were not altered by the committee. (See correspondence in the Field newspapers of October and September, 1873, between Mr. Llewellyn and the Field reporter. Also the editorial notes thereto by one of the judges.)

The judges on each occasion were Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P. (Ettington Park, Stratford-on-Avon), Mr. W. Lort (The Cotteridge, King's Norton), Mr. J. H. Walsh (The Cedars, Putney), Mr. Thomas Ellis officiated as secretary. The president of the committee was Sir Watkin Wynn, Bart, M.P.; Mr. F. Parmeter was the director of the ground.

The following is a list of the points gained by each dog as copied from the judge's books.

1873.—IPSWICH.

THE KENNEL CLUB.

THE EAST OF ENGLAND FIELD TRIALS were held on September 26th and 27th, 1873, on the estate of Colonel Tomline, M.P., about eight miles from Ipswich, at which town the East of England Dog Show—which was under the same rules, viz., those of the Kennel Club—was held. The judges were Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., Mr. J. H. Walsh, and Mr. W. Lort, and the management was in the hands of Messrs. W. Groom and J. Douglas. Each dog was allowed to be down three quarters of an hour, and was then taken up, but in consequence of some of the trials being undecided, the same brace of dogs had in one or two instances to go down twice.

II.

Dick beat Grecian Bend. | Macgregor beat Patch.

III.

Dick took 1st prize; Macgregor 2nd; and Bride and Roman Fall divided 3rd prize.

Grecian Bend and Belle were put down in a field of mangolds, and the former soon pointed where some birds had been, and then put up a covey in a hollow.

After some time, during which Belle did nothing, Grecian Bend stood at a point from which a covey had just risen, and after again pointing, flushed a bird. She then stood a covey well in some rough grass near the river Orwell, and the other behaved very badly. After getting two more points the flag went up for Grecian Bend.

Bride and Roman Fall were then put down in the same ground, which was a large grass field, and Roman Fall at once flushed a brace and went down well, the other taking no notice. Bride then stood a covey, and Roman Fall behaved well, being first down, though she was a bit unsteady at first. Roman Fall then flushed a brace, and afterwards stood a bird, a covey rising directly. Roman Fall was then drawing on some birds, and Bride pointed; but when they rose, the latter did not drop to shot, but running on soon after stood where a covey had risen. A move was then made into another grass field, where Roman Fall stood a covey. Bride then put up a bird and rolled on the ground, and Mr. Price's dog again found, and Bride backed. Some turnips on the side of a hill were then tried and found full of birds, and Bride first flushed one and then another, Roman Fall following her example several times. In the next field, a large stubble, Roman Fall flushed a covey, and then passed a bird in the middle of the field. Bride then marked a bird down in the next field, which was a very large one, full of mangolds and turnips, but she did not find it. Roman Fall then stood a covey in some mangolds, and both flags went up, the judges deciding that for the present their performances were equal.

Patch and Macgregor were then put down in the same field, and Macgregor ran up a covey and then chased them; Patch was inclined to stand, but followed Macgregor. The latter, after a while, got a good point at a single bird, and the bitch, though she did not back, dropped to shot well; she then stood well where a brace had risen, and soon after Macgregor was feathering about when a bird rose.

Patch then stood a covey out of which a runner was dropped, and soon after flushed a covey running down wind, but dropped well; she then flushed a covey, and Macgregor was well down.

A move was now made for a large grass field and stubble in which nothing was found, but in some short stuff over the hedge, Macgregor made a false point, and then a covey rose in front of Patch, who dropped well. Macgregor then behaved well at a bird which rose wild. After passing along a road the dogs were cast off in a grass field, and Macgregor stood a covey through the hedge, and the two were then taken up, their performances so far being equal.

Dick and Brighton were then put down, and Brighton found well over the brow of a hill, Dick backing splendidly, Brighton being a little unsteady. Dick then got a false point, and the other backed but ran in and took the point. Brighton then flushed a covey at the top of the field, and soon after Dick got a good point, when Brighton again ran in, took it from him, and flushed the birds. In some rough stuff Brighton stood momentarily at a covey, and then flushed them. Dick then pointed false under a hedge, and Brighton backed, and after this an adjournment was made to the farmhouse for lunch, where the flag went up for Dick.

Dick and Grecian Bend were then put down in some stubble, and Dick, who was a little stiff, stood a covey seventy or eighty yards off, Grecian Bend backing well. Both then flushed a covey, and after a move in some turnips both rushed into a covey, but dropped to shot well. In a large field of mangolds Dick then made two false points, and after a long trial, in which he behaved the best, a move was made for some of the ground which had been run over in the morning. In a fallow a covey got up, and both dogs dropped to shot, and then Grecian Bend flushed a covey, but both again behaved well. After passing through some potatoes and mangolds Dick flushed a single bird, and then took a false point; soon after this a brace rose wild, and as more got up, both dropped well. Dick then put up a hare up wind, but again behaved well, Mr. Shirley making a good shot.

Bride and Roman Fall were then put down in turnips, after some troublesome work. Bride flushed twice badly. A move was then made into a stubble field, and then Bride flushed a covey, and the two were taken up, no decision of the judges being made known.

Patch and Macgregor were again put down in the long grass field near the river, in which Grecian Bend and Belle were tried at first. Patch pointed a covey well, and then Macgregor pointed a covey, the bitch not backing. Macgregor then made a false point across a small stream. Patch did the same, and Macgregor was put down by Mr. Whitehouse. Patch made a good point at the bottom of the grass field, and Macgregor, running in, was again put down by Mr. Whitehouse as the bird rose. In a large stubble field Macgregor then stood a single bird in splendid style, but failed to find four birds, and on their rising was put down by Mr. Whitehouse. After some unsatisfactory work, in which Macgregor made one more point, and Patch flushed some birds, the dogs were taken up.

The asterisk indicates that for this point the dog has not been tested, and half the points had therefore been allotted.

On Thursday the meet was at the same place as on Wednesday, viz., Trimley Farm, an early start being made from Ipswich soon after eight o'clock. The weather was still beautifully fine, the sun shining brightly and with no small power; the scent was a trifle better than on Wednesday, so that the behaviour of the majority of the dogs running showed an improvement on that of those who ran the preceding day.

SUFFOLK STAKES, for all-aged pointers; four entries.

Mr. Barclay Field's liv. w b	} "	Mr. J. Bishop's liv. w d Brigh-
Mab, 3 yrs.		ton.

II.

Pax beat Brighton.

III.

1st, Pax; 2nd, Mab; 3rd, Brighton.

Venus and Pax were put down in a large stubble field at 9.30., and Pax, going in good form, soon found a covey, and stood them; but he did not seem quite certain, as he was a little unsteady. Venus, refusing to back, rushed in and flushed the birds. In some mangolds, which were tried next, both flushed birds frequently, but the dog dropped well to a covey which rose in front of him. Soon after this he chased a bird, and was corrected for it by his keeper; then in a large stubble the dog pointed a covey and dropped directly, and as the bitch rushed in and flushed them the white flag went up for Pax. Mab and Brighton were next put down in the same stubble, and the latter flushed a covey. Mab behaving well. Mab then ran up a bird, but dropped to wing instantly. Both then found a covey simultaneously, the dog over his shoulder. A move was then made for some very thin rape near the river, where both pointed a covey together, the bitch remaining steady and the dog jumping up at shot. In some long grass between the rape and the river embankment both stood a covey, but the bitch, who was slightly behind the dog, pointed first. Mab then pointed a brace in good form, and Brighton backed well, doing what he failed to do in his trial with Dick on Wednesday. Mab, during the whole of the trial, was very steady, and quartered her ground well, but she seemed to tire somewhat towards the finish. The two were then taken up, and, after moving to another grass field, Pax was put down with Brighton. Both raced off at great speed, and were quickly 100 yards in advance of their keepers, but Pax stood a covey well, and Brighton backed. Pax after this found a covey in good style, but Brighton ran in before him, and took his point away, and the birds rose wildly. Brighton then got a point and Pax backed steadily. At the shot the latter ran back to the gun, and not from it, as many thought was the case. Pax then badly flushed a single bird under the hedge in the next field, and then stood a covey in capital form, Brighton backing well. After a brace had been shot, Pax again running back, the first prize was awarded to him, the second to Mab, and the third to Brighton.

SETTERS.

IPSWICH STAKES, for setter puppies of 1872; five entries.

Mr. R. J. Ll. Price's lem. w d } Ginx's Baby, 17 mos. }	and	{ Mr. B. Field's bk w t b Daisy, 17 mos.
Mr. Bishop's lem. w d Brag, 15 } mos. }	beat	{ Mr. R. J. Ll. Price's lem. w d Pell, 15 mos.

II.

Pell beat Mr. Price's bk w b Lulu | Brag beat Pell.

III.

Ginx's Baby and Daisy divided 1st and 2nd prizes; Brag 3rd.

Ginx's Baby and Daisy were the first young setters put down, and the former soon found a covey in good style. Daisy then flushed a bird, but dropped well, and soon after stood a covey in good style, Ginx running in. Daisy then, although in the rear of Ginx, stood a covey about seventy yards off. Mr. Price's dog almost immediately scented the birds and drew to them, but they rose wildly. Daisy then pointed a covey in good style, and Ginx backed well, but the bitch jumped when the gun fired, and appeared gun shy. Daisy then stood well, and Ginx backed at a great distance, but the point turned out false. Soon after this Daisy again made a false point, but Ginx then got a good point at a covey, and the bitch backed in good form. After this they were taken up, no award being made at present.

Brag and Pell were then put down, and after a while Pell found a covey in middling style in some turnips. Brag, who seemed rather doubtful about the presence of birds, and was feathering about flushed a covey, and Bell dropped at them, but Brag did not. In a long stubble field nothing of importance took place, but when they were put down in some kohl rabi, first one and then the other flushed birds, but on the whole the performance of Brag was the best.

Daisy and Ginx's Baby were then put down in turnips, and both worked steadily, as if they were trying to find—their's being the only tolerable performance in turnips. Ginx flushed a covey, and then Daisy followed his example: on the latter occasion the dog dropped to shot, but Daisy's behaviour was peculiar.

The bitch then made a false point, being well backed by Ginx, who soon after dropped well on view of a covey. Daisy then ran up a covey, but did not drop to shot, and Ginx behaved admirably. The two were then taken up, and the judges were still unable to decide which of the two was the better. A move was now made for luncheon, after which Lulu and Pell were put down, and the former soon made a good point at a brace in some long grass, but Pell did not back. In the next field, which was swedes, Pell behaved well at a bird, and Lulu chased a covey to the end of the field. Daisy and Ginx's Baby were then put down in some long grass, where Ginx was almost guilty of a flush. He then made a point where a bird had risen just before, but soon afterwards he drew a covey in grand style, and Mr. Lort got a good right and left, Daisy again showing a dislike to the gun. Ginx again drew on a covey in grand style, and two birds fell, one being a runner, and the brace were then taken up.

Brag and Pell then competed in a large grass field next to the river bank, from which a cloud of birds were driven out by Sailor, Mr. Price's retriever, who was attempting to find a runner, but only brought it when he saw it jumping up, although he was on the scent. Brag dropped well at a single bird, and Pell, who immediately rushed in front of him, put up a covey. Brag next stood a covey well, after drawing in tolerable style; and he then found a hare and pointed, where it fell to Mr. Whitehouse's gun.

The first brace of the All-aged Setter Stakes were then put down, but we continued the puppy stakes to its completion.

Brag and Daisy were put down in some long grass, and the bitch at once established her superiority over the dog, although not much was done. Ginx's Baby and Daisy were once more put down in a large stubble field, and Daisy made a false point, Ginx backing, but not staunchly. Ginx then flushed a covey, but both dropped immediately. Nothing more occurred, and the first and second prizes were ultimately divided between Ginx's Baby and Daisy, and the third was awarded to Brag.

EAST OF ENGLAND STAKES; for all aged setters.

Mr. Macdonald's bk w t d Ranger ,	} beat {	Mr. Barclay Field's bk w d
2 yrs.....		Rake , 2½ yrs.

II.

Ranger beat Ginx's Baby, and won.

III.

1st, Ranger; 2nd, Ginx's Baby; 3rd, Rake.

Ranger and Rake were put down in a large grass field close to the river bank, but curiously enough birds now became very scarce, and hardly any were to be found. Ranger went off at a great pace, quartering his ground in grand style, and it soon became evident that he could go half as fast again as his opponent. He went about his work very carefully—almost too carefully, as he feathered about a good deal; but he kept his head well up. He was not long in making a point, but he soon left it, on discovering that he had made a mistake. In the next field, also grass, Rake pointed a covey, and then made a false point, Ranger being down at the same time and standing a bird about seventy yards off, which Rake, who was much nearer to it, afterwards found when he left the false point. After this, Rake made a false point, and in a small grass field Ranger found a covey in grand style, Rake backing well. Ranger then galloped to the hedge at a far end, and, turning sharply, pointed, Rake backing also on the turn. On the guns going up a rabbit started up, and was allowed to go into the hedge unmolested. In the next field, a large stubble, Rake flushed a covey, whilst Ranger, who was not in sight, as he had run over the brow of the hill, was down. On the guns going up, nothing rose; but Rake soon after pointed, drew on some birds under the hedge, and flushed them not far from where Ranger had been standing, the birds having run during the time which elapsed before Ranger could be discovered.

Rake was then ordered up, and Ginx's Baby and Ranger competed, and showed some very pretty work. Ranger stood some birds in long grass, Ginx having them a moment after. A single bird then rose in front of Ranger, but he was down instantly. Ranger then coming fast down wind, turned sharp, and pointed back from the direction in which the wind came; and Ginx's Baby, turning in the same manner, backed him instantly, the whole thing, done in a couple of seconds, being a great treat to those who were so fortunate as to see it. Ranger then got another point, Ginx backing well, and the former soon after again stood a covey, which Ginx flushed.

This terminated the trial, and the judges awarded first prize to Ranger, second to Ginx's Baby, and the third to Rake. Ranger would have obtained the maximum number of marks had it not been for his habit of dropping on his point, and not standing properly. Subjoined are the points :—

The two bracketed totals are clearly a mistake, but being correct according to The Field report, they have been left as they are.

Mr. Price's Sailor, the only entry, won the cup given for retrievers.

Prizes for working dogs were given, the first to the younger Bishop, who worked Mr. Field's dogs in excellent style, and the second was divided between Benjamin Hallam, Mr. Macdona's keeper, and Anstey, Mr. Price's keeper. James Bishop, of Eyton, took the prize—a silver cup—given for the dogs which were in the best condition for the trials.

Two of the judges, Mr. Shirley and Mr. Lort, handled the guns during the two day's sport.

1600. KENT (OLD KENT).—Rev. Thomas Pearce's, Morden Vicarage, Blandford, Dorset (owned at times by Mr. Rogerson, Rev. F. W. Adye, and Mr. Rowland Wood, of Northampton).

Kent's pedigree was never thoroughly known. He was purchased by Mr. Pearce from Sir Edward Hoare, Bart., of Hothfield, Ashford, at the Ashburnham Show of 1863, the first time he was shown. Sir E. Hoare has informed the Editor of the Kennel Club Stud Book, that he bought the dog when quite a puppy from an old rabbit catcher on the Hothfield estate, and that he was brought up by a cat. Sir E. Hoare believes that Kent came from the Duke of Gordon's kennels.

The following pedigree was given to Mr. Rowland Wood, of Northampton, by the Rev. F. W. Adye, who stated that he had compiled it by correspondence with Mr. J. Jobling, of Morpeth, and Mr. Kenyon, keeper to Sir R. Crofton, who he (Mr. Adye) believed really bred Kent.

Mr. Josh. Jobling states that he exchanged some spare setters with Mr. John Kenyon (Potter's Corner, near Ashford), and that either Scamp or a son of his (black) was the father of Kent; Kenyon is now dead.

Johnstone, by a dog of good blood belonging to an officer at the Purshill Barracks, out of Johnstone's Maud by Miss Mather's Spice, out of J. Scott's Wasp, by E. B. Smith's dog out of Scott's Little Spice, by his Brandy out of Johnstone's Spice, by Sir G. Douglas's Pepper out of Mr. Brisbane's Nettle; Mustard (see note A) by Mr. Scott's (of Newstead) Pepper out of Boyd's Nettle, by Sir F. Douglas's Pepper II. out of Scott's Vixen, by Brisbane's Pepper out of his Spice, bred by Mr. D. M'Dougall, of Cessford (celebrated for his pure breed); Pepper by Brisbane's Demon out of Nettle, bred at Kirkmichael; Demon by Friar Tuck out of John Reed's Pepper; Pepper II. by Sir G. Douglas's Pepper I. (bred by the Duke of Buccleuch, and descended from Old John Stoddard's blood) out of Schann, descended from Stoddard's Old Schann and Dandie; Scott's Pepper, sire of Mustard, was by Scott's Brandy out of his Jezabel, by his Wasp out of his Bess, by Sir G. Douglas's Pepper (bred by Mr. Taylor) out of Scott's Mustard; Wasp by Scott's Pepper out of his Vic; Brandy by Dr. Brown's Puck out of Scott's Wasp, by his Dandie out of his Nettle, by Duke of Buccleuch's Dandie out of his Ringlet; Puck by Henry Dodd's Pepper out of his Pepper.

NOTE A.—The pedigree of Shamrock was formerly wrongly given by Mr. Broadwith to Mr. J. Scott, who sent it to the Rev. Tenison Mosse; Mr. Broadwith has now corrected the mistake. Pepper IV., the reputed sire of Mustard (said to be the sire of Shamrock) would, if now living (1874) be barely nineteen years old, and Mustard, his reputed son, twenty-two years old. The fact is, Mr. Broadwith confounded Mustard, bred by Nichol Milne, with Mustard, bred by Mr. Hodge, which latter was the sire of Shamrock.

NOTE B.—Wasp, the dam of Brandy, was descended from The Slater, and the Merton Dandie, which was given to Lord Polwarth by Sir Walter Scott.

These Biscuits are unsurpassed by those of any other manufacturer, both in the quality of the materials employed, skill in compounding them, and care in their equal and intimate combination with regard to their nutritive qualities.

Editorial Notice in the "Irish Sportsman," Sept. 20th, 1873—Page 7.

We can testify from experience to the excellence of the Buffalo Meat Biscuits manufactured by Mr. Clarke as a food for dogs. They are nutritive in a high degree, handy to keep, easily prepared, and the dogs seem to like them as an article of diet. Many of our friends and correspondents coincide with us in this opinion, having used the Biscuits in their kennels, and found them an excellent food.

THESE BISCUITS MUST BE KEPT IN A DRY PLACE.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Two Biscuits per day for an ordinary size dog, for others feed according to size.

The continuous use of this food will, by purifying the blood, make the breath sweet, render the hide glossy and free from smell.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hilbre House, West Kirby, Cheshire, Nov. 16th, 1872.

Sir,—The Biscuits you supplied for my dogs in London agreed very well with them, and got them into good condition, I can therefore recommend your Buffalo Meat Biscuits as excellent and wholesome dog food.

Mr. W. G. Clarke.

J. CUMMING MACDONA.

The London Canine Infirmary, 82, Grosvenor-street, W., Feb. 5th, 1873.

Dear Sir,—I have used the Buffalo Meat Biscuits I had from you on trial, and like them very much, as I find them easily masticated and digested; consequently the dogs thrive on them, and the skins also improve after using them to dogs suffering from mange, &c., in combination with our usual treatment of skin diseases, in much less time than is the case with other biscuits I have used. Will you send me 5 cwt. as early as convenient.

Yours obediently,

Mr. W. G. Clarke.

Dear Sir,—I have tried the Biscuits of three different makers and I find yours best suit my dogs; they are maintained in good condition by them, and I can most favourably recommend them.

Yours truly,

Mr. W. G. Clarke, Anchor Biscuit Works, Ratcliff, E.
